LET'S HAVE A PARTY
LET'S ASK ALL OUR FRIENDS...
The living room will hold the crowd in comfort. I'll fix refreshments in my modern new kitchen, serve in style in the dining area. And we won't disturb the children tucked away in their big bedrooms on the upper level, we can play bridge later in the family room beside a crackling fire in the fireplace, or dance in the recreation room while being catered to at the bar. Your friends will marvel at the 3 bathrooms, especially the main one with its huge vanity and twin sinks.

THIS COULD BE YOU! FOR ONLY $21,000.

Campaign Chairman Hears Cancer Research Needs

Declaring that funds to meet the growing needs of cancer research demand a campaign across the province at the Cancer Society's 18th Annual Campaign Conference in the West-Orlando Division, Canadian Cancer Society, urged his campaign chairmen to increase the size and efficiency of the campaign force for the April, 1964 campaign.

Guest speakers were Dr. R. J. Rocaster, head of the Department of Biochemistry, University of Western Ontario, and the Rev. Richard Jones, Toronto, Ontario, Executive Director of the Canadian Council for Chicanos and Jews in support of the Chairman's remarks. Dr. Rocaster stressed the magnitude of the work being done in cancer research and the need for more funds to be done by the Society in alleviating human suffering.

Mr. Garratt was speaking to 300 campaign chairmen from across the province at the Cancer Society's 18th Annual Campaign Conference in the West-Orlando Division, Canadian Cancer Society, urged his campaign chairmen to increase the size and efficiency of the campaign force for the April, 1964 campaign.

Guest speakers were Dr. R. J. Rocaster, head of the Department of Biochemistry, University of Western Ontario, and the Rev. Richard Jones, Toronto, Ontario, Executive Director of the Canadian Council for Chicanos and Jews in support of the Chairman's remarks. Dr. Rocaster stressed the magnitude of the work being done in cancer research and the need for more funds to be done by the Society in alleviating human suffering.

The family, all living, consists of: Rev. William J. Baxter, Georgetown; Rev. E. George Baxter, Toronto (a former pastor of First Baptist Church here); Charles, Stelco accountant, Hamilton; Mrs. Clare Guyatt, Binbrook; Mrs. George Massey, Bowmanville; Arthur, book and stationery merchant, Hamilton; Mrs. William Cobban, R.V., Bowmanville.

The Reverend William J. Baxter, minister of St. Paul's Baptist Church, on Monday attended the celebration of the ninth birthday anniversary of his father, Mr. Joseph Baxter, present also were other members of the family, three sons and three daughters with their husbands and wives. The gathering was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Guyatt, on their farm at Binbrook, where all enjoyed a fine old English dinner of roast beef and Yorkshire pudding.

Mr. Baxter was born in Ipswich, in Suffolk County, in England, on February twenty-fourth, 1874. He and Mrs. Baxter, who also is still living, with their three children, so regaled the party with reminiscences of family life in this century and settled in Ontario, where a fourth son and three daughters were born. Gifts were presented, including an illuminated address letter.
