

Off the Ice They're People!

Off the ice the Beavers aren't Beavers, they're people. A Rose Room full of teenagers got to know the local Juniors out of character at a 'Meet the Beavers' dance Friday night at the arena. It didn't even matter very much that they had just emerged from a four month run playing door mat in the Metro Jr. B loop — on the dance floor the Beavers were winners, it was obvious. At left defenseman Glenn Cooper and leading scorer Jack Gudgeon chat with Roxanne Cowbough and Pat Harris. Sitting on the stairs at right are Robbie Irons (so that's what he looks like with his mask off), Tom Kronney and femme fant.

CURLING CHATTER

Your games have been played in the Silver and Schenley trophy draw up to the beginning of the week. As some of the results have not been posted, it was decided that the stand for this draw will be the Mac-Coruaick. So let's wind up the season with a full entry. It will be quite some time before there is another bonspiel after this one — not till next year.

The list was posted Sunday for the fraternal visit of the Guelph club here tomorrow night. The skip is to enter his complete team for the draw. Last Sunday evening was elimination night for a number of teams in the Molson draw. The finals will be run off this coming Sunday to determine the team that represents the club at Barrie on March 21st. They start to play at 9:30 in Barrie on Saturday, March 21st.

Speaking of bonspiels, Durham sure came up with the most novel I've heard of in quite some time. The grand prize of the day (March 21) is a standard breed horse. How the four will divide it up when the steed is won is their problem. Seems that this horse is too valuable to grind up into hamburger or fox meat, so they are holding a bonspiel to dispose of the animal. Anyone for Mohawk this spring?

Turning the corner by No. 1 Green last Friday, it sure looked like the grass was beginning to turn green, but then on Sunday, a white blanket of snow was covering the grass. Guess it will be a little while before the golfers get out there digging the grass out by the roots.

Richmond Handles Mets in Juvenile Ball Set-Up

A Georgetown man will be at the helm of an Oakville junior baseball team, the Mets, this summer.

Bill Richmond, 58 Stevens Cres., a veteran of minor baseball doings has consented to direct the Juvenile team which last year lost the support of Oakville Minor Baseball Association in the middle of the season because of a dispute over money.

An expected small number of juvenile entries may force Mets to move up to play in Junior competition.

Richmond, who has been connected with baseball in the county for years, is expected to take some Georgetown players to help strengthen the club. There is no juvenile entry from Georgetown. Met officials plan to take advantage of a rule which allows them to import players from nearby centres not represented in juvenile ranks.

Three Goals Down But Pee Wees Catch Thorold

On Tuesday, March 3, Georgetown Pee Wees engaged Cedar Hill, a team from the Scarborough Pee Wee League and defeated the visitors by a 5-0 score.

There was no scoring in the first period, but the second period produced three goals. Wiles from Tomlins and Davies at 7:05. Fowler from Korzak at 10:40 and Presswood from Drenters at 12:25.

The third period saw 2 more goals. Presswood at 11:45 and Wiles from Davies at 14:50.

Thorold Team — Goals to Count

On Thursday, March 5th, Georgetown Pee Wees had their first bus trip out of town, going to Thorold for the first game with the goals to count for the series.

In this game Georgetown were not at their best and as a result came home on the short end of a 4-2 score. There was no scoring in the 1st period, though both teams missed many opportunities, especially the Georgetown lads. Thorold opened the scoring in the second period at 2:55 by Calmucky, assisted by Byfield. Marty Fowler from Neil Korzak and Glen Chapman tied it at 6:40. French from Byfield at 7:45 put Thorold ahead again. In the third period at 51 seconds Garry Calmucky from Hope and Woodhouse made 3-1. Carl Tomlins for Georgetown notched one at 8:50. Driscoll from Hope at 8:54 closed out the scoring.

Second Game Sunday, 4:30 p.m. Thorold

On Sunday afternoon, March 8th, with a 4-2 deficit against Georgetown, some 200 fans were treated to a thriller by the Georgetown Young Pee Wees, who were playing Thorold in a return game here. The writer would say that you will go to many games of any division before you would see a better game.

From the outstanding goaltending by John Blair who came up with many a dazzling save to keep the locals in, to the last forward everyone of these lads gave his all and it was wondered how long such a pace could be kept up by such young players.

There was no scoring in the first period though both teams missed golden opportunities. The second period produced one goal and that by Thorold at 5:45 by Driscoll assisted by Hope. The third period was a do or die one for the local lads and here it was demonstrated our lads were equal to the task as they took over and at 3:05 Carl Tomlins scored, assisted by Doug Wiles. At 5:38 Doug noclched one. Then with the line running out and Georgetown playing a man short, Neil Korzak battled his way along the boards and skirted the defence to score and put Georgetown even in goals in the series and so to overtime.

The overtime period was 10 minutes at 6:30 Carl Tomlins, assisted by Glen Chapman scored the winner. At 9:54 with the Thorold goalie taken out for an extra man, Georgetown put the game on ice with another goal from Wiles assisted by Korzak and Fowler. Series en-
