

HIGHLANDERS HAD A HIGH TIME

Museum, Winter Fair School Trip Itinerary

Last Friday the pupils of Grade 7 and 8 of the Public School accompanied by their principal, Mr. R. McKee, Mr. J. Saoudy, Mrs. Bud Bishop and Bill McKee went on their annual bus trip to Toronto.

They left the school about 8:45 a.m. and the first stop was the Royal Ontario Museum where they went on a guided tour.

Everyone enjoyed last Monday evening when the Cub pack and their parents gathered together in the Parish Hall. The Cubs displayed their hobbies for the parents.

Ross Giles acted as chairman and during the evening they presented the retiring Cubmaster, Ted Von Zuben with a desk set in appreciation of his fine work with the boys.

Mrs. J. Reynolds, in taking over the leadership of the evening closed with a lunch of pop and rookies for the Cubs and tea for the parents.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Don Robertson on the birth of a daughter recently.

Get well wishes are sent to Mrs. H. Garvin who is in hospital.

John Mcgowan is now fully recovered and this week started to work in the office of Northern Electric in Brampton.

They are lunch at the cafeteria there and about 1 o'clock left for the Zoo. They browsed around looking at all the animals and then on to the Marine museum which is situated in Exhibition Park. There they saw basins from the earliest 1920 out canoe up to the modern ships.

They finished the day by spending a while at the Royal Winter Fair where they enjoyed watching the judging of cattle. After all had enjoyed a good drink of apple cider they started for home getting about 8 o'clock tired but happy boys and girls and boys.

Brief notes sent to week end with Ken and home B in Richmond Hill. On Sunday his parents visited there bringing home.

Next Sunday there will be the annual White Wolf Derby in the United Church at 10 o'clock.

First wife: How do you do? money out of my husband's second wife: Mr. Jones is going back to mother and the immediately hands me a credit card.

Book clubs don't work at all. The last most of the time and this is what counts.

Several From Georgetown Attend North Bay Wedding

A number of Georgetown people attended the recent wedding in North Bay of Heather Emma Villeneuve to Joseph Michael Wilcox. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Villeneuve, North Bay, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilcox, Callander. Rev. J. Caswell officiated at the Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption.

Travelling from Georgetown to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer Jr., Michael Dwyer, William Dwyer, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Bob Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilcox.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a white, pea-cock, long-length, sheath with long train and fitted bodice with boat neckline and high point sleeves. Her elbow-length veil fell from a mother-of-pearl crown and she carried a lace covered basket with an arch of butter scotch carnations.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Gloria Lauber as maid of honour and Mrs. Elaine Rynck as Mrs. Diane Redford and Mrs. Kathy Wall of Coventry, England as bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in emerald-green pea-cock, sheath, long-length, sheath with long train and three-quarter length sleeves. They were matching wedding and headpieces with short, round veils and carried semi-cascade bouquets of gold chrysanthemums, fern and white.

The groomsmen were Norman, Bogie, Kirkland, Dick and the ushers were Jack Villeneuve, Michael Dunn and Brian Galley. Mrs. Joseph Blawie played the wedding music and soloist was Miss Jean Ann Blawie.

For the reception at the Ess Hall the brides' mother prepared wearing an antique gold chanelly lace sheath, long-length, sheath with long train and three-quarter length sleeves and a grey wool under. Her engagement was of gold roses. The groom's mother assisted in giving away the bride in a gown with long and brown accessories and high neckline. Her corsage was of red roses.

The couple will have their honeymoon at 1216 Beatty Street in North Bay, after a world tour in Santa Fe, Mexico and the northern states.

The bride's mother, who is brown and black, was wearing a hat and shoes with a matching veil. Her hair was pulled up and a brown veil was worn.

A MESSAGE IN THE INTERESTS OF SAFETY TO ALL WHO OWN A TV AERIAL

An improperly installed or deteriorated TV aerial is a source of danger to life and property - particularly in high winds and stormy weather. If an aerial falls on a hydro line or on service wires entering the home, fire can result. Power interruptions, with their inconvenience to customers over a wide area, have also been caused in the same way.

We solicit your co-operation in helping to make TV aerials safe everywhere by having yours inspected from time to time by a qualified television serviceman.

Thank you.
