

COUNTY SOFTBALL

Glen Goes Out Winless Hornby Completes Sweep

Hornby Redshirts are champions of Halton County Men's Softball League today. They powered their way to the title Sunday by trouncing Glen Williams 7-1 to win the best of seven final in the minimum number of games.

Blake Inglis carried the first of seven runs across the plate when he scored in the first inning. The rest came in the 6th, 7th and 8th.

Consecutive singles by Charlie Gillies, John Willmott, Dave Leslie and Doug Burnside produced two Hornby runs in the 6th, Graham Gillies and Jamie Cunningham scored on Ron McLean's triple and McLean made it home on an error.

Jamie Cunningham was the winner. John Willmott took the loss.
