Businessman Served Town As Reeve and Fire Chief

A former Georgetown reeve and fire chief, Norman H. Brown, 70, of 88 Guelph Street, died on April 10th in Georgetown nursing home.

Mr. Brown served five terms as a councillor, from 1932 to 1942, and was reeve in 1943. As a volunteer fireman, he was chief of the department in the thirties.

Born at Norval Station, he was the son of James Brown and Mary May. He attended public school in Norval and after farming for a few years apprenticed to a Milton baker. He had his own shop in Higgate, then returned to Georgetown where with his wife he operated a bakery in what is now the Norton building and then as the McGibbon Hotel.

Four Motor Accidents Week's Traffic Toll

A re-occurring collision on Guelph St. at Windsor Road Monday was the most serious of 4 accidents investigated over the past week by Georgetown Police.

The cars were driven by Harold Vodo Janssen, 58 Shelby St., and Harry Creamer Wood, 28 Main St. A police report said the Janssen car was stopped in the westbound lane on Guelph St. waiting to make a left turn on to Windsor Road when the Wood car collided with the rear end.

Cpl. R. D. Whitson handled the investigation and placed property damage at $350 to Janssen's 1964 Volkswagen, and $150 to the 1963 Peugeot driven by Wood.

Thursday, cars driven by John Cunningham, 8 Academy Road, and Joan Ann Bruce, of Campbellville collided on John St. West on the approach to the south end of the CNR culvert. Cunningham's Volvo took $100 damage and the 1932 Volkswagen driven by Mrs. Bruce, the same amount.

Cunningham was westbound and Mrs. Bruce eastbound when their cars met at a light corner.

Your hundred dollars was the total damage in an accident Friday involving a 1966 Meteor driven by Donald James McNiven, 45 Main St. N., and a 1963 Dodge driven by Harold Hix, Glen Williams.

The cars collided on Glen Road at the entrance to Smith and Stone Ltd. Hills was leaving the lot at the time.

An accident late Saturday night did damage to cars driven by David Edward Shannon, R. H. Acton, and Henry Walama, Glen Williams, at the intersection of Guelph St. and Mountainview Road.

Shannon was travelling west on Guelph St. and Walama north on Mountainview. Cat. Evan Rollins estimated damage at $250 to the 1960 Meteor driven by Shannon and $150 to Walama's 1958 Buick.

CARDS OF THANKS
ARMITAGE — We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and the beautiful floral arrangements received by our family during the loss of a loving husband, father and grandfather. Thank you so much—Mrs. A. Meads, Mr. and Mrs. George Armitage and family.

DOLSON — We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our kind relatives, friends and neighbours during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved father. We especially thank: Rev. Norman Young and Rev. Robert Duncanson, Howard and Herbert Dolson.

PRESTONE — Mr. and Mrs. Y. C. Freestone would like to say "Thank You" to all their friends, neighbours and relatives for the flowers, cards and gifts received on the occasion of their Seventieth Wedding Anniversary. Special thanks to the Pottery Girls of Smith and Stone and to the W.A. of St. George's Church.

HUE — I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my neighbours, fellow employees at Smith and Stone, Ltd., Volunteer Ambulance Service and Legion Ladies Auxiliary for all the lovely gifts, cards, visits and calls to me while I was in hospital in Guelph and since returning home. — Mrs. Kay Hue.

SMITH — We would like to thank kind friends and neighbours, the United Church Women, the Women's Institute, Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion and all others who were so kind and thoughtful at the time of our bereavement. Special thanks to Dr. Macintosh and Rev. Kelvin C. Johnston — The Smith Family.

Teacher 53 Years Resident Authored Grammar Text

Fifty-three years as a public and high school teacher was the proud record of Duncan Alexander Baxter, 84, who died in Georgetown Hospital April 11. He co-authored a grammar text used in Manitoba schools and was a B.A. graduate of the University of Manitoba.

Mr. Baxter's record spanned from a one-room school in Neesagaweya Township to principalship of a 40-room school in Transcona, Manitoba. And after retiring as principal at Neesagaweya, he continued as a substitute teacher in Toronto for another five years.

A native of the 4th Line in Caledon, he was the son of Malcolm and Ann Baxter. In 1897 he taught at Alken School and two sisters, Mrs. R. Sadler in Neesagaweya and for the next six years in schools in the Caledon area. He was a member of the star football team which won championship honours.

He later taught at Yonhill, then in Minnetonka, Minn. and Portage la Prairie, Manitoba. He was selected by the Dept. of Education to head the Transcona school which, with 40 rooms, was of record size and he held that post until 1938. He returned to Ontario to be Cookstown principal.

He made his home in Brampton from 1948 until 1960 when he moved to Georgetown where his son is vice-principal at Georgetown High School.

His wife, Margaret McLaren, whom he married in 1905 died five years ago. He leaves his son, A. McLaren Baxter, 53 King St. E., Georgetown, two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Hyde (Verna) and Mrs. D. A. Elliott (Odell) Toronto; a sister, Mrs. Edith Lindsay, Orangeville; grandchildren Blake Baxter, Georgetown, Duncan Baxter, Kitchener, William Richard, Marilyn, Joan and Robert Hyde, Toronto; and two great-grandchildren, Larry and Lorene Baxter, Kitchener.

Rev. Howard Pentland conducted the funeral service on Tuesday at the McKillop Funeral Home, Brampton with interment in the 4th Line Cemetery, Caledon. Among floral tributes was one from the 1918 graduating class at Transcona.

Ballinafad District Man Veteran of First War

Death came suddenly to H. A. (Harry) Smith, 66 at his home, R. R. 1 Georgetown on Wednesday, April 8th. He had not been in the best of health for some time and was home from hospital only two weeks prior to a fatal heart attack just after finishing his noon-day meal.

He was born in Nash, Buckinghamshire, England in 1898. He came to Canada in 1923 after serving in the Imperial army in the first war. He was wounded by shrapnel and spent some time in the old Christie St. hospital where a successful skin graft operation was performed. He was a member of the 120, Canadian Legion. He leaves his brother Frank with whom he made his home. Also brothers Jesse and Albert of the Ballinafad community. He leaves his sister Mrs. R. Sadler and two sisters, Mrs. R. Sadler in Neesagaweya and for the next six years in schools in the Caledon area. He was a member of the star football team which won championship honours.

He later taught at Yonhill, then in Minnetonka, Minn. and Portage la Prairie, Manitoba. He was selected by the Dept. of Education to head the Transcona school which, with 40 rooms, was of record size and he held that post until 1938. He returned to Ontario to be Cookstown principal.

He made his home in Brampton from 1948 until 1960 when he moved to Georgetown where his son is vice-principal at Georgetown High School.

His wife, Margaret McLaren, whom he married in 1905 died five years ago. He leaves his son, A. McLaren Baxter, 53 King St. E., Georgetown, two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Hyde (Verna) and Mrs. D. A. Elliott (Odell) Toronto; a sister, Mrs. Edith Lindsay, Orangeville; grandchildren Blake Baxter, Georgetown, Duncan Baxter, Kitchener, William Richard, Marilyn, Joan and Robert Hyde, Toronto; and two great-grandchildren, Larry and Lorene Baxter, Kitchener.

Rev. Howard Pentland conducted the funeral service on Tuesday at the McKillop Funeral Home, Brampton with interment in the 4th Line Cemetery, Caledon. Among floral tributes was one from the 1918 graduating class at Transcona.
