

Forgetting Not a Fault Some Memories Painful

by Don N. Platt To forget is something the human mind is well equipped to do. Forgetting is not a fault...

These memories must to some extent be retained, if not for the sake of the memories, at least for the sake of those unfortunate people involved in them.

A man who gave his life cannot be repaid for his sacrifice. The dependents he left behind, however, should not...

New Brampton Baby Makes Five Smith Generations

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hooper (the former destroyed themselves. We do not hurt our enemies nearly as much as ourselves, he concluded. We must build up people, not destroy them and he urged calling on God for forgiveness; he has no enemies. At the evening service the choir was assisted with solos by Mr. Thomas Darcie of Georgetown who sang "I Depend On My God" and "How Great Thou Art" (with that wonderful voice of his). The minister, Rev. William Morris, B.A., of Buttonville, spoke on "The Joyous 'Good News' and his joyful message was from the 19th chapter of the Gospels, the story of Zacchaeus in the sycamore tree. This rich publican and tax collector was so determined to see Jesus, who looked up and saw him and received him joyfully and led in prayer, then declared the Bazaar open.

The hall was beautifully decorated and gave the atmosphere needed for Christmas gift shopping. The fancy work department proved a likely spot for this week's Bazaar sponsored by the St. John's Church Guild. Rev. J. E. Maxwell welcomed the ladies and led in prayer, then declared the Bazaar open.

50-50 DRAW The winner this week has been, shall we say, lost Bob Williams sold the winning ticket, No. 1417Q, but the stub aged in mind or body must at least have the help of a detective which he so dearly paid. Veterans' hospitals throughout the country are filled with inpatients still undergoing repairs...

Of Police Cars Discuss Leasing

Possibility of adopting a leasing system to replace ownership of police cars is being investigated by the town council. Mayor Hyde told council on Monday that Chinguacousy finds this a better system, and that other towns are adopting it. "I think it is good business, and if we did one of the vehicles should be an unmarked car," he said.
