

CURLING HATTER

Bob MacArthur from the

North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

This past week saw the start of the Governor General's play-downs for Provincial honors. Two teams from North Halton competed in the division play-downs at Barriere Curling Club in Willowdale. The skips of the two teams from here were Bill Schenk and Harv. Chappel. They did not get out of the division, but report some good games.

This week the start of the British Consul play-downs at the North Halton rink on Monday. The winners will continue on to the section play-offs. Again, Harv. Chappel and his rink will represent the local club.

The next big competition will be the Colts play-downs which will take place in Orangeville on February 18 and the last of the provincial play-downs will begin for the curlers at Newmarket on February 20th. It is for the Ross Bowl.

In the past few weeks I have had enquiries made of where is the Grand Trophy and also the Peter Smith? It seems that these trophies that were competed for in years gone by have been mislaid or stored in some one's attic and forgotten. If anyone knows where they are located, a call to the secretary will help dig up the history of the club and preserve it for the future.

One of the most disregarded rules of play in the curling matches this season has been rule 8 of the local games committee. It reads: "Only skips and vicees are allowed in the house during play. Leads and second MUST stay outside the hog line, unless sweeping in, then they must retire." It might be a good idea for the skips to enforce this rule and point out to the younger curlers any breach of the rule. Usually breaking the rule is a nuisance and custom of the game. P.S. It is not only the newer members who are breaking this rule but others who should know better.

The ice was given a new flood week and it sure changed the amount of draw in the stones. After a bit of 10 p.m. this is where a team curling, the ice will settle down and be more consistent.

Saturday Sweep Gains Chappel Rice-McHarg Curling Award

Joe Rice presented the Rice and McHarg Trophy to the Harvey Chappel rink for winning three games on Saturday with the highest points. Members of the winning rink were Harvey Chappel, skip, Len McHarg, vice, Don Curry, second and Al Kennedy, lead. This is the third season that this trophy has been competed for.

Two game winners in the 11 o'clock draw was the team of E. Thompson, with M. Freeman, P. Barber and H. Allan.

DEFINITION OF A HOCKEY MOTHER

MOTHERS are among the most versatile of all creatures. Especially "hockey mothers". A MOTHER scrubs, runs, climbs, surfs, cooks, advises, acids, entertains and teaches. And drives junior to the rink.

A MOTHER must possess the agility of a cat the gentleness of a dove, the patience of a saint and the vitality of a stevedore. She is confident, diplomatic, critic — and defender.

A MOTHER is a paradox. When junior is sitting on the bench she's hollering for more ice time. But when he's "bushed" she's ready to criticize the coach for over-playing him.

Yes, she'll criticize her boy's coach in front of all and sundry — but let anyone else do so and he immediately becomes the best coach in the league.

Flowers and trees and the smell of good damp earth are pleasing to MOTHERS, but they are completely unnerved by muddy tracks on newly scrubbed floors.

She'll scold junior for tracking up the floors, then invite the whole team in for milk and cookies.

She'll complain to Dad about the inadequacy of the shopping money, then empty the fridge — feeding the hockey team.

Many profound books on child psychology are read by MOTHERS, but when properly angered they have been known to spank first and reason later.

But just let some opponent hand out a hard body check and MOTHER soon shows whose side she's on. MOTHERS do a lot of singing, laughing, hugging — and

The High School Orange Crush trophy-curling, originally scheduled for next Sunday, has been postponed. It will be curling for later.

Sunday, the first day that "pay as you play" was in effect, had four fees looked by non-members. If the members do not use the ice, the non-members can book it for a game. Maybe some will get the curling bug and join the club another season.

While family curling is in progress on Sundays, it would be a good idea if the parents of children would give some thought to a little supervision of the children. Sunday, the children were having a field day in and out of the locker rooms. Some might accidentally hurt themselves in their racing around. Now, we don't want that to happen, do we?

Social curling gets under way this coming Sunday and is scheduled between 8 and 10 p.m. This is where a team curling, the ice will settle down and be more consistent.

Meet the BEAVERS

by Fred Dorby

PEYE MAYBURY One of the Georgetown Beavers imports is Pete Maybury. Pete is a 17 year old, hard skating right winger, who at an even 6 ft, 160 lbs hands out some pretty stiff checks at the oncoming forwards. He comes from Toronto, where for the past three years, he played for the Hawks. Last year Pete was a member of the All Ontario Major Championship team. Pete plays baseball, football and basketball when he's not studying the homework he receives as a grade 10 student of Northview Heights College.

Are You a SENDER or TAKER?

The father who sends his boy to the arena usually "takes" his seat under the chandelier, sits back, turns on the TV, watches the Leafs, criticizes the commercials, then goes out and is not home when Junior returns from the arena. The "sender" wouldn't know the name of any of the lad's games—he has to bowl when the team needs an extra car to drive them to a game. All in all, he has just too much to do. But maybe Mom can go to the odd game, and a lot of Moms do.

But if this is your first word to "Mr. Sender" and may trip, please think it over and he'll join you as one of those who will "Take - not Send" his boy to the arena.

4-Town Hockey Tourney For Mid-March in Acton

Representatives from Vergus, only house league teams from Georgetown and Milton were invited to Acton last Sunday to discuss plans for this year's annual Four Town Tournament. Although Vergus failed to appear, a delegation from Georgetown, Herb Ilgus and Bob Watkins of MMHA, met with the Acton group in a most congenial atmosphere. G. James of Acton chaired the meeting since Acton will be the host for this year. A general framework was agreed upon by all with Acton to fill in the details to fit their operation. The Tourney date was set for Saturday, March 14, 1964, with the Georgetown Novice team taking on Milton in the kick-off game at 8 a.m. players relaxation between the it was decided this year that games.
