HIGH TALES

G. E. DICKINSON, B.A., B. Paed., M.A. Staff Advisor

STEWARY SAXE Editor-in-Chief

FRED ROBERTS Boys Sports Editor SUSAN TROTT Girls Sports Editor

THE

DOMINION PARTY

tes, not ten separate states.

EDITORIAL .

Political Education Important as ABCs

between the ages of eighteen to worry about knowledge limits itical chaos. If we are to ach substantial margin shead for and twenty was has raised the as well. qualified

They do not, on the average, sent aducational system. mit even be a massure of puli ional politics than their par for that and no other reason; plus the general public seems to one candidate is handsomer start co operating if peace is lucky enough to fall while in inal," Kerr said.

The present controversy over, Instead of worrying shout age arete tountries. The resulting town had overtaken their question of whether or not the ligh schools offer courses in must set as one country mak. The final score, as mentioned members of this age group are almost everything else that will ing the best use of our diver- shove, was 37-18. govern our future, yet our poll-sified resources. Only & catas |. Miss Teasdale's hard work as text, would appear to be 'No. | pletely ignored under our pre- to divide.

Only a small porcentage of les.

. Of course not. Yet, under going to college, Yet it is left be sold to any buyer willing for, Susan Quinn and Linda and other groups to conduct our present system, a college to this stage til our education to pay the price, not left to rotitee. student of political sciences may for us to pick up any concept because the United States does. A foul or free shot is the He was interrupted by en not have the right to vote of political realities. The mas not approve of the country that penalty for any accidental thusiastic applause when he while a person whose educa sea remain uninstructed despite is buying. There is not one tripping or slapping spied by called "ridiculous" the procedtion has not gone beyind grade the fact that they are the ones reason why children in some the referees. A player is allow ure by which such draws or

Georgetown Participates In U.N. Model Parliment

Acton and Georgetown Model dropped to an all-time low. Ev-Parliamentary and Debating So- en the supposed rip roaring Pep cieties was held Tuesday night, Rally, held in early fall, was Jan. 21. The debate, at which a failure due to a lack of spiran excellent showing was put it. The cheerleaders, both jun-Association in Canada and will example of this. Out of nearly Mark Llewellyn, Party Whip; be attended by the High Schools a thousand students, less than Nick Atkinson, Party Librarian, in the Halton and Peel Dis- two bundred loyally watched Lesley Buresh, Deputy Leader, the height of activity will centrict. Special guests this year the games after being excused Kim Gunn; Eleanor Hill, Party tre around baskethall. Both the been behind the scenes. Mr. Even when a player makes a Service Pins Honour Walker and Mrs. Tucker, the miraculous shot, the crowd can Service Pins Honour election was decided on. is the fashion to remain unaf-This system is rather unulual fected.

ment pro and con in the school other activities show the signs has resigned. The motion to Georgina Brown. Each of the two parties this of indifference. There are only year will elect a list of ten about twenty five active cadets, Life Magazine was approved of the sanior again this year members (the maximum num- and school clubs such as the ber Georgetown can send). Then Drams, Photography, LSCF, De scrapbook committee do a spe. Cock (captain), Ratty Quackenvotes will be east for the party, batng and even Student Coun- cial project on President Ken- bush, Gloria Jones, Judy Nash, not the candidate. Each party cil show a lack of response. will choose candidates in prop These were organized for you, a bookmobile may pay a visit Ann Barber, Pat Mackinson and netion to the number of votes the students. They are a source, to our school but more about Gillian Swann. east for each party, for exam- to widen your interests. They that later. The first day back The seniors played their first ple: if a party obtains sixty give you a chance to support after holidays proved a busy game, an exhibition against Bi percent of the total votes cast, your school. the ten candidates from the reasons for the apparent lack seventy one cards in the draw but redeemed themselves on a building or roadwork, should be point its own candidates. It is blame it on the amount of gone out that day. At the last Georgetown Seniors also defeaare doing their best to bring with the less lucky. Other-stu- Council also offered to supply llowever, Georgetown Juniors School by winning the trophy, our school and how it is im book reports, speeches and spe another exhibition game. But the thing that will give us possible to know everyone and cial assignments coming up. Both Junior and Senior teams the most points will be the per unite for one cause - your I know a lot of you will find were victorious over Milton on cent of the student body that school. wotes. Let's make this a good 'The high school years are of the student body vote.

A "G" for Georgetown

spells out 'Georgelown'." one time this cheer was a wellknown favourite, but it is very the onlookers and participants the determination of the teams ternoon. Thus continued the story of why Mary and Joseph ed Portia, Brutus wife, in last Iterest of our students has slow-A joint debate between the ly declined. This year it has on, commenced the activities for and senior are better than chance. But win or love, we which will centre around the ever this year. But even they promise you our best. The rest coming Model Parliament. | could not induce vigor into the is up to you. This Model Parliament is or lifeless crowd. Attendance at ganized by the United Nations the football game was a prime Stewart D. Saxe, Party Leader will be twenty Quebec High from school to see the event. Presently the basketball sea-So far most of the activity son is in full swing. Spirit, nev-In Georgelown High School has ertheless, is as low as ever.

sponsoring teachers, got the summon only a weak applause, g: ball rolling when we came back The spectators of other high Library Club Members to school after the holidays. | schools such as Acton and Mil-At the first meeting Nancy ton go near-wild with enthusi-Hunter was chosele Chief Elec- asm. But at GHS not a cheer Year was held in the Library nes, Susan MacDonald, Rev toral Officer and the system of or whistle is heard. Perhaps it on the 7th of January with eigh- Gosling, Nancy Korzack, Judy and will remove personality school - where the grade nines a year's service received recog. The Georgetown Juniors were The members of the society lower themselves to associate one-year pins. The Student the Bishop McDonald Juniors.

the Library more than helpful. January 15th when they played showl' I and have 100 per cent said to be the best years of our There is no secret, easy, suro you enjoy them by building if you have any symptoms Drama Club Presents lives. Therefore, he sure that cure for all types of cancer. school spirit and making your which could mean cancer, see Nativity Playlet CMon Gang, Give Us school one to be proud of. your doctor at once.

Jan. 20 is Win Day as aing words of a chorus which Basketball Teams Triumph sical and dramatic offerings of then as an independent county

by Susan Trott seldom now that the gymnasium Monday, January 20th, prov-is filled with the familiar ed to be a victorious day allchords. As a matter of fact, round for Georgetown High and outlined the rules and the tions by the Senior and Junior ernment close to him to underat our school games one rarely School. While our Junior and boundaries to be in effect, choirs. Their work did not go stand his needs. Not one that hears any cheering or signs of Senior Boys travelled to Acton Then, as is the custom, the vis for nothing as they were lauded is so far away that it must try enthusiasm amongst the spec- to compete against their respec- iting team had first choice over for their superior presentation; to be fair to all in a way suittators. What's happened to our live teams, the Junior and Sen-Georgetown in choosing either but the part of the show which able for their needs. Think!! for girls of GHS played host to the hasket or the centre throw- drew the most applause and a and vote for your National A few years ago nothing the visiting teams from Acton. in. Action began on the signal few tears of compassion was the Party. could squelch the enthusiasm The resulting scores: Senior from the referee. A Georgetown Drams Club's presentation of of students at GHS. A defeat Boys, 87-15; Senior Girls, 41-3; player, Pat Cock, the captain, Florence Ryerson's 'Star Song' a her entrance. Ann's role brought out a determination in and Junior Cirls, 37-13; show was the first scorer of the af-play in one act which tells the not unfamiliar, having portray.

Committee to grow a committee and a second of the committee of the committ alike. With the support of the to-win, and the great coopera- game until the final score at spent that fateful night in the year's presentation of "Julius school fans, sincere, loud and tion of the coaches and the the end of the fourth quarter stable on the road to Bethle- Caesar." Also strong in their often boisterous, our school players. ... totalled 41-8. The game was hem. The play took on a hum roles as Nuns, a lame stave teams slowly tworked up from The referees in attendance at unusually fast-moving and was orous note most of the way, and Tirza, the innkeepert were insignificance to recown. the girls games were Evelyn completed -- within -an - hour, until, Ann Hardy, in the role of Brenda Elliott and Evelena Ro Sadly, though, the lively in Latter and Audrey Pritchard. Mrs. W. Thompson, the senior Octavia, Cassar's widow, made berts,

Terms Draw Law "Ridiculous" In Maiden Speech

roach, alternated the George-

And the estimated future Nineteen Georgetown and diwould gain some experience. construction costs of some strict girls and their leaders Those on the side lines had The Dominion Party stands chance to watch their for a free and prosperous Can mates and see the much pracada. Not les asparate proyin-tued players in action. Yifteen misseles later, the If we, as our oppositions wi Juntar Cirls' game began. Dur shes us to, give more power to ing the first eight minutes. Acthe provincial governments we ton had outscored the bome shall be no more than ton sep |team, but by half time, George extending the vote to people limits only, we should start lack of unity would equae pol ponents. Our juniors' kept a leve any worthwhile goal we the remainder of the game

The amover, if taken out of a tical responsibilities are com trophe could result if we were couch of the Juniors had cer-- Italinly paid off. Many of them This worthwhile goal, this are in grade nine and thus it is have roough of a working know Is the protection of our de unified course, should be a their first year of basketball. ledge of our political system inocracy and right to self-gov prosperous Canada, a free Can besides being their first time But who does? Do the people ernment not important shough ada; not, as our opposition wi in serious competition. This Coneral Fred Cass recommend between twenty and thirty? to be dealt with while we are shee, a Canada either belonging game proved that Georgetown to the federal justice minister Forty and fifty? Can an age it still in the learning stage? Ito, or a part of, the United Starthad high hopes for future years the amendment of certain sec.

town players so that everyone who will decide the future | foreign land should be left to ed up to five fouls before she raffles can be closed and pros-Many high school students Now is the time to rid our starve because of a lack of its disquelified for the remain-lecuted by the provincial police. have a much better understan society of the people who vote grain while our farmers suffer der of the game. In a game, Holding such functions so to ding of national and internat as their great-grandfathers did, poverty because of a grain sur such as basketball, there are assist in community projects know little about, and care even than the other; and of the peo to be maintained. Continued play. She will likely be unable The member from Halton les about, national politics. It ple who don't care and don't economic wars in which every to participate for the rest of County also pleaded for "econ-

Basketball Girls Seek

SULAN Yrott

During the next few weeks.

their first league game.

Georgetown High School.

CWOSSA Title

stituents that, when in office, by educating the people in pol these beliefs at the caming Mo to the juniors. he will, in one way or another, ities just as they are educated del Parliament. To best do It was a pleasant change to not imminent. make them financially richer, in reading, writing and arith this and thereby win the trophy hear a little school spirit voic. He suggested that where esfor Georgetown we have assem ed from the crowd on Monday timated expenditures exceed bled the best qualified group The junior cheerleaders led revenues, budgets should be of students available. Four of the group in a number of lively planned over a two or three our candidates attended last chants. At quarter and half year period, and warned the year's Model Parliament, two time, they had full use of the government that "when we of them are past presidents of gym floor. The players really run out of liquor or cigaretthe debating club, more than appreciate a little encourage tea, the pinch is going to hurt." half have been members of the ment and who could resist the Labrary Club and the school's enthusiasm displayed by these lasted approximately half hour, two top students are also Dom- girls. With the school's support mion Party candidates. shown in high attendance at

To win the trophy against games and voiced with the liat least twelve other schools will not be easy. We feel that students possess, how can GHS if you elect us we have the best

The executive consists of --Secretary: Jane Byder; Steven Junior and Senior Girl teams Ewing: Fred Roberts; Norma will play off against Acton and Frances Crisp The 1st meeting of the New McNeil, Gaye Taylor, Joy Hai teen members present. Georg- Mills and Jill Kemshead. Their ina Brown is our new President coach is Miss Teasdale. Sharon and has sparked a little com- Not only sports affairs but in place of Nick Atkinson who Gorth is manager, assisted by send a two-year subscription to . Mrs. Thompson is the coach and it was decided to have the Members of the team are Pat nedy. There is a possibility that Liz Davidson, Susan Trott, Joone for the library for by the ship McDonald Seniors of be entitled to six out of Perhaps there are evident end of noon hour there were Guelph. They were defeated Each party will ap of school spirit. Some students er for filing as the books had return game by winning 30-20. this system will homework, the teachers, or the meeting of the old year, mem- ted Acton in an exhibition ments can judge their own guarantee better representation group distinctions. in our bers who had given the Club game.

Halton County MPP George, and privileged to speak for the

Kerr called for more control tirst time in the Assembly. by municipal councils of school thanking the people in Halten boards, especially capital bud- County for their support and gets, in his maiden speech in pledging to represent them all the Optario Legislature Friday. "to the best of his ability." While education tosis how total nearly 60 per cent. of the Rangers, Guides be said, yet town councillors Spend Week-end and the department of education "have little control ov. At Doe Lake or detailed costs."

school hoards over a project spent a snowy January weeked tive year peried would make end -- which they plauned strong med weep" Kerr added themselves - at's campiste on He said he felt councils and Dog Lake, 25 miles north of the department "should be in Huntaville recently. s position to give more direc. "The group included 10 Air tion" and cooperation to the Hangers, I Guides, I Cadet and boards, and that many school 8 leaders. areas chould she consolidated, particularly in Halton County stay from Jan 10 to Jan. 12.

Kerr also called for a vocaing the camp area. One of the tional and technical high school leaders, Mrs. R. Wyatt led the to be erected in the Citon area to serve the northern part of the County, similar to such schools recently built in Oakville and Burlinglan, and already filled from the camp by hus accomp The Halton MPP then sug anied by Mr. and Mrs. Art gested that Ontario Attorney with wich promising newsource tlone of the criminal code to nell, Bonnie Hilts, Marj Hanour population, even now, are! Our surplus proceeds should'as Jill Kemshead, Gaye Tay allow churches, service clubs cock, Linda Howat, Elizabeth few serious injuries, however, is the conventional way and ents. No matter of what age, of the people who vote because We believe the world must on Monday, Joy Ilaines, was un "cannot be classified as crim-is a well-known fact that if a vote. Do this not by some exam one suffers are senseless.

politician can convince his con or other dubious method, but We are prepared to defend will certainly prove to be a loss that capital reserves be set up to finance porjects that are

In his maiden speech, which Kerr paid tribute to Stanley Hall, his predecaror who held the lisiton County seat from 1943 to his death in 1962 vely interest that we know the He called the previous MPP "a man of great integrity, a lose their chance at CWOSSA?

good member, and one who served his riding well" and eredited him with being an important part of the amalgamating process through which Burlington and Oakville became the two largest towns in Kerr also reminded the Ontario Legislature that during Hall's 10-year -tenure. Halton County's population increased Milton, for the honour of comfrom 27,000 to the present peing for the CWOSSA cham-125,000, changing from "mainly rural riding into an Members of the Junior team essentially urban riding." are Janice Baker (captain), Rose; He had opened his speech Anne Podverse (assistant cap with a description of the countin), Sharon Myers, Elizabeth ty and said he was both proud

NATIONAL PARTY

Robert Saxe

Georgetown High School approaching the point where the students will vote for represontatives of two parties to go to Brampton to attend the Model Parliament. One of these parties is the 'National Party'. There are two major policies of this party. We feel that the power to administer the needs of the people for education or for any local needs such as with the people closest to the scene. The Provincial Governproblems better than a government further away. The and eighty percenters couldn't nition by the presentation of defeated in both games against Central Government should have the authority to deal with the matter of foreign affairs. honour to Georgetown High dents blame it on the size of the guards for the pins. With defeated Acton last week in defence, trade, or any others that concern, as whole nations. We also feel . that Canada should advance the relationship with countries of her own hemisphere. We should learn know and understand our nel ghbours and to support the drive for peace by helping to develop the Organization of American States. We should first learn to live On the evening of Friday, De- in harmony with an economiccember 13th, a small but on- ally sound structure, with the thusiastic audience saw the mu-countries of our. hemisphere, to include the Atlantic Trade

Minutes before the senior game The first half of the show Countries and others. was scheduled to-begin, both consisted of arrangements by Each individual must therethe Senior and Junior Dance fore start by making his com-

Hay, Chris McIntyre, Susan Mac THE GEORGETOWN HERALD Donald, Susan Mitchell, Mari Thursday, Feb. 6th, 1964 Pew, Karen Shortill, Betty York, PAGE II Maureen Wyatt, Gall Walah, att, Mrs. B. Cannell, Mrs.

Marilyn Barth, Mrs. Robert Wy- Pletcher and Miss Carols

McCULLOCH

• FLUSH CUT HANDLE

· AUTOMATIC CLUTCH · McCULLOCH SUPER-MAC . REBUREABLE CYLINDER WITH CAST TROM

LINER . BALANCED, LIGHTWEIGHT DESIGN.

Now Available at 15 Main St. S.

877-3501

Book Now.... Avoid Disappointment!

Your Bowling Banquet is coming! . . . . and who can supply you with the top music and disc jockeys you need?

They made the most of their skiing, tobogganing and explor-girls in a discussion on the

Guide Laws. Another, Mrs. H

camp tongs.

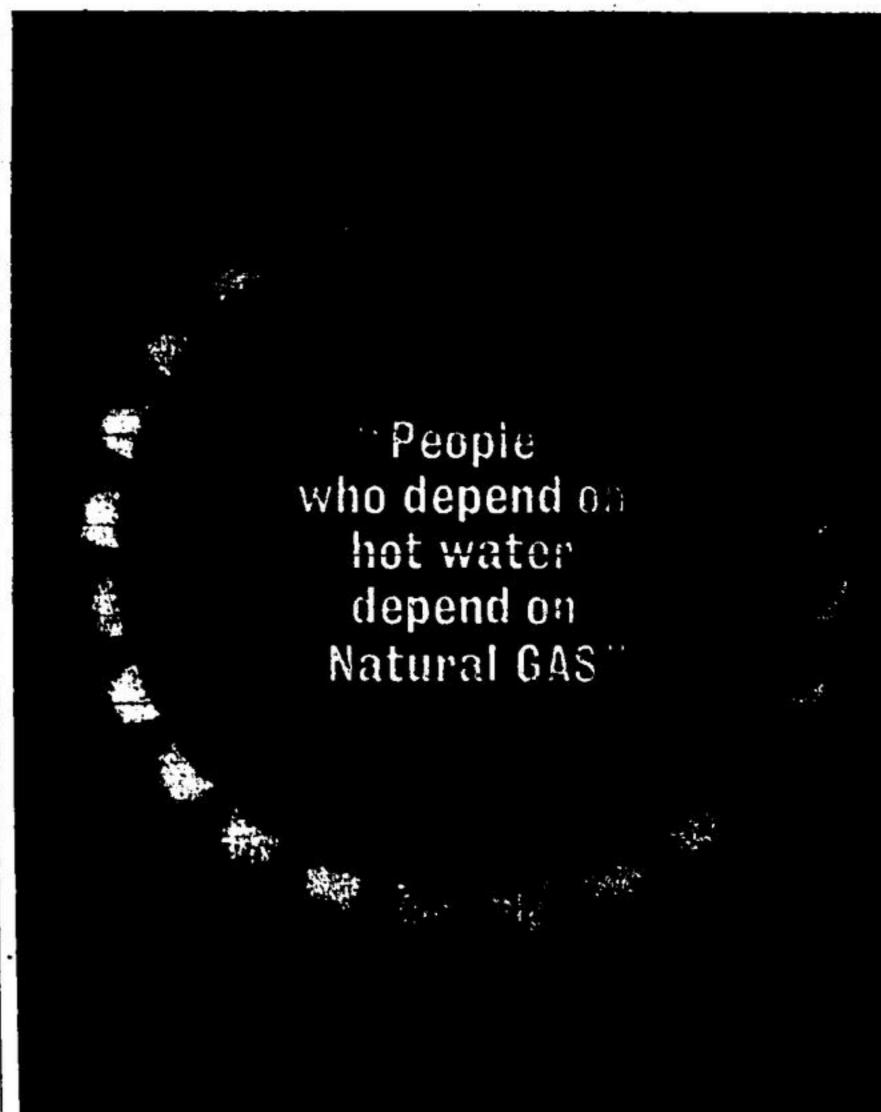

Cannell, taught them new Guide

The party travelled to and

Tul-Bro Entertainment Services

For Full Information Contact

BILL TULLETY 459-0334 OR SCOTTY BROWN 459-1875 WE BOAST THAT OUR RECORD LIBRARY IS SECOND TO NOME

THE MATURAL GAS ... THE FRIENDLY FUEL

Hospitals and hotels, laundries and car washes, beauty parlors and restaurants-wherever plenty of hot water is needed for commerce, you'll find natural gas the first-choice fuel. Home-owners, too, are happier with natural gas . . . the fastest, cleanest, most dependable way to heat water. Modern natural gas water heaters are fully automatic-and marvellously economical! Make the change to natural gas water heating now.

Special Bonus Award!

Trade in your old water heater right now and you'll receive a special bonus cheque for $10.00 (nostringsattsched)! This special offer is good only up to and including March 31st, 1964. So choose now from a variety. of leading makes and models.

All carry the Canadian Gas Association Scal of Approval.