CLIMAX KIN DRAW

AGREE TO SPLIT "ONE GRAND"

WHEN THE ELIMINATION draw at the annual Kinship Club dinner in the Legion Hall Friday night got down to two people — Bill English and Bill Somerville, they agreed to split the prize, $1,000.00. But they didn't each get $500. Bill Somerville held his ticket jointly with Dale Tost while Bill English's winnings were shared with co-holders Mrs. Junior Beaumont, Mrs. Doug Richardson and Myrna Cook.

Seven Outdoor Skating Rinks To Be Built and Illuminated

Seven outdoor skating rinks can be used after dark. Four skating rinks will be available early Saturday night, 6 p.m. lights allowed on the rinks after 8 p.m. but a schedule once the mercury drops to sub-freezing temperatures, the lights draw up and extra freezing and stays there. 12 days & 2 allow skaters pleasure. Bill Smith chairman of the new skating and others say no creation committee told the key. The schedule will be posted on standards near the rinks.

Five of the proposed rinks town rinks will be created and maintained. Originally the idea was to have them built by town works staff. The town park was to have been other two are projects of the much larger than the others Delrey recreation committee, but the plan had to be altered.

Mr. Smith said the rinks at the last minute and it will be located in Ontario and be almost the same size as the Elm St. near Smith & Stone's.

Edward and Byrne Sts. for example just off Georgetown Park opposite Park rink in the park area plus Public Schools, the Harrison sibly next to the Public School grounds. The future builds more for George Kennedy Public School pleasure skaters. On Smith Avenue, and Raylawn Crest said he hoped supervision of the top of Gower Road. Let the rinks could be provided by Recreation Association later. He said the committee thinks it has a fine range in that area.

He said lights will be installed save the lighting problem solved at the rinks so that they and for all.

Says Commuter Service Vitality Important Here

With a government study in progress, featuring 45,000 process which could lead to people to work in the Metro rapid transit commuter service area during peak hours.

He also said for Georgetown. However, Maurice Charles McNaughton is chairman of the Monday evening council that the 1964 council study the question early in the new year.

Correspondence was read at an improved community system the meeting explaining that and the prospects of putting survey in progress and Mayne or Hyde suggested that an advisory committee should be appointed early in the year to make recommendations on behalf of the town.

Mr. Bill Smith termed the study "vitally important" to the town and said he would bring it to committee action in January.

The study was completed in December, started last week. It says the 15 rail lines now running out from central Ontario could handle 1200 passengers.
