

"HALE, HALE THEIR GANG'S ALL HERE"

MR. AND MRS. HARRY HALE, accompanied by Rotarian Ralph Ursel, vocalize for the Georgetown Senior Citizens at the annual Senior Citizens dinner in Knox Church Hall Monday night. Mr. Hale is a member of the Senior Citizens committee and all three are well known entertainers. The dinner is an annual project of the Georgetown Rotarians.

Manhattans, Copy Cats Hospital Dance Features

225 revellers enjoyed the Maple Leaf hockey game Georgetown Hospital Auxiliary Christmas Dance, Friday night by local firms, and auxiliary members were awarded ted Riviera.

Many in full length gowns added a touch of elegance as they danced to Ralph Ursel and his Manhattans. At intermission the 'Copcats' entertained the audience.

Santa's little helpers dispensed the favours were Joy Barber and Christine Matthews in Little Santa Aprons. Receiving the guests as they entered were Mr. and Mrs. W. Pope, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Chouberlan, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Sampson.

One of those coincidences which prove embarrassing to the winner happened when Ted Evans, chairman of the hospital board, drew his wife's ticket as winner of the tickets to a

Legion Branch 120 Hold Christmas Tree

The annual Christmas tree of the Canadian Legion will be held on Thursday, December 18th. This is a day of fun and excitement and is expected that the tree will be decorated with lights and decorations. A large amount of food will be served.

Miss Florence Broom Dies in Norval After Lengthy Illness

Miss Florence Broom of R.R. 1, Norval, who had lived all her life in Esqueving Township, except for a few years as a child, when she lived a short time in Chinguacousy, died at the home of her niece Mrs. John Thurlbeck of Norval, after a lengthy illness.

She was a member of the United Church of Norval and during the war years she did knitting and sewing for the soldiers.

The funeral was held at the David A. McClure Funeral Home in Brampton on November 27th with Rev. Lloyd Free officiating.

She is survived by three sisters, Bertha of Norval, Mrs. George Harris (Mary) of Norval and Mrs. Stanley Price (Josephine) of Hornby. She was predeceased by two brothers and a sister, John Alexander of Norval, William George of Hamilton, and Lavina of Norval. Interment was in Zion Cemetery. The pall bearers were Allan Harrop, Chester Early, Harold Early, Nelson Robinson, Earl Wilson and Norman Cameron.

Milton Christmas Party For Lorne Scots, Wives

Some 200 members of the Lorne Scots Company and their wives marked the holiday season at the company's annual Christmas party in Milton, Armoory Saturday night.

Guests of honour at the dinner and dance were Col. John R. Barber, Major Hardy, 21st BSM Kenneth Murray, and Capt. Spalton.

Highlights were piping the Huzzes to the head table where Captain A. E. Macintosh addressed and the presenting of the annual tribute to BSM Murray, a suitably framed portrait of himself.

After a chicken dinner, the tables were moved out and everyone danced to Red Ryall's Rhythm Kings for the remainder of the evening. During the intermission, Lorne Scots papers demonstrated highland dancing.
