New Buchanan Paintings House - Sol Easter Feature

Everybody who visited Paul Buchanan's show at Gallery House Sol, 46 Charles St., Georgetown, last October will remember his beautiful painting of a Mother and Child. With this painting he proved to be one of the truly religious artists now working in Canada.

To celebrate Easter, Gallery House Sol invited Paul Buchanan to exhibit his latest works from March 21st to April 8th. Mr. Buchanan chose the title 'Liturgical Art' for his second one-man show.

Paul Buchanan was born in Toronto in 1930. He is a pupil of the painters, Clare Hule and Dorothy Stevens. Since 1964 he has worked as exhibit designer for the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture in Guelph, Ont.

In 1960 he was commissioned to design and execute the artwork for the Memorial Chapel at St. George's Anglican Church in Guelph.

Mr. Buchanan is living in Elora.
