Band, Two Choirs Combine In Fine Christmas Concert

A disappointingly small crowd heard the Georgetown Citizens Band, the Gloria Patri Choir, and Legion Glee Club present a well polished program of seasonal music in the High School auditorium on Saturday, Dec. 21st.

Narrated by Elizabeth Hanson, the entertaining program was put together by bandmaster Art Hilliard and Charlie Crimes, director of both the Glee Club and the Gloria Patri Choir of the Christian Reformed Church.

A special guest was Col. F. Johnson as speaker. The bandmen took advantage of the opportunity to publicly recognize leader Hilliard and committee members Charles Stewart and Wally Parker for outstanding service. They were presented with gifts by Rolf Tomlins.

Debbie Strate, a junior soloist, also contributed to the entertainment with two numbers, "Away in a Manger" and "The Night Before Christmas." The band played the "New Suite," Christmas spirituals "Rise Up Shepherds," "O Mary" and "Go Tell It To The Mountain;" "The Christmas Suite," "Jingle Bells Rhapsody;" "The First Noel" and "March of the Little Tin Soldiers."

Numbers by the Gloria Patri Choir were: "Gloria to God;" "Sing Gloria;" a Christmas anthem, "Rejoice and Sing" and "The Magnificat."

The Legion Glee Club sang "The Christmas Song," "Away in a Manger," "Silent Night," "Deck the Halls" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The three groups united for the chorus of "The First Noel" to close the program.

Recently a car dealer fainted and was out cold for an hour. A man with no car to trade in, offered to pay cash at full list price for the dealer's highest priced car.

Three Youngsters Sing, Retarded Children Benefit

Three Howard Wrigglesworth by GARC secretary Paul Arm Public School Children raised $11 for the Georgetown Association for Retarded Children on two and a half hours Christmas Eve by singing carols in their neighbourhood.

The children sang from door to door on Prince Charles Dr and part of Byron Street.

"If given his choice of food, a child will select food best for him," says a medical columnist who knows nothing about or both these things. A child what food is best for a child?

Yesterday they showed the Herald a receipt for $11 signed.

Soil, Crop Association Plans Meeting in Early January

The Halton Soil and Crop Improvement Association will start their 1964 program with the theme -- "New Trends in Soil Management." Following a recent Directors' meeting of the Halton Soil and Crop Improvement Association, president James McKay, R.R. No. 3 Georgetown, announced that the Annual Meeting will use this theme.

This year's speaker will be Tom Lane, Extension Specialist with the Department of Crop Science at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. The meeting will be held on January 16th, at the Masonic Hall, Milton. The day's program will feature the latest in research for field crop production.

The Halton Soil & Crop Improvement Association each year conducts demonstrations on various crop management projects. Agricultural Representative J. A. Francis reported to the Directors' meeting that the 1963 results will be available at the time of the Annual Meeting.

Bright and high as balloons in the sky we hope this coming year will be for you!
