

HOLIDAY CANDLES

Don't deny yourself a candlelight atmosphere at Christmas if such is your desire. Just remember that the candle represents a potential fire hazard.

Never place lighted candles on a Christmas tree, or in the window. Do not use them in any manner with decorations that are flammable. Light them only in rooms where someone will be able to watch them closely.

Extinguish candles whenever you leave the room or the house.

Your application form for a new driver's licence may be in this picture under the hand of Ontario Transport Minister Irwin Haskett (left), who is examining the mailing machine that sends out the forms at the rate of 60,000 a day. With him is Ken Sands, administrator of the division that is handling the new system. Each application form has the name of the individual driver on it, and the new drivers' licenses will be valid for periods varying from one to three years. The Department of Transport started mailing in late November, and it will take two months to send out the forms to every one of the 2.5 million drivers in the province.

Many Prizewinners as Bowlers Compete in Holiday Tourney

More than two hundred bowlers participated in the Georgetown Xmas Mixed Doubles Tournament held by the Georgetown Inter-County Bowling Team at Georgetown Bowl the past two Sundays.

The tournament was received with a great enthusiasm by the bowlers, young and old, and all enjoyed themselves as the cheer and spirit of Xmas prevailed throughout the event.

Merchandise prizes were awarded to all the winners. The mixed doubles team winners were not decided until the last round was completed. Marina Bludd and Ari Davis bowled 633 and 874 respectively for a total of 1507 to beat the previous leaders Jean Graham and Rick Davis who had bowled 1409.

Marina Bludd selected a desk lamp for her prize. Ari Davis took a barbecue set. Jean Graham selected a utility lamp and Rick Davis took a crockinole and game board.

There were fifteen winners in all. Phyllis Findlay bowled 777 for the 'A' ladies high three games and chose a serving cart for her prize. Keith Hufman took home a rickety set as he bowled the high three games for 'A' men bowlers 762. Harry Hayes bowled 722 to win the men's 'B' group high three games. Harry's choice of a prize was a barometer.

In the ladies group 'B' high triple, the winner was Helen Wilkes. Her prize was a bath room scale. Edna Davis bowled the highest single game among the ladies, a fine 304 and received a garment bag for her achievement.

George Mitchell bowled a 370 game to lead the men and now has a floral display to decorate his home.

The high Junior of the tournament was Bob Graham, as he bowled a three game total of 653. The hidden score winners received ashtrays. They were Eileen Bailey, Helen Wilkes, Marina Bludd and Marg O'Flaherty.

Male Shopper Is Educated, Retailer Says

It will be a bolder, yet more realistic type of male shopper who will haunt lingerie departments and perfume counters this Christmas season, according to an Allentown, Pa., retailer who conducted his own survey.

The survey shows that the average man will be looking for dainty and intimate items, without blushing when the salesgirl asks what size. Man's greater interest and knowledge of women's fashions account for part of this change in habits, Hess says.

Realistic
Another survey revelation shows that men will be shopping more realistically. Besides the romantic "must" items men buy for their lady folk, such as French perfume, lacy lingerie and upholstered jewel and candy boxes, this year they will buy more "bread and butter" items such as practical ready to wear apparel, household appliances, cooking utensils, home furnishings and garden supplies.

The survey found that the men folk will know exactly what they want, what the wife needs around the house or for herself and exactly what she has been wanting for a long time — but there will be some surprises.

Some Surprises

Some of the surprises will be cocktail dresses which the male shopper will buy for his lady and the man will know the size dress she wears and the colour she prefers. When it comes to perfume, the male shopper will demand recognized scents and the favourite one of their ladies, not just any perfume the saleslady suggests.

Toys are designed to please the hearts of children, and they do. But all toys are not always completely safe for children of all ages.

If you have youngsters of varying ages in the home, toys selected for an older child may be the source of an accident or illness in the hands of a toddler.

When you shop for toys this year, avoid toys made of lead or coloured with lead-based paints. Small children sometimes chew off the lead paint and swallow it, and serious illness could result.

Be careful too, about small toys that can be swallowed, flammable toys and toys with rough or sharp edges.

Electric toys are for older children — and be sure that these bear the UL (Underwriters Laboratory) label on the cord and the toy itself.

Missile-throwing toys, particularly air rifles and spring shots, are dangerous, particularly to the eyes. Toy archery sets can also cause injury. If your child receives a missile-throwing toy for Christmas, for his own safety,

CHRISTMAS TAMALES
A popular Christmas dish in Central America is tamales or nacatamales. They are carefully prepared and cooked for several hours.

The 'stuffing' is made from finely ground corn meal, turkey, vegetables, spices and seasonings. In quantities of about one pound, the stuffing is wrapped in banana leaves and then boiled or steamed for several hours.
