DEATHS
MULHOLLAND, James — Suddenly on Sunday, Nov. 17th, 1963, at the Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital, James Mulholland of 3 Dufferin St., in his 75th year, beloved husband of Ethel (Mrs. R. McCauley) and dear father of Irene and Kathleen (Mrs. V. McCumber) of Georgetown and Doreen (Mrs. R. Wyatt) of Bigwood, and dear brother of Irene Mulholland of Acton and Agnes (Mrs. Michael Traynor) of Annapolis. Requiem mass was held in St. Joseph's Church, Acton, on Tuesday, at 9:30 a.m. Internment Dublin Cemetery.

MEMORIALS
NORTON — In loving memory of Paul Douglas, beloved son of Helen and Cliff, who passed away November 21st, 1954. We who loved you, sadly miss you. As it dawns another year, in our lonely hours of thinking, thoughts of you are ever dear. Ever remembered by Mummy and Daddy.

NORTON — In loving memory of Paul Norton who passed away November 21st, 1954. In our hearts your memory lingers. Sweetly tender, fond and true. There is not a day That we do not think of you. —Always remembered by your loving family.

TOWNSEND — In loving memory of my dear husband, William Edward Townsend, who passed away November 21st, 1962. I little knew when I woke that morn, The sorrow the day would bring. For the call was sudden, the shock severe, To part with the one I loved so dear. Sadly missed by wife, Ethel.

CARDS OF THANKS
FARROW — We wish to thank friends and neighbours for the lovely cards, gifts and flowers sent on the arrival of our daughter —George and Shirley Farrow.

NEWMAN — I would like to thank friends and relatives for the lovely flowers, cards and visits while I was a patient in the Georgetown Hospital and since my return home. Also thanks to the staff of the hospital and Dr. C. V. Williams and Dr. A. Thompson. —Mrs. Elsie Newman.

PUCKERING — I would like to thank friends and neighbours who called on my birthday. Thank you, also, for the lovely cards, flowers and gifts. They were very much appreciated. My sincere thanks to all. —Mrs. Elizabeth Puckering.

HORNBY Demonstrates Making Christmas Centrepieces

The Hornby Women's Institute met on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13th, at the home of Mrs. Howard Bradley. The meeting was opened with the Institute Ode followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. Stan May presided for the meeting. The roll call. How many years have been an Institute member? was answered by the 12 members and six visitors present. Mrs. May welcomed 6 new members of the Drummond Institute. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer's report given. The birthday party for the Halton Manor residents which will be on Nov. 28th, was discussed. Mrs. Jack McCarroll will be the convener. A report on the Christmas party for the child in Hong King, sponsored by the First Church, was introduced by Hazel Chisholm. Pat demonstrated the use of the Education Centre. Christmas boxes and envelopes were made. Mrs. Chisholm had on display some lovely Christmas centrepieces and gave instructions on how to make them. Miss Hill was thanked by Mrs. Bradley for her very interesting display. The lunch was served by those in charge. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edward Robertson.

Township Wins Appeal And Building Must Go

A building moved into Esqueping Township which township officials claim contravenes their building by-law will have to be moved. A charge against Raymond Cook was dismissed recently by Magistrate K. M. Langdon. But county judge Madill allowed the township's appeal and levied a fine of $25, and costs when the appeal was heard before him. The disputed building contravenes a section of township by-law 559.

DISTRICT NEWS AT A GLANCE

ACTON: Direct Distance Dialing will be introduced in Acton in the fall of 1964. L. G. Denby, Bell Telephone area manager announced last week. Sixteen other central Ontario communities will get the service at the same time.

STREETSVILLE: An all-out effort is being made to liquidate the outstanding debt on Streetsville's recently completed arena. Neglected pledges, and people moving out of town have created a sag in the flow of funds. A special committee will spearhead a new campaign.

BRAMPTON: Snooker and billiard Council Monday vetoed a proposed billiard hall in the Eastown Plaza on Kennedy Road because of its proximity to the Central Peel Composite School.
