Looks Like An Interesting Summer Ahead ... and Fashionable

ST. ANDREW'S UNITED CHURCH Women offered the fashion-conscious a peek at apparel that will brighten the summer of '64 at their fashion show Wednesday in Wigglesworth Auditorium. Just as eye-catching as the new frocks were the models' hair-styles. Above, hair-stylist Judy Sproule of Christell's gives the final touch to Mrs. Bernice Marks' coiffure.

NOTHING DRAWS the coos and ahhs from a fashion show audience like a bridal gown and this one was no exception. Just as attractive as the finery the models is Jeanette Smith. The fashions were from Cotton Brothers.

English Grandmother Comes to Attend Glen Williams Vows

Among guests at the Boottobson wedding on April 25th was the bride's 84-year-old grandmother, Mrs. E. Boottobson who made the trip from England especially to attend the wedding.

Rev. Ronald Stubble officiated at the wedding in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams when Margaret Boottobson became the bride of Martin Robert Boottobson. The bride, an employee of Bellville Land Aircraft, SPAR Division, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boottobson, Glen Williams. The groom, also a Bellville Land employee, is the son of Mrs. Wilhelm Boottobson of Weston and the late Mr. Boottobson.

Standards of white snapdragons and gold chrysanthemums decorated the church for the 3 o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Reg Williams was organist and Mrs. Don Hancock sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride wore a full length gown with bouffant skirt of nylon Organza with a tier of French lace gathered at front and back with a rose of mateline. The bodice of French lace had a scalloped bateau neckline, the lace encrusted with Mother of Pearl sequins and seed pearls. Long lily point sleeves were of French lace and the headpiece was of Mother of Pearl covered leaves and nylon bows trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a butterfly French illusion veil and carried a crested bouquet of orange delight roses mixed with light blue and ribbon streamers.

The bride's cousin, Miss Jean Boottobson, was maid of honor and Miss Anne Dorsey, Weston, was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of deep peach embossed on pink matelasse with full gathered skirts and fitted jackets with V neckline. They wore wedding band headpieces and shoes of matching peau de soie and carried French bouquets of white carnations and orange delight roses. The groom's niece, Miss Barbara Gillwald, was flower girl. She wore mint green nylon organza over taffeta, full skirted with large scalloped collar appliqued with a daisy motif, a headpiece of flowers and carried a basket of Pinocchio mums.

The groom's brother, Rudi Boottobson, was the groomsmen and ushers were the bride's brother, Lawrence Boottobson and the groom's brother-in-law, Eckhard Gillwald, Weston.

At a reception at the Surf Restaurant, Streetsville, the bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with matching jacket with 3/4 length sleeves, beige accessories and a corsage of deep rose carnations. The groom's mother, who recently came from Germany, wore a chocolate brown brocade dress and yellow carnation corsage.

Guests attended from Cleveland, Ohio, Byram, Connecticut, Parry Sound, Hamilton, Toronto and Ottawa.

For a honeymoon trip the bride wore a blue boucle woolen suit, white accessories and gardenia corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Boottobson will live at 70 East Lorris Drive, Rexdale.

Can't Get Mayor to Meeting is Complaint

Asking what action council got the facts and will prove them later on" said the councillor.

He had intended to discuss the matter at a committee meeting last week, he said — "but the mayor left the meeting at 7:45 to watch a hockey game. As soon as I can get the mayor to attend a meeting I'll settle this."

"That's the way council business is being carried on" he added.

When Mayor Gibbons asked if Cr. Powers had not stated this would not be discussed at the committee meeting, the councillor denied it.

"What I said was that if you were going to leave there was no use discussing it" said Cr. Powers.
