

FROM LIONS

TO HOSPITAL

FRAMED $2000 MAKES A

PRETTY PICTURE

Hospital administrator II. Graham Gilhooly, left, accepts a framed $2,000 cheque from Lion Tom Ledwidge while Lion president Ernie Bodnar looks on. The money, another payment on the club's hospital pledge was raised through a monthly draw operated by Lion Tom and Lion Bill Garbutt. Administrator Gilhooly, incidentally, is a fellow-Lion. But while tally, s a fellow-Lion. But while the club was turning the proceeds of the draw over to the hospital . Lion Murt Allison, right, was placing a crisp new $1,000 bill in an envelope to a Mr. Tudhope of Parry Sound the lucky winner.

- Peter Jones Phot

HORNBY

Homby Clothing Bale

which was very inspiring to al-

The business period included

the minutes of the last meet which she had received from

HE GEORGETOWN HERALD Tuesday, Dec. 24, 1963 PAEG 3

Christmas goodies for a needy family. A donation was to b sent to the Save the Children Fund and the Overseas Relief Fund. A bale was packed or the previous day for the Fred Victor Mission. It was reported that Mr. Roy Break, kindly of Tered to deliver the bale and the box of White Gifts to the Mission. Plans were discussed for the Pot Luck Supper. The ladies decided to continue saving the Canada Packer's labels. The remainder of the evening was in charge of Mrs. Lena Hamilton Various games were played and everyone received a surprise bag of useful artic les. The exchange of gifts was held with Mrs. John Hamilton and daughter Mary passing them out The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer. Mrs. Kelvin Johnston asked the blessing and everyone enjoyed bountiful lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elmer Waite.

Mr and Mrs. Alvid Anderson, attended the Beckeepers Convention at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, last week.

MILL STREET

Here's

Santa with our very best

IRON BOUND SEA CHEST

Find Link with Maytlower on Seventh Line

ter countless voyages and jour snowshoes which she claims ated into the manufacture of belonged to my husband." neys stands in the corner of a were used by Stephen Dough soap pioneer farm house on the ty, the grandson of the owner Multitude of Relics speol beds and furniture all tending The meeting was on Seventh Line, south of Horn of the chest. She said during Her old farm is crammed more than two centuries old, ened by Mrs Elmer May, with by. Through the stains of early immigrant times, the pio- with a multitude of relies from Since she does not live in the the singing of the Ut W theme wear and age can be seen neers at Madoc transported po a distant era. old farm house, which she leas, and prayer. The Scripture was faintly: "Stephen Doughty, tash which they manufactured She has a hand made clock es, she has not cared for the read by Mrs Frank Hall and

Mrs. Doughty has been a widow since 1944, and her hus band's forefathers came to Ca nada from the Boston area af ter the War of Independence One side of the family still is ves in New Haven. Connects cut. The chest has been in her possession all her married

half feet deep

At present it is filled with my An old flintlock tifle and an Bridge Club alongside old dresses and clo- hasty play at the second trick must win the diamond with the were reinstated. The hostess (defence took the first) I am ace. The 10 of diamonds is served refreshments after the thes of another age

Controversial Chest

se of much controversy since just making Mrs. Doughty made its existence public. She says she has definite proof that her hus band's ancestor sailed on the Mayflower from Norfolk Eng land, though she is uncertain whether he landed at Plymouth Rock, Mass, in 1620

There is no doubt that the chest is old, possibly more than 200 years old And the work manship resembles that of similar chests and hand made it ems to be found in the Salem Peabody museum The pa 1 used for writing the owners name on the cheet is of the pitch-like quality used in that time. The hinges, lock and clasps on the chest are 1/2 East and hand-made and nails hold ing them to the box are hand made with square heads

Besides the chest Mrs Dou ghty has letters sent by the early settlers to relatives it. England One old letter from Houghton in Norfolk is writ ten on December 27 though it not give the The letter is signed by Ellen Doughty, Boacht in Rou ghham, Norfolk and gives a vivid description of conditions in England many years ago

The Letter

king and another spade led, emitally eranherries. "My Dear Cousin" it begins "Dear Grandmother is with me as I write and was pleased to hear that your crops were good and thus far through God's mercy you are brought We wonder how you fared this X mas Day Our fruit was very small this year indeed The potatoes quite gone only here and there a few good so that they are too dear to buy It is now very cold Srow lying on the ground Your cous in William Stringer has given up going to Norfolk and keeps at home with his daughter who is married and keeps the Baker's Arms Inn We have a circular for Emigration to the Screswan County of Am erica describing it as rich and beautiful and the passage paid for . . How I should like to have your likeness dear tousin Mary promised me one but I never had it vet"

Mrs Doughty said she has read several more letters writ ten on parchment and believethem to be at the family's o ther farm at Madoc.

Here is the hand

11 4 2

H - K J 10

C 186

5 9

11 1 10

Suggested bidding

both make as well

Both sides vulnerable

D K J 4 2

D Q 9 6 5 3 D 8 7

11 1 9 7 5

South

C A K Q 10 3 2

South West

H' Pass

30 Pass

5H Pass

6NT All pass

One part did reach six on red die

trump and received the lead of . The bahaus called aren's c

S K Q J 10 8 4 2 c

5 653

H 9863

0 9754

Passenger to America by the from burnt timber long miles which was manufactured dur pieces, for she says, "After my Mrs. John Cordingley read the on snow shoes in order to pur-ing Benjamin Franklin's time husband died I let things go." devotion. An illustration of Owned now by Mrs Sarah chase food and equipment. in New Haven, Corn Nearby Someday, she feels, she will the Christmas Story was very Doughty, Rose Cottage Form "Canada in those days was stands a magnificent mahogany throw open the old house to well illustrated by Mrs Frank the chest was passed down to one of the few places in the dresser and wardrobe. On the the public so that they can see Hail, Mrs. Roy Break, Mrs. Wil her through her husband John world where money was almost dresser is a huge bevelled my how life in pioneer Canada mer Mason and Mrs John Cor Wesley Doughty who is the dr useless," she said "All com for of incalculable value She really was in the days when dingley A lighted candle took rect descendant of the Steph merce was done by harter" said she was offered $400 for Indians roamed the fields and the place of the Star that show en whose name the chest. She has the old kettle used the mirror alone." man and beast lived close to first on Bethlehem Christmas to manufacture the potash or "I am a widow and I am the soil in common harmony. Carols were song followed by a

The old sea-chest, worn af. She showed an old pair of lye which was then incorpor not eager to sell anything that held at the home of Mrs. John Hamilton on Tuesday night, De . Above, in her bedrooms, are cember 17th, with 20 ladies at

reading by Mrs Wilmer Mison

LIMEHOUSE

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE WMS Elections See ing being read by Mrs. John Hamilton. A letter of thank 63 Officers Returned was read by Mrs Elmer Max

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. Jack Fries, thanking the · Hasty play at any time in West winning South took had Mrs. A. W. Benton on Wednes, ladies for the donation raceived Made of sturdy oaken planks bridge can lead to difficulties, five good spades in dicting har day evening last week. The for choir supplies A collection the chest bears the hall marks but hasty play to the first trick no way of getting there. Glad Tidings Christmas prog- was taken up to buy some of ancient skill Bound with can lead to lost contracts When. One pair reached sever, clabs rain was followed, led by the iron strapping, and langed dummy goes down, you should on a slight misunderstate at president, Mrs. Mitchell, Scripwith hand wrought hinges the count your winners and losers West doubled and led the her ture was read by Mrs. Gisby chest measures four feet by and plan your play. Only when of spades. West's do n'e we and Mrs. Patterson led in Prathree feet and is two and a you have done this, is it safe not good and neither was her yer. Mrs. Dedman of Brampto play the first card from dom, lead. South could easily have a ton, accompanied by Mrs. Rouyoud in spades, and the leaf roller sang 'O Holy Night' and a multitude of memories from Hasty play to the first trick could set up the whole set At Silent Night' Text word -Mrs. Doughty's married life A cost two declarers their conster /wanter the spect are Prince' was answered by a game of chinese checkers he tract on Board No 20 from last West Skiened to a named verse of scripture. Ittems per beside a pair of small hoots week's meeting of the Acton which South won with the 10 taining to Christmas were read This. South could not get back by several members Mrs. J. No. exquisitely wrought double. Another declarer went down dummy's good spades camer, ble took the chair for election barreled shotgun are crammed two more than necessary by In both these cases. South of officers All former ones not sure what happened the much too important to waste meeting. fourth time, since it was play on taking a track. It is vitally The chest has been the cau ed in five no trump doubled needed to enter dummy with. We are pleased that Mrs A third declarer played the W.1 red Hardy and Mrs. Mike hand at six spides (North) and Bentall are both well enough received a heart led from fast to be home from hospital.

> When the finesses lost derlar er was down, since the spade are had to be lost as well. The W1 ladies catered for Here the play is to take the burkey dinners for the press first heart with the are and line from Smith & Stone plant, patch a heart on the acc. of in Limehouse Memorial Hall on clubs. Now fromp is fed and Friday evening. the ace of spades is the only

Do not play quarkly to first. The Sunday School children track if you are declarer. Make and a number of other local your plats carefully and only children were entertained by then play the first catel from the Women's Association at a play Once Upon a Time,' b the Little Theatre Group the High School auditorium on INDIANS HAD MANY USES Saturday They were served sandwiches, cookies and hot chocolate back at the church, Crasherries a traditional part while waiting for Santa Claus of our Unistants metals Actuwho distributed oranges and used in many ways by the Am erican Indians, Penningan, 328

The obtinion contract is six a paste male from cranbell is no frame by South - However, Cranberry man tiers were - 2 . Knox Church Chor held their six spades or six clubs should plied to cars and woulds oil Christmas party at the home the once of the bery yarded at Mr and Mrs E Karn on Thursday evening the diamenal five. This was all ties the latter better 1,1 'v lowed to ran to the 10. Now American Pilgrins, notice the Teachers and Triends from declarer sat back to count fruit to be the favorer of M Z Bennett school, Acton, tracks, but it was already too cranes, began referring to held a Christmas party at the late. A spade was led to the them as craneberries, and ev home of. Mr and Mrs. Bert Benton on Thursday evening

SENONS CRITTINGS

7.20 BL-1 7/15/B2 would like to wish all my customers who made ters' year in my new shop so successful, A Merry Caristmas and a Happy New Year

MERV COOK'S BARBER SHOP 4 Edward St., Georgetown

from all of us to all our friends FROM THE STAFF AND MANAGEMENT

ANDREW MURRAY MOTORS

61 Guelph Street

IRWIN ASBECK

R R 4, Georgetown

877-6944 LIMITED

HARTLEY CAMERON

877 9231

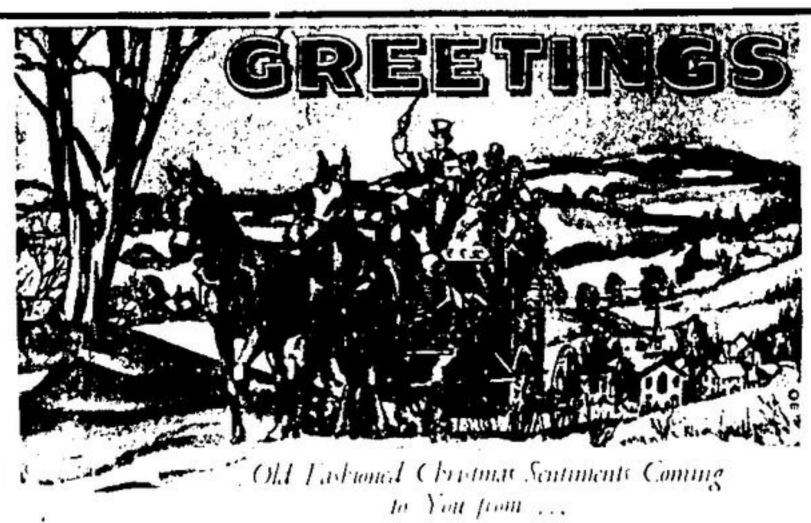

BILL GARBUTT

PLUMBING AND HEATING

lowing as a cheery hearth. bright as a gaily-lighted tree are our warm-hearted wishes for your joy and contentment at this happy holiday season. We greatly enjoy our pleasant business relations with you and hope that they may long continue. To you, our most grateful thanks.

robert Gougeon

and staff HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS

FOR RED CRANBERRY

John T. Armstrong Insurance

JOHN T. ARMSTRONG

PAUL C. ARMSTRONG