Stewartstown Boasts Four Lorne Scots Commanders

Attending the International World Plowing Match at Caledon on Saturday last were among those fortunate enough to view the presentation of the Colours to the Lorne Scots Regiment.

On looking over the program we noticed that of the 15 Commanding Officers of the Halton Rifles before the amalgamation with the 36th Peel Battalion, to form the Lorne Scots, six were from Esquerring Township. They were Lieut. Col. Noble of Norval, Lieut. Col. Ballantine of Silver Creek, and the remaining four were from Stewartstown. Lieut. Col. John Murray, Lieut. Col. William Applebeé, Lieut. Col. Gordon Brown and Lieut. Col. Gordon Cousins.

Our own Col. Brown, at 75, is the oldest surviving ex-Commanding Officer of either Regiment.

The present Lieut. Donald Lawson is the son of Mrs. and the late Walter Lawson and was born in Stewartstown, as was the present Regimental Sgt. Major, John Murray, and he is the great grandson of the Lieut. Col. Murray mentioned above.

Thursday evening last Mrs. George Atkinson was hostess to the members of Esquerring W.I.T.

The ladies arrived wearing their vegetable hats, the roll call for the October meeting. It was really surprising to see the lovely green leaves of the spinach forming a lovely head piece and decorated with cauliflower flowers, carrots, parsnips, beets, peppers etc all took their place and were good for a laugh or two.

The president, Mrs. Robert Lawson opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Collect and Mrs. C. A. Grand read from the Beatitudes Booklet. Mrs. Armstrong, Secretary, read the minutes and the Financial Statement. Mrs. Grand District Director, gave her report of the Directors Meeting held in Milton.

Mrs. R. Lawson read our cent event's prepared by Mrs. W. Lawson who was unable to attend but sent along items for her historical program.

Mrs. H. Lawson read a very

Chicken Barbecue Ends Season for Ball Clubs

A chicken barbecue was held at the Hornby Community Park on Sunday night, Oct. 6th, to draw to a close the end of the 1963 softball season for the girls and boys of the Hornby ball teams. The first part of the evening was spent playing foot ball followed by a game of baseball between the married boys and girls against the single ones. The barbecue was attended by 75 and the Chef for the evening was John Feenstra assisted by Stan Waters. The barbecue pit was prepared by Jamie Cunningham. A hearty vote of thanks is extended to these three men for the work they did to make the evening such a success and also to Alfred Bridgen who made the coffee and looked after the booth during the season. Guests at the barbecue were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Inglis of the Glen Williams team.

The second meeting of the North Hornby 4-H Club was held at the home of Linda Learmonth on Friday at 7 p.m. The meeting opened with the 4-H Pledge and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary. The roll call. "The colours I am using in my bedroom" was answered by the six members present. The name selected for this unit was "The Hornby Dresserettes" which was agreed on by all. The discussion which followed included the club members plan for accessories choosing material for the bedroom accessories, measuring and estimating the amount of material required for a bedspread, cushion chair pad and dressers seat. The group work included Italian hemstitching. Lunch was served by the hostess and the meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Wilson on Saturday, Oct. 19th at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ward at St. Paul's on Saturday, October 12th.

Get well wishes are extend ed to little Michael Leslie who is ill at his home with scarlet fever.

Congratulations to Captain and Mrs. James Wallace and Dorothy Course who were mar ried in marriage by Rev. J. E. Maxwell on Saturday, October 12th at St. Stephen's Anglican Church.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rayner on the birth of their daughter Helen Elizabeth, weight 8 lbs. 10 oz. at the Milton District Hospital on Oct. 3rd. A sister for Debra.

was turned in to the Treasurer and the 1964 calendars were given out to each member.

Mrs. Atkinson, assisted by Mrs. Robert McDonald served a very lovely lunch. Mrs. Jim Delhi were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Ken in the meeting and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Happy birthday to Donnie Stadion who is eight years old on Wednesday of this week and

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laws to Donald Densmore who will be 11 on Monday, Oct. 21st.
