Macdonald Authors Holiday Little Theatre Pantomime

"Once upon a time," the traditional beginning of all children's tales, is the apt title of an original children's pantomime to be presented Dec. 14 by the Little Theatre.

Peter Macdonald wrote the play using Fairy Tale characters, with an 'Untouchables' twist.

In a far-off land known as Never-Ever Land, where popcorn is as valuable a commodity as liquor during prohibition - Big Bad Pop, the Frank Nitt and Catherine Gibbons Mulholland, the candy business, has cornered the popcorn market. However, that eminent scientist, Professor Wow, has discovered a method of making popcorn using atomic power; thus, releasing the citizens from the clutches of Big Bad Pop.

Since 'Pop' doesn't take kindly to someone 'muscling in' on his territory, the battle is joined. It all ends happily ever tales should.

The names of the characters tell much of the light, satirical spirit of the production. Big Bad Pop is played by Ray Walton, Professor Wow is played by the author Peter Macdonald, Red Riding Hood is Betty Fisher, Grandma is Jane Gosling, Rabbing Good is Gordon Hunt, Jack and Jill are Danny Wagstaffe and Anne Fisher, the Witch is Vera Macdonald, who is also the director, Nell is Jean Rundle, Basil Bond is Tony Lloyd, a private eye.

In addition to playing Big Bad Pop, Ray Walton assumes the character of Tiger Trax.

Palmerettes were Ross, Thompson, Jack Watson, Joseph Gibbons, Jack Armstrong, Harry Wright of Weston and Arthur Bullivant. Hamilton Internment was in Dublin Cemetery.

There will be a matinee performance in the afternoon and an early performance which should be over by 8:30.

Ability, Not Age, Might Be Figure Skating Judge

A new grading system which would provide more of an incentive to pupils, may come into effect in the Georgetown Figure Skating Club this season, it was disclosed this week.

The system, which would use the executive and introduce ribbons as a type of classification is being considered by the executive of the Georgetown club and it is believed it will meet with little opposition.

With the present system pupils are graduated on an age basis. For instance, pre-schoolers leave that group at Junior age, and Juniors stay in that group until 12, when they become Senior skaters.

With the ribbons system it would be more on ability than age. Skaters would be tested monthly and progress when they are able to stand up to each level of colour group. The steps would take them right up to the preliminary tests in the Canadian Figure Skating Association and from there it would be up to the skater.

Skating professional Ross Smith who teaches here has said he will cooperate with the club.

HIGH ACCIDENT RATE! Contributing to the rising number of accidents in the home is that some people do not spend enough time there to learn their way around.

Fr. V. J. Morgan conducted a recent high mass on November 19th in St. Joseph's Church, Acton where Mr. Mulholland had served in his youth as an altar boy. Fr. O'Grady, Vicar of Holy Cross Church officiated at a Monday evening rosary at the Harold C. McChure Funeral Home.

There will be a matinee performance in the afternoon and an early performance which should be over by 8:30.
