

Throw Store By-Law Out? Council Majority Says No

Store closing hours in Georgetown were not at the time of the meeting. The mayor said one of making a living and the Council voted it down. "One of the local papers" the particular edition "sabotaged" only answer is for us to loss. While three councillors on was blamed by Cr. Emerson. Reeve Elliott continued to esen themselves. Monday favoured throwing the and Mayor Hyde for scuttling getting merchants to. Cr. Hildebrandt pointed out that the Oakville Trafalgar bus- by-law out entirely, a major effort to get the two merchant groups together on more promotion of that council is concerned with $463,635 in interest, plus the pibed. If you want a chance to feel this measure would not factions together. Georgetown. Please neither the merchant. The businessmen did get to. But Cr. Bill Smith said the "I would be sharking my duty if I do group which wants. Thursday, and came up with no to Ward 3 ratemakers if I do evenings open; nor the group reasonable, rational solution concrete solution. We've kicked this around they want to shop Thursday. Cr. Gray said if merchants don't give them the opportunity with a firm request for six weeks, not with both nights," he said. "If they get together they might find support abundant." Cr. Emerson feels that if so much business that every which governs an important fed United Gas Ltd. to come to any decision, the by-law is rescinded, met one "will want to open an ex segment of the town's assess. In making his motion, he said that soon enough get into night to serve customers need. More than industry an agreement with the com and Susan Trott are boys and emerson present. Deputies "in an obvious reference to feel we should deprive money and come to council. He urged merchants to co-op all" he added.

County Council Briefs

The cost of borrowing money was shown clearly when an issue of $658,000 of debentures for the Oakville Trafalgar bus- capital was sold to Nesbitt, Thomson, & Co at Halton Coun-

"Why should a committee tell the Warden where he'll have his dinner, or who'll be at it?" demanded Reeve G. Leslie of

Hillside, & Co at Halton Coun-

He advocated a return to the war-

old system whereby the Warden was allowed so much for the 20 year life of the debt alone to organize it entire the County will pay Smiling Warden Martin re

11,000 town residents

principal of $658,000 for a to it will have to be next year. It has been set up this way for the road from Milton Heights to the 16 Mile Creek Conservation Area will be absorbed into the county road system, and maintained as such

• • •

Permission to install a 2250

GHS extra-curricular life

This term Mr. G. H. Dickin-

son, B.A., B.Ped., M.A., is the

Council Staff Adviser. Stewart Saxe is

Editor in Chief. Fred Roberts,

and Susan Trott are Boys and

Girls Sports Editors

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD
Thursday, Oct. 3rd, 1963
"High Tales" Start
Again Next Week

PAGE 16

The newspaper within a newspaper, the Georgetown and District High School's High Tales, starts a new series in The Herald next week.

Created eleven years ago to channel the high school's happenings into the public stream, High Tales will bring to Herald readers editorials with youth's point of view, social notes, sports coverage and reports from the numerous clubs and associations that make up the GHS extra-curricular life.

This term Mr. G. H. Dickin-

son, B.A., B.Ped., M.A., is the

Council Staff Adviser. Stewart Saxe is

Editor in Chief. Fred Roberts,

and Susan Trott are Boys and

Girls Sports Editors

H.E. "CHICK" SIMPSON MOTORS PRESENTS RAMBLER FOR '64

HARRY SMITH
General Manager

H. E. "Chic" SIMPSON
President

BILL HARRINGTON
General Sales Manager

BILL KERR
Sales Representative and Orangeville Manager

H. E. (Chic) Simpson Motors Ltd.

Cordially invite you to attend the showing of the

1964 RAMBLER

at their showrooms
310 Queen St. East, Brampton

Thursday evening, October 3rd, 1963

REFRESHMENTS

NORM SAVILLE
Sales Representative

BILL McCULLOCH
Sales Representative

RON SUTHERLAND
Office Manager

BILL BAULCH
Service Manager

DAVE SAUNDERS
Parts Manager

BUD WHITLOCK
Sales Representative

STAN BLACKWOOD
Sales Representative

JACK CHRISTIE
Body Shop Foreman

JOHN HAMILTON
Service Sales

BOB CAMPBELL
Sales Representative

MASON McDONALD
Sales Representative