

Lakeshore Licking Wounds Beaver Bite Bigger Bruins

Lakeshore Bruins are scowling at the Metro Junior B schedule-makers today for throwing them into the Georgetown Memorial Arena against the young Georgetown (Eager) Beavers who as Friday night's meeting brought out have greater quantities of pride than the Bruins have muscle.

Skating in front of a hometown crowd of 650 for the first time and shouldering a string of pre-season losses, Beavers couldn't do anything else but fight tenaciously and even the blue-suited league power wasn't going to keep them from gaining at least a tie, a 4-1 tie as it happened.

Lakeshore-owned a 3-1 cushion half way through the game, but hadn't figured on Georgetown Beavers remembering the lesson Dixie Beavers had taught them four days before. At that time Beavers stayed neck-and-neck with the Be-third to take a pasting. Coach Del Beaumont not wishing a repeat of the cave-in, paced his team perfectly and gave them a morale boosting right after the second period so that third period saw their develop at least until after his charges had crossed the two goal difference.

The equalizer came with a little over seven minutes left. Wayne Watson the goal scorer on a pass from Silby. Earlier in the period Kroenke netted Georgetown's third goal, un-

Juniors Outclassed by St. Jerome Footballers

by Fred Roberts

In the junior game at Guelph St. Jerome's dominated the scoring until the final play of the game, when Phil Lavell carried the puck in on a point shot from the seven yard line.

Right from the opening kick off when the St. Jerome's team recovered their short kick, you could tell that the Junior Bees were going to have to be exceptionally good to win.

Georgetown's right half Dave Parsons, put on a fine display of broken field running, while Jack Haynes, the other half, piled up yardage in typical Jim Brown fashion.

A slight misunderstanding occurred, in the third quarter, between our own Jack Haynes and Dave Mitchell, a half back for St. Jerome's, when Jack tackled him, driving him out of bounds and on top of the plywood centre field marker. The end result was ejection from the game for the St. Jerome's player.

When Phil Lavell was temporarily put out of action, Jack Haynes took over the signal calling duties and did an admirable job. Lavell's touchdown was the first points scored against the St. Jerome's Juniors all year.

Although they trailed all of the game the Georgetown High boys put on an excellent display of football and sportsmanship as they went down to defeat gracefully to the tune of 15-6.

817 Makes Swann New Beat the (Bow)l Champion

Stan Swann of Georgetown became the champion at Guelph Bowling, Sunday Oct. 27, defeating Eric Whittaker of Guelph who had previously been champion for five successive weeks. Stan Swann becomes the first male champion from Georgetown since February, 1963, when Harry Brandford held the championship.

Stan met up against tough competition in the qualifying round as many top bowlers being attracted to "Beat the Champ" Holly Leg of Erinville, a member of the 1963 Canadian Men's Team. Champions was one of the bowlers competing this week.

Stan Swann and Art Davis of Guelph, a former champion qualified to meet Eric Whittaker in the championship round with three games scores of 772 and 789 respectively. Eric Whittaker made a determined bid to hold the championship leading Stan Swann by 16 pins after the second game and the championship round had been bowled.

Stan Swann started the third game with four successive strikes to take the lead and finish with a fine 301 game and an 817 triple to defeat Eric Whittaker by 34 pins.

period from McNeil and Akiyama. Lakeshore's first period goal was Hicks from Marshall and Swindle at 2:58. Their last with a minute-plus to go in the second period was notched by McNeil from McMillan.

"They just kept digging and came on strong" was the way Coach Beaumont described the way his Beavers performed. "They just kept skating and checking and showed a lot of desire."

They (Beavers) have not had nearly the amount of practice some of these other clubs have had," he told The Herald after the game. "Some of the teams have been skating since August and, considering the amount of ice time our boys have had, they've done well."

He also had a word for the

COACH GERRY INGLIS

Many many of the players that boasted their to the Ontario Midget A Championship and with a new coach Georgetown Midgets have already started to build a new reputation for themselves.

The Midgets opened their hockey season in Oakville on October 21st with a 7-1 triumph over Oakville and started their season by staying with a 3-1 win over Guelph Saturday, October 26th.

Gerry Inglis has taken Del Beaumont's spot as the Midgets head coach and has his charges hustling in both games. Beaumont accepted the Junior B coaching job this season.

At Oakville, Georgetown opened a 3-0 margin before the home team managed a goal in the third period. "Pope" Marchuk and Wheeler scored in the first frame. Pope and Leavitt blanked the light in the middle period and Hay and Kymetley found the target in the third. The lone Oakville goal was scored by Savon.

Georgetown Midgets scored once in each period in Guelph. Lowellyn unceremoniously scored early in the first frame and Guelph player Robertson handled the second period disaster and Terry Hay rattled a shot home in the third.

Raiders Skating Cameron in Net

Still coachless at writing time, Georgetown Raiders have been going through skating drills until club officials come up with a whip cracker to start conditioning the red-shirts for their opening game two weeks hence.

Raiders skated last Wednesday night, Sunday afternoon and Tuesday night while the exec looked over returnees and newcomers to assess their club's chances in the WAAA. The team took a big step toward being the club to beat when they suited-up J. D. Cameron as guardian of the twine.

The alert red head sparkled for Raiders when he alternated with Barry Smith last season and he could well be the top made in this league this year. His first test will be Saturday November 21st in Erin Arena when Raiders play Cheltenham in the schedule bid fight.

More good news came in the form of a couple of ex-Raiders who dropped out of Intermediate hockey a couple of seasons back. Ron Dixon and Jamie Cunningham both have been skating to test the limbs.

About twenty put on the blades for the Sunday afternoon session.
