Group Committee Seeks Parent Support for Cubs

The 4th Georgetown Group Committee (Scouts and Cubs) met on Wednesday evening, Oct. 22nd, in St. Andrew's United Church, to discuss plans for the future of the Scouts and Cubs. Scouter Jim Munro said that the Cub Pack has grown so large that it will soon be necessary to divide it into two separate groups, meeting on different nights.
Mr. Carman Kidd, chairman, was asked to comment on a letter recently sent to the parents of Scouts and Cubs which dealt with an Assessment Plan whereby the amount of $4.00 was asked for each boy enrolled.
"It is not fair," said Mr. Kidd,
"that a mere handful of mothers in the Auxiliary should be expected to raise all the money needed while many parents contribute absolutely nothing in support of this enterprise. Even this $4.00 will not keep us out of the red, and we must continue to look to the Auxiliary for help. More than 50% of this assessment is sent to Scout Headquarters as registration fee, accident insurance and the CANADIAN BOY magazine which each boy receives every month. The balance is used to help pay for such things as leaders' uniforms, special courses, flags, carriers, totem poles, ropes, balls, books, camping fees, parties and outings. Our leaders give their time, effort and devotion and the least the rest of us can do is to support them in every way possible."
The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 8th, and again parents are urged to attend.
