LIMEHOUSE

The W.I. sponsored supper held in Memorial Hall on Friday evening attracted enough guests for right tables in spite of inclement weather and serious world events. Winners at cards were Mrs. Mrs. Crichon and Clare Wilson, while Mrs. John Crawford, Sr. and Tom Hamilton won seconds and Mrs. Osburn won lone hands prize in a draw with Tom Hamilton. Lunch was served afterwards.

Four girls attended last week's meeting of Brownies. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble visited Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jones in Brampton one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland McQuaid and two daughters, Leida and Louise of Port Credit visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Welch on Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Mike Brentall had to return to hospital last week end. Mrs. Ron Thompson and Mrs. Stephen Woloshyn attend of the all day school for Blue and Brown leaders and the banquet at noon in St. Mary's auditorium in Brampton one day last week.

THE MAIL BAG
Sunday Sport, Yes But Not for Profit

Georgetown, Ont., Nov. 26th, 1963

The question of Sunday entertainment will be voted on in Georgetown in a plebiscite in December. It was pointed out in an editorial in this paper two weeks ago that the question is one of the commercializing of Sunday as against the freedom to spend the day in worship, rest and other activities that are not commercialized.

As a Christian minister, I have done some soul-searching and I believe that the Christian answer for me is to follow the example of Christ. Christ was against making many rules and regulations to govern the people on the Sabbath day because this meant a person could not even do good, such as healing, on the Sabbath day. But Christ was against the profit motive getting the upper hand as he showed in the driving out of the money changers from the Temple in Jerusalem.

I will have to vote against the commercializing of the Lord's Day because I would not want to have more people being obligated to work on Sunday.

Georgetown has sports on Sunday organized by various groups. I don't think it is necessary to change this to commercialized sports.

It has not only been the churches in the past that have held that Sunday should not be a working day. As far as possible, management and labour have agreed on this kind of Sunday.

Let us be together in keeping the values for the future.

Sincerely,
R. I. Whan

LEGION RENOVATED

Renovations, estimated by Bill Glassford of Brampton Lumber to cost nearly $15,000, are finished on the main hall and general activities room in the Royal Canadian Legion in Brampton.

A new fish-hook shaped bar, with a stainless steel counter and glass wabber, a mahogany colored arborite top and cooler have been installed. The edges and front of the elbow-bending hook end of the bar are padded with green leather upholstery.

The walls have been paneled and a dumbwater has been closeted in the area destined for a cloak-room.
