Shipboard Mission is Career of Minister

On Sunday evening in the church the Messengers and Ex-plores, with their leaders Mrs. of ships from Norway, Japan and Britain and how he goes John Bird, Mrs. John McNabb on board and talks with these and Mrs. John Ruddell, held men from other countries and tries to fill their souls with a "Mission Night." While the people gathered, divine love and leaves literal-ly, played quiet music. Then all over the world and we are the children came from the pray for them and remem-berance singing the hymn "He loves all and died for "Holy Spirit, Hear Us" and af-ter taking Rev. Orr for his pic-ture taking their places in the church they sang tunes, the soloist, and the Boys three more hymns; after which Band and this wonderful Mis-Mrs. Bird welcomed the large sion Night ended with the benediction.

Mr. Tom Darcie of George-town delighted everyone with his solos, "O Lord How Great Thou Art" and "If I Took a Million." Mrs. C. B. Dick who celebrat-ed their forty-fifth wedding anniversary on Oct. 1st and John McNabb conducted a short worship service; Lois McNabb their thirty-fourth on October read the 100th Psalm and Pra-ise. Happy birthday to Mr. Tom yer was by Thelma Carney. Offering was received by Brown-ridge on Oct. 1st. May John Nurse and Murray Brown have many more years of work and went to Rev. Orr's work.

Social & Personal

Some Georgetown Citizens Band junior members, with their leader Clyde Stewart, played several selections and it was a great treat to hear of these laddies under twelve who brated their Twenty-fifth Wed-ding Anniversary with a dance at the Odd Fellows' Hall. Their niece and nephew, San-dra and Gordon Barker of Oak-ville, opened with a few words of prayer. He said he was the dancing. Guests were present from Welland Canal Mission for Sai-dra and Gordon Barker of Oak-ville supplied the music for the evening. Rev. Orr from the Welland Canal Mission for Sai-dra and Gordon Barker of Oak-ville supplied the music for the evening. Rev. There is fall in the air and with the gorgeous coloring of the mountain above the vil-lage we are reminded of it. See you at the fair and then a little later at the World-Blowing Match on Conn Smy-the's farm at Caledon. We are fortunate to have it so close to home. Oct. 8-12 They un-veil a Cairn of Peace at every World Match and this will be the second one in Canada — the first was ten years ago at Cobourg.

Ransack School But Find no Money There

Smashed windows, damage to a filing cabinet, and writing on the principal's office wall was the extent of damage when a break-in occurred at Spay-side Public School. The incident occurred some-time during the night of Tues-day, October 1st. A similar occurrence took place about a year ago. The entry was discovered by the caretaker, Jim Morrison, when he arrived on Wednes-day morning to open the school. Entry to the office and to rooms 1 and 5 had been gained by breaking a window in each room. The principal's filing cabinet had been pried open. Apparently the culprits were looking for money. Principal Gary Dawkins reported nothing missing. The county OPP detachment was alerted and is invest-igating the break-in. Board Chairman R. J. Can-ningham told The Herald today that the board is concerned about such damage. If it is proved that the board is wrong, he said their efforts are in vain for all principals have instal-led to least a number of value in the schools overnight.

Witnesses to Attend Seminar in Brampton

The fall seminar for Ju-venile Witnesses of Ontario (Crest No. 8) will be held Oc-tober 4, 5, 6 at the Central Peel Composite School, Bramp-ton. Commenting on the need for the delegates to convene an-nually, Mr. Mc Taylor, pre-siding minister of the Geor-getown congregation said, "It is throughout Christendom there is an acknowledged need for lay participation in spreading Christian education. This can only be learned through in-structive sessions such as those taking place this coming week."

The Georgetown delegates will join with those of 15 other congregations from such centres as Stratford, Kitch-ener, Guelph, Acton, Ferris, Ar-thur, etc. It is expected some 1000 persons will attend from the surrounding area.
