Garbage Can Flare Calls Fire Brigade

A careless smoker is being blamed for a fire that sent Mrs. Terry Bludd, 10 John St. E., early Tuesday morning. Fire Chief Bob Bunfield said apparently someone dropped a match into the Bludd's garbage can which was flaming.

Mrs. Bludd turned in the call to the fire department but when they arrived they found the police had poured water on it but it out. Had it been allowed to burn it would have ignited the pole.

Principal Harold Knapper urged the parents to harp on the safety rules, and insist the children take the safest and most direct route to school. It then introduced, all the members of the staff.

Following a film entitled "Canada in the Space Age" the president, Peter Hedgecock, pointed out that it could be pointed to the future careers of the children. Suggesting topics for future meetings, he listed, "Should we teach French here?" "Should we have an auditorium and can we afford it?" "Need for a library?" and "A Definition of Education."

The meetings of the group have been changed from the first Monday in the month to the first Tuesday of the month at the request of a majority of the members.

This year's executive consists of President, Peter Hedgecock; Vice Pres., Mrs. Mary Anne Smith; 2nd Vice Pres., G. Sigurdson; Rec. Sec., Mrs. J. R. Colter; and executive members Mrs. J. Cloney, Peter Berry, Mrs. Helen Platt, Mrs. Pat Godden, Mrs. M. Rea and Mrs. Pat Barkhouse.

P-Cs Set October For Annual Meeting
