Bottom Meets Top Friday When Beavers Etob Clash

Georgetown Junior B Beavers made the Whitty Dunlop machine pause momentarily in the second period but could not keep the strong-legged Dufferins from skating to a 7-2 triumph in rubber town Tuesday night.
It was the Beavers' second triumph in the total as Norval lost six nights and one day in nine games. Last Wednesday, the Beavers defeated the Dufferins 5-1 in the first of two Industrial Hockey League games Sunday, but took the short end of a 5-3 final.
The teams entered the final period deadlocked 1-1. Norval scored first in the first minute of each half.
Krosney passed to forward Lane for the bubble bubble in the middle section. May got the Murray Marchand and captured it on Bud James tall. That was the Beavers' only goal for that night, when Ken Richardson scored the equalizer just two minutes later. Whitty scored the only first period goal.
But when the middle period was finished Georgetown was down 5-2. Whitty scored two more goals home early in the third.
Dufferins got a goal of their own from R. Leav and studies from Maxwell, Petrus, Leav, and Cheltenham.
In their first meeting, Whit-ty dumped Beavers 1-1.
Brampton's win Wednesday was not nearly so decisive.
Cheltenham trailed its one goal Elora 1-0 with Brampton leading 2-0. Brampton led and time running out when 2-1 popped into the rear behind the defense, playing for a goal and sailed it away to Maxwell. Bill Campbell and Al Marchand were the scorers.
Currently Georgetown Beavers are at the bottom and Etob-icoke at the top of the Metro
