

MR. AND MRS. RON RITCHIE

MR. AND MRS. RON RITCHIE cut their wedding cake at their reception in the IOOF Hall, following the marriage in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams. The bride is the former Lois Can. daughter of Mrs. Robert Can and the late Mr. Can, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ritchie, 9 Emery Street.

Men's Club Serves Tea At UCW Ladies' Meeting

The president, Mrs. Lee, have been counselled and re-sing, presided at the general habilitated meeting of the United Church Women of St. John's, Wednesday evening in the church hall. Members of Unit G were in charge of the devotional part held on Wednesday, Dec. 4th.

Mrs. Lloyd Crichton led in a beautiful reading of the vember and donations of good literature lesson being read from Deuteronomy (Ch. 8 verses 1-14) by Mrs. J. Matthews.

Mrs. E. Lince read a timely Thanksgiving Prayer. A solo by Mrs. G. Kidney, "Thank Thee Lord" added inspiration to the meeting. Mrs. Delmar French was accompanist for the evening.

Mrs. Roy Wilson gave a concise report on the Keswick Conference for UCW to which she had been a delegate and stated it had been a most uplifting and inspiring experience.

Mrs. G. King, secretary for Christian Citizenship and Social Action, gave a well-prepared talk stating, Jesus came to preach, teach and heal, commissioning His disciples to carry on after His ascension. Down through the ages the Church, in His name, has cared for Senior Citizens in building homes, providing shelter and affection for them.

Regarding Teen-agers, groups have been formed, Scouts and Cubs, G.G.I.T., Young Peoples, etc. in helping to combat Juvenile Delinquency. Alcoholics not far behind.

Richmond Hill New Home For Mr. & Mrs. Ken Beam

A couple who will live in their marriage Richmond Hill were married on September 14th in Glen Williams United Church.

Wedding principals were Barbara Ann Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stokes, 64 McIntyre Cres., and Harold Kenneth Beam, son of Mr. Harold Beam of Toronto and Mrs. Mary Giles of Glen Williams.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the double ring ceremony which was performed by Rev. Lloyd Freet. Mrs. Shirley Inglis played the wedding music and the groom's cousins, Marilyn and Carol Barch sang "I'll Walk Beside You." Mr. Stokes gave his daughter a street-length white satin gown with white lace bodice and scalloped neck and sleeves. Her hair-shaded skirt was caught at the waist with a satin bow and she wore the groom's gift, a pearl necklace and earrings. A white tulle veil and coronet completed her ensemble and she carried a cascade of pink and white roses.

Betty Stokes was her sister's maid of honour and Mrs. John Ottaway was bridesmaid. They wore flowered pink tulle with pale pink nylon overskirts, in tuliskirted style, with cap sleeves, headpieces of pale pink bows and white accessories. They carried bouquets of white carnations and pink roses. John Ottaway was groomsmen and John McGowan and Allen Stokes were ushers.

At a reception in the Sunday School room, the bride's mother received wearing dark beige tulle with organza overskirt, short sleeved and with a scooped neckline, brown accessories and a corsage of pale yellow roses. The groom's mother assisted in light beige with dark brown accessories and corsage of dark yellow roses.

For a honeymoon trip to northern Ontario, the bride wore a grey double knit suit with black trim and black accessories and a corsage of pink and white roses.

Mr. Beam is employed in Richmond Hill with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. His wife, who will work with Cadillac Lumber was formerly employed in town with P. Graham Bell Associates.

Mystery Industry After Halton Site
