Physician Urges Support Red Cross Blood Clinic

Blood is needed now says Georgetown physician supporting the Red Cross clinic. The next week you may pretend to think that this plea couldn't be directed at you or rationalize that the regular donors are always available. Twenty or twenty five percent of the eligible donors does not meet the rising requirements. As a result, hospitals must make desperate appeals through press and radio for specific blood types, or for larger quantities of even the more common types.

Carr Fills Masterman High School Board Post RCMP Ride, Golden Hawks Sought for Celebration

BILL CARR

There will be at least one vacancy to fill on the public school board in December. William Carr, completing his second year of office, has been appointed the board representative on the high school district board.

He is replacing Fred Masterman, a former chairman who resigned when he moved to Vancouver recently.

Councillor William Smith told The Herald yesterday that he plans a public meeting whereat the townspeople can offer any ideas they have on how Georgetown should celebrate its 100th birthday. Smith was made chairman of the Centennial Committee this week. He hoped to call a public meeting right away but with the nomination meeting and said he hoped every service the town would take on a centennial year. He also planned a Centennial Committee which he will be government in an attempt to be used by the town and the press secure the RCMP Golden Hawks or Red Hawks and the he added.
