HARLEY TO HALTON

WEEKLY OBSERVATIONS BY DR. HARRY HARLEY, M.P. FOR HALTON

During the past week the main item of course has been the budget. The budget calls for no tax increases although it is expected that the federal deficit will be cut by one-third. The Minister recalled that many changes in fiscal and economic policies were included in last year's budget, because we had to move quickly on a number of fronts. The main policy changes have paid off well and will continue to pay off in the months and years ahead. From the economic standpoint, the government's job at this time is to consolidate its gains and plans for steady growth. This has been called a "stand-pat" budget. In a way it is to allow those measures taken in the

ASHGROVE

FOREIGN LAND ARTICLES ANSWER W.I. ROLL CALL

The Ashgrove W.I. meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon March 17, at the home of Mrs. Clayton Wilson and was called the International meeting. Present, Mrs. John Bird, opened with the ode and creed. Roll call was "bring an article from a foreign land." Many interesting things were brought. A doll from Holland, a pretty gavel from England, a spoon from Cairo, paper knife from Chili, a beautiful child's christening robe from Denmark, a lovely glass pitcher from Sweden, and other articles from Wales, Australia, Japan, India and Mexico.

A letter of thanks was read from Halton Music Festival for our donation sent to them.

The summary day for the desert course was announced for April 8th in Milton. All were in favour of sending one dollar for membership in children's Aid Society, so as to understand better what is being done, an invitation from Mountain Union W.I. to help celebrate their fortieth anniversary on April 22nd was read and ten or twelve offered to attend.

Mrs. Clayton Wilson donated a pair of bed socks which were accepted with thanks for the handicraft booth at the F.W.I.C. Conference. Mrs. Frank Wilson reported on the euchre and dance held early in March. It was also announced that the short course on Home furnishings would be held late in April.

The nominating committee to prepare next year's officers are Mrs. Robert Cunningham and Mrs. Percy Leslie. Mrs. Cecil Wilson read thank-you notes after which the program was turned over to Mrs. Charles Carney who in a few opening remarks welcomed some New Canadians who were present. Two ladies from Holland and two from Denmark, both demonstrated how to make Danish pastry and also told something about the life and schools in Denmark. Mrs. John Hockema from Holland had a wooden shoe and a small windmill on display and also played and sang on her guitar.

Mrs. Percy Cox read a piece on Russia told by a young woman who had spent five weeks among the people. Mrs. Charles Austin gave some interesting information on the United Nations which meets in New York. Mrs. J. M. Winkler gave the motto "the handicap offer of friendship is stronger than any peace treaty," which had some grand thoughts in it.

Mrs. Lloyd Davidson read the current events and Mrs. Francis Thompson sang some stirring Irish songs after which Mrs. Milton Bird thanked the hostesses and everyone who had helped that afternoon.

After singing the Queen, lunch was served which included Danish pastry, Norwegian cookies, Swiss cheese and dainties from Germany and Scotland.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson have returned from a four month trip to Santa Barbara, California where they visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williamson. They left on November 18th, and returned on March 10th, the very day of the big snow storm.

On two Monday evenings, March 9th and March 16th, in the church basement, twenty-five ladies attended the W.I. Desert Course in charge of Mrs. Wilbert Cleave and Mrs. Cecil Wilson. These two ladies journeyed to Milton two days in February to learn the course and came back and repeated the lovely games to which the gathering were treated at lunch time. (We hear that the husbands are quite happy with the results too.)

Hornby 'Weasels' Feature Of St. Stephen Minstrels

On Tuesday night, March 17, (which is better known as St. Patrick's Day) the Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Anglican Church was filled to capacity for the 'Minstrel Show' put on by the St. Stephen's Sidesmen. The audience was welcomed by the M.C. of the evening, Craig Royce. The wall cracked as the people watched and roared with laughter at the skits and singing of the great performance put on by local talent. The evening consisted of folk singing, skits, western songs and a sing song of old Irish favourites under the capable leadership of Pat Phippance. Mrs. Lydia Royce was escorted to the front of the hall to lead in the singing of "Come Back to Erin." A skit, "Joe the Bartender" was put on by Craig Royce as "Joe" and George Thomson as "Crazy". Folk Singing with the 1004 curves was very well done by Geoffrey Drewbrook acting as "Saliva" and Winston Prestidge as Oswald. The Hornby Weasels who acted as the version of the Beatles, were most amusing as they sang the old Western tunes. The Weasels included — Lorne Whaley, Gary Prestidge, Gary Whaley and Winston Prestidge, with John Mills of Georgetown at the piano. The script which was directed by Lorne Whaley included: Ken Whaley as Mr. Interlocutor, Pat Phippance, George Thomson, Craig Royce, Peter Schell, Dale Hallett, Grant Royce, Don Chisholm and David Royce. Singing included the Sidesmen and their wives, with a few outsiders helping out. A great deal of credit goes to Lorne Whaley, who spent so much time on practice, which certainly paid off. The young girls even screamed when the Hornby Weasels appeared in their wigs. Following the program a variety of fancy cookies and coffee were served. Rev. Maxwell presented Pat Phippance with a birthday cake being as it was his birthday.

The North Trafalgar Community Club held their monthly euchre party at the Percy Merry School on Monday night, March 16th, with 19 tables in play. The prizes were won by the following: Dora McCarron, Mrs. Maurice Williamson, Mrs. Cliff May, Frank Hall, Cliff Norton and Mrs. Fran Miller, (who played as a man). Four lucky draws were made and the winners were: Mrs. Ella, Mrs. Roy Break, Anderson May and Gordon Leslie. A delicious lunch

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Edward Bailey on the sudden death of her brother-in-law, Finlay Currie, on Thursday, March 19th at the Wellensley Hospital, Toronto.

Mrs. Herb Hamilton of Wroxeter, attended the Minstrel Show at St. Stephen's Anglican Church last Tuesday night.

Wedding anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Stan May who are celebrating their 25th wedding day on March 25th.

LIMEHOUSE

ROYAL BANK

YES—that's one of the big advantages at Royal Bank

Royal Bank ranks as one of the world's largest financial institutions, with more than 1,100 branches in Canada and abroad.

Yet each Royal Bank branch operates much like a local business, with a relatively small staff.

This means that in the branch where you start, and others where you'll go for extra experience, your training and progress will be the personal concern of the manager. And he will help and encourage you in further studies, including special bank courses and training schools that give you valuable preparation for a banking career.

YOU CAN AIM FOR THE TOP AT THE ROYAL.

Most of our managers came to us right from High School, were put in charge of their first branch by their mid-thirties. Senior officers, right up to the top, started the same way.

At Royal Bank, your aptitude, your desire to work and get ahead, and your talent for dealing with people are the things that count.

Staff benefits include an outstanding pension plan — group life insurance — health and hospital insurance — generous sick leave and vacation policies.

For further details, ask at any Royal Bank branch or your booklet, "Your Future in the Royal Bank." Or have a talk with any Royal Bank manager about the interesting work and the human and financial rewards awaiting you in the challenging, growing field of modern banking.
