HARLEY TO HALTON

WEEKLY OBSERVATIONS BY DR. HARRY HARLEY, M.P. FOR HALTON

One of the measures that was in the Throne Speech that I feel will be of great interest to our new Canadian Citizens in Halton is the intention to give new citizens all the rights and privileges of natural-born Canadians. New citizens will not be deprived of their citizenship unless they become citizens of another country or resign Canadian citizenship. Some time ago the Citizenship Court in Hamilton began looking after citizenship matters of Halton County. I would welcome any letters on this as I would like to know how this is working out. A letter addressed to me here does not require any postage. I send my congratulations to all those high school students in Halton who participated in the Third Annual Halton and Peel United Nations Student Model Parliament. I am sure that they found this an invaluable experience and that it provided some insight into political affairs. I would like to specially congratulate Georgetown High School on winning the award for the best contribution to debates. High school students, I believe, are becoming increasingly aware of world affairs and politics. This should be encouraged. I recommend that students examine the political scene and party structure, and actively work for the party of their choice. In a democratic society, political activity, beginning at the riding level, is the method of acquiring political experience and influence in party politics. I would remind the Municipalities of Halton of the Centennial Federal Grants. The applications are to be made to the Minister of Municipal Affairs. The Province must approve the project after assuring the National Centennial Administration that 2/3 of the cost will be met by the Province and the initiating agency. The project must have a reasonable prospect of completion by the time of the Centennial celebrations. Projects must be of a lasting nature and could include:

1. Acquisition and construction of buildings, or parks.
2. Acquisition of buildings of historic or architectural merit.
3. Restoration of buildings of historic or architectural merit.
4. Writing and publishing of books or music.
5. Creation of works of art.

The following year she married Mr. Danard, who had been the minister of Norval Methodist Church for the two years ending in 1912. After their marriage, Mr. Danard taught mathematics in Havelock and St. Catharines and was later principal at Durham, Parry Sound and Kirkland Lake colleges. They moved to Brampton in 1954. SEEK 250 LIMEHOUSE ACRES FOR CONSERVATION PURPOSE

A new conservation area at Limehouse will be the result of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority's completion of a transaction for 250 acres of land there. George Kerr M.P.P. for Halton announced today the approval of a Provincial grant in the amount of $1,250,000 to the CVCA for survey and appraisal in the proposed Limehouse Conservation Area. The authority proposes to make a survey and appraisal of the property with a view to acquiring it as a "multiple use" area. All municipalities contributing to the Credit Valley Conservation Authority are designated as beneficiaries and will be levied the Authority's share of the cost. A CVCA official in Georgetown, Alex McLaren, said the area being sought to develop is just west of the village. The land is privately owned.

Urgent Plea Issued For Sewing Machines

Sunshine School at Hornby urgently requires at least four electric sewing machines. Mrs. R. P. E. Jeffares, principal of the school announced recently. The sewing machines are being used by the children to manufacture items to be later sold at the school's June Bazaar. The principal stressed the need for electric machines since there are six pupils who are further handicapped by being unable to use either, in some cases, a hand or leg. She said the school at present has two electric machines and these are used by two boys who have but only one hand each. With the machines, they have become adept at sewing, she said. In all there are six children who can use electric type sewing machines and this poses a problem, she said. In addition to the electric machines the school has two old fashioned treadle machines, but Mrs. Jeffares said these are virtually useless to her because of the children's additional handicaps. At present the pupils of the North Halton Retarded Children's Association are preparing for the June Bazaar and are busy at work manufacturing stuffed dolls, foam plastic baskets, laundry bags, pillows and cases and other useful items. During the week, she said, the children were hard at work filling Easter Seal envelopes with seals, stamps and an additional envelope. Mrs. Jeffares said this is the second year the children have done this work and they have become remarkably skilful at it. The school added a new pupil last week bringing the total school population to 22. When Sunshine School opened in the fall of 1962, there was an enrollment of 15 children at the school.
