Green Coatee Adoption Adds Regimental Color

This is the eleventh in a series of articles dealing with the history of the Lorne Scots. On October 12th the Pipes and Drums of the 17th Militia Group in Halton presented its colors to a representative of Her Majesty during the World Plowing Match at Lt.-Col. Conn Smyth's Caledon Farms.

Lt. Col. S. R. Charters assumed command in a splendid ceremony in the drill hall at the training centre, Brampton, on the 12th of December, 1954. 364 all ranks were on parade. The area commander, Brig. G. E. R. Smith, inspected the regiment. It was announced that the department had authorized the wearing of the green coatee for all ranks. Although it was possible that the Department of National Defence would make the kit issue, the regiment was responsible for the purchase of the dress. Early in 1955 the drive to raise funds for coloured dress was intensified. The officers association made a generous contribution. Extra grants were received from the Counties of Peel, Dufferin and Halton, and the companies raised substantial amounts. Non-M.C. late commanding officer of the Lorne Scots, Lt. Col. J. B. Stewart, was again instructed at local headquarters to supply an additional War Memorial personnel. The officers' main activities during 1956 were their green coatee for which closed with the area H. CNR Sells Safety, with Train Volume Increasing

The Canadian National Railway has begun to intensify its safety selling here in an effort and dropping obstacles from the hazards of the greatly increased volume of rail traffic through town which will accompany the opening of the Toronto Terminal project.

With Corporal Ted Scott and Constable Bruce McQuarrie of the Georgetown Police Dept. J. F. Eagles, a CN special agent toured Georgetown schools during a three-day campaign that started the railway safety wheels in motion.

The officers were at Holy Cross and Harrison Wednesday, George Kennedy and Wragglesworth Thursday, and Chapel St. and Park Friday driving the message home to approximately 3,000 pupils.

The assemblies at each of the schools viewed a film "The Long Way Home from School", heard a talk on safety, and were shown actual pictures of some of the law-breaking that goes on, for example: breaking of block signals, shortcutting through railways yards, climbing on boxcars, throwing stones at trains, bringing them
