Thomas Bivens, Jr., which took place in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church during their trip they stopped at Washington for a tour of the White House at Williamsburg, Virginia and New York City.

Roy Preston of South Burnaby, B.C. was a recent visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Preston, 58 King St. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith McCullough from Massena, New York, were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Orr, Greensboro, North Carolina at 4 Market Street. Mr. and Mrs. McCullough were celebrating the anniversary of Pat Phillips, who is their American Thanksgiving Mrs. Humberstone's niece and holiday.

Seven New Members Join Mill Quarter Centuries

The Quarter Century Club of Provincial Paper, Ltd. increased its active membership by one third on Friday when seven men were welcomed at a dinner in the Legion auditorium.

Newscomers Ivan Crabtree, Jim Dobbie, Jack Hooper, Norman Marchmont, Grover Norton, Bert Tuck and Floyd Ward were presented with handsome clocks. And four of them were soon given new jobs when in the election of officers Mr. Crabtree was named president, Mr. Marchmont vice-president, Mr. Hooper secretary and Mr. Dobbie treasurer.

Miss Janet McDougall, who was president this year, was dinner chairman and called on Miss Lena McNally to say grace. Correspondence read by secretary Ray Pomeroy included letters of good wishes from clubs in other Abitibi divisions and letters from company president P. E. Roberts and company manager Hugh O'Leary expressing their regrets at being unable to attend.

A minute's silence was observed for Alex Kean and Leonard Marchmont, whose deaths occurred since the last dinner, and for William Bonathan who died a few weeks ago on the eve of becoming a member.

John Buss brought greetings from head office and Allan Ball, supervisor of the orders department, recalled memories of earlier mill personnel in a speech of reminiscence. Three members who were celebrating birthdays that day, Nick Carter, Steve Eason and Ed Francis, were presented with gifts.

Plant manager Ross Duncan told dinner attendees that the Georgetown mill is entering a transitional period and warned that the immediate future is not as bright as it might have been in other years.

"Our mill is heading to be coming a specialty mill," he said, "with conventional coating methods being replaced by new processes."

He termed club members "the backbone of the staff" and said he counts on them to assist as much as possible in production changes as they occur.

Following dinner the Mahottans played for dancing and entertainment included songs by club member Harry Hale the Steel Bands with their Caribbean melodies and the Copy Cats who cleverly mimed recording artists.

Active members of the club include A. N. Nicky Carter, Miss Janet McDougall, David Basser, George Louth, Steve Eason, Wakelind Ford, William Heavill, Ray Pomeroy, R. B. Shuttill, Jack McMenemy, William Stansel, Miss Eleanor Trammor, Rupert Beaumont, Ross Duncan and the seven newcomers.

Associate members who have retired are George Smith, William Merritt, Miss Jessie Leavitt, Miss Lena McNally, Clayton Allen, Walter Louth, Miss Ann Hickey, Harry Hale, Fred McNally, Jim Costigan, Walter Peck, Bert Weston, Dick Grace, George Black, James Hill, Thomas Herbert, Chester Scott, John D. Kelly, Henry Preston, Andrew Dewhurst and Ed Francis.

BALLINAFAD

Ballinafad Neighbours Have Presentation For Bride and Groom

Both units of the U.C.W. met last week for the November meeting. Mrs. L. Gibson was hostess for the afternoon and the election of officers for the evening. Reports of the Workshops held in October throughout Halton, Presbyterial were given at both meetings by the President, Mrs. F. J. Shortill, Mrs. Roly Swindlehurst, Mrs. Don Smith, and Mrs. J. Black.

The roll call was answered by 14 ladies at each meeting and several matters of business were discussed. It was decided to give a further gift of money to the 'Over and Above' Association and also to give a donation to the Sunday School for the year.

An announcement was made about the bazaar to be held in Acton on Dec. 6th and the ladies were also asked to keep in mind the entertainment for the children of the Sunday School which is to be in the form of a luncheon following the regular church service on Christmas Sunday.

Chapters from the Study Book were discussed by Miss Beatrice Hills and Mrs. J. McEnery and the ladies all enjoyed a social time together.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ballinafad were honored at a party in the hall last Thursday night.

The gifts which they received from the community were a living room picture, TV tables and an electric clock. A program was put on by the local people which included quite a variety of talent, such as instrumental music, tap dancing, vocal duets, solos and humorous readings, and music for dancing was supplied by Mr. Bob Keatner of Acton with a tape recorder.

Both Gail and her husband expressed their thanks to everyone and a lovely lunch was served by the ladies.

The annual general meeting of the parents and teachers association was held in the hall on Monday night. The new officers were appointed for the coming year and some problems discussed. It is hoped that more parents will take an active part in the future and give encouragement to the leaders. A special thanks goes out to Mr. Reg French who has been chairman of the Group Committee since the organization started. He has given a great deal of time and thought to the work and deserves a lot of appreciation.

Mr. Gunn, the District Commissioner and Mrs. Darlene and the members of the 10th Barrage, District Akoka, Auxiliary served lunch both present to give assistance.

Mice Invasion Bugs Farmers

In spite of reports by the F. Muir said yesterday, the population of mice is shown in parts of the province because so many "have died" in the last few years. To combat the invasion problem this year he will have a cue of field mice this winter, from farm to farm. The fox for cracked corn is sprinkled should continuously improve.
