North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

The first draw of the season ended last Friday evening with the top eight teams in each draw continuing on in the play-offs during the next two weeks. The final will be played on Friday, Dec. 20th.

The new draw will be made up and the teams will start over again on January 2nd. It is expected that there will be more teams competing in the regular draw, and it might just be that there will be more teams in the picked team section than the four that competed during this draw. Incidentally, the picked teams do not compete for the regular trophies. It will be the Save Trophy which will be decided on December 20th.

Teams that want to compete in the picked ranks in the next draw must notify the Games Committee of their intention on or before Dec. 27th. This date allows the committee to arrange the regular draw.

The Games Committee have put into force a rule for the play-offs that should be used throughout the regular league games as well. I mean the rule that makes a team forfeit the game if they are not ready to go on the ice at either 7 or 9 o'clock when they are scheduled. It is just as easy to be on time as five, ten or fifteen minutes late. And then you don't keep the other seven players on the teams fiddling around waiting for you.

How many have looked at the bulletin board in the hall way, next to the machinery room. There are quite a few mixed hunches posted on that board. Here are some of them: Fenelon Falls, Paris, St. Catharines, Copper Cliff and White. They sure give a wide choice of locations and dates to take a mixed to.

Quite a number of children and some grownups are making use of the slopes of the golf course to try out their skis and toboggans, but in another week there will be a fresh batch of equipment released, so many others will probably be out on the hills.

SPORTSMEN OUTDOORS
BY FRED DARBY

At this time of year with many sportsmen to buy like a plug for George and his gifts for, it has sometimes been a problem to buy fishing equipment. With most stores having to cater to the season on hand, most fishing equipment has been put away until the spring. If you've had this trouble and you still haven't bought that gift yet, then there's a place in town where you may.

To some this may seem like a law to prevent this. But until such time, let us hope for a change in the law. My old fishing buddy, George Hyde, who recently went into the retail fishing goods business, still has an ample supply of fishing equipment on hand, and will have all this way the world could have a happier New Year.

PeeWees Pull Goalie But Can't Score Equalizer

Georgetown PeeWees pulled their goalie for an extra attacker but couldn't gain a tie in the final minute of their game with Guelph here Tuesday.

Guelph won the fast, well played game, 2-1, though Georgetown had the larger portion of the play.

Guelph opened the scoring at 11:37 of the first period when Malby scored and the edge stood until Presswood passed to Llewellyn for the only Georgetown goal in the middle period.

The winners hit early in the third, scoring at 1:11, Zolnar from Keating and Lewis. Georgetown's manoeuvre of lifting their netminder for an extra forward, which is getting custom, put Guelph under pressure but couldn't bring about the tie.

DECKED OUT FOR LESSONS

THE MOONEY SISTERS, Janet, 5, and Linda, 7, skate hand-in-hand during the Georgetown Figure Skating Club's Monday afternoon lessons which they look forward to anxiously during the rest of the week for two reasons so they can learn figure skating and so they can wear the knitted skating costumes their grandmother made. They're the daughters of school trustee Reginald and Mrs. Mooney, 29 Norton Cr.

was to solve the goalkeeping problem, was injured soon after he hooked up with the club and even though he played Saturday, he is still suffering from a pulled muscle. Robbie Irons, who backs up Went, is also less than healthy.

A few games back the Beavers missed Glen Cooper from the blue line corps with a foot injury. And their starting goalie Doug Vivian left the opening game back in October after only a few minutes, with a bad skate cut that may have cost him his place between the pipes.

Friday night the Beavers took the short end of an 8-3 game against Neil McNeil. Saturday's outcome was 3-1 for St. Mike's.

Gov from Kresney and Watson from Campbell in the first period and Rod Presswood assisted in the 2nd did the Beavers scoring Friday. Neil McNeil got a pair of goals from Cunningham and singles from Miner, Clairmont, Byers, Clark, Onelleite and Allen.

They led 5-2 at the end of the first twenty minutes and 6-3 after two. They also had a territorial edge in the penalty box where they logged 22 minutes to Beavers 18.

Beavers and St. Mike's went scoreless through the first period Saturday. Kresney from Ron Lane and Goy notched the lone Georgetown goal after the Irish had taken a 2-0 lead early in the second. St. Mike's tallied the only third period marker.

The winners got two goals from Grant. The unusually penalty-free contest saw Beavers draw one two-minute sentence and St. Mike's 4.

BEAVERS HURTING PHYSICALLY GUDGEON FRACTURES CHEEK

Misery apparently attracts misfortune.

Georgetown Junior B Beavers, currently wallowing in the Metro League mire at the bottom of the ladder, don't need more trouble but they are getting it.

Beavers dropped two more on the weekend, but worse than that their injury list snowballed by one — an important one — Jack Gudgeon. Their number one point man Gudgeon suffered a fractured cheek bone in the first period of a game between Beavers and St. Michael's College in St. Michael's arena Saturday. There was no estimate of the number of games he'll miss.

The club learned a few days ago that a defenseman Kib who joined the team shortly after the season started was out for the rest of the season. Newcomer John Went who
