700 Made It A Sell-Out - Was Auditorium's Biggest Draw

They hung the "Sold Out" sign on the door at the high school auditorium Wednesday night after 700 people saturated the seating capacity to see "Showcase '64" a music and drama night presented by the music department and drama group of the Georgetown District High School. The show was produced by Mike Peleschak, head of the drama group and the musical director was music department head, Dr. Charles Wilson. Holding the "Sold Out" sign with justified pride are Chris Tost of the costumes department, ticket convener Ann Hardy, and Judy McLellan of the properties department. Below, female members of the school orchestra discuss the show and crowd between the numbers. Left to right are Lynda Wood (soprano); Ellen Bell (flute); Charlene Sheard (French horn); and Frances Linton (clarinet).

Seven Town Smoke Eaters To Help Fight Pier Fire

Six Georgetown Fire Department men and a Provincial Mill fire-fighters are battling recurring blazes and rescuing smoke victims this week. It's all part of a Fire Marshall's Office Regional Training School program being held in Oakville.

The trainees are community and industrial firemen from all over Halton County. From Georgetown are Deputy Chief Will Green, Gord Ingle, Harold Bennett, Ace Bailey, Art Stamp and Bill Miller of the Fire Department and Dick Packer of the Provincial Mill brigade.

The classrooms are at three fire stations.

Close to fifty firefighters are registered for the five-day course which started Monday.

The course will be highlighted by a live fire demonstration tomorrow (Friday) at the West Pier on the King's Wharf dock.

The morning will see 1,500 gallons of oil and three drums of gasoline ignited and the student firemen will attempt to extinguish the flames using water fog.

The public is invited to witness this demonstration.

Tomorrow afternoon the course will close with an oral examination and the presentation of certificates to the successful candidates.

The school is designed to standardize the training of firefighting throughout the province.

Safety Patrollers Plan Ottawa Trip Next Week

Bob Barber of Park Public School, John Paris of Harrison and Kathy Holotuk of Kennedy are the school safety patrol members representing the Georgetown public schools at the Safety Jamboree in Ottawa next week.

Accompanied by traffic safety officer Cpl. Ted Scott the trio will leave by bus May 14 for the jamboree which runs from Thursday to Saturday.

While away the lucky patrol members will attend a circus as guests of the sponsoring Hamilton Automobile Club, visit the mint, archives, governor-general's residence and house of parliament as well as other points of interest.

Principals of the schools involved and the school trustees select the patrollers to attend the jamboree. One stipulation is a grade mark of better than 75%.

Minimum Wage Extended Throughout Ontario

Last year, Minimum Wage legislation was introduced in the Toronto-Hamilton-Oshawa industrial area. It proved highly successful, and as a result, I am pleased to announce an early extension of it throughout the entire Province beginning on June 29. I ask you now to read the following highlights carefully to establish exactly how this vital and progressive piece of legislation will benefit you.

H. L. Rowntree

HON. H. L. ROWNTREE, O.C.
Minister of Labour

Reduced to its simplest terms, the new Minimum Wage Orders, implemented and enforced by your Ontario Department of Labour, are designed to protect every working man and woman in the Province from exploitation, and set a minimum wage of $1.00 an hour ($1.25 in the construction industry).

The Orders, now in effect in the Toronto-Hamilton-Oshawa "horseshoe", will be extended throughout the entire Province on June 29. However, so that employers will have sufficient time to adjust to and absorb the higher rates, the Orders must be carried out in stages. Briefly, here's how your Ontario Department of Labour plans to go about it. The Province will be divided into two Zones. Zone 1 takes in the more heavily populated and industrialized areas and centres. In this Zone, the $1.00 Minimum Wage will be achieved not later than March of next year. In Zone 2, covering the remainder of the Province, the wage will be achieved by December of next year.

In the Construction Industry, the Minimum Wage of $1.25 an hour will be reached in the same manner in both Zones.

The map and salary boxes on this page show the two zones, and the salary increases scheduled in both.

SPECIAL GROUPS

The General Minimum Wage Order does not apply to: Registered apprentices; camp counsellors or students employed in certain recreational programs; apartment house janitors who live in; real estate and insurance salesmen and saleswomen who determine their own hours; professional persons and teachers; domestic servants; farm labourers.

Special rates (50¢ in Zone I and 75¢ in Zone 2) apply in the following cases: A student who does not work more than 28 hours a week; a seasonal worker processing perishable fruits and vegetables who does not work more than 16 weeks in a year.

Special rates (50¢ in Zone I and 50¢ in Zone 2) apply in the following cases: Delivery boys, messengers, news-vendors, pinsetters, caddies who are under 18 years of age.

*In both special rates categories, the Zone 1 rates will apply in Zone 2 on December 27, 1965.

EMPLOYERS NOTE

Where employees are being paid on a piece-work basis, if at least four-fifths of them are earning at least the minimum wage, you will be considered as complying with the Order.

Learner Rates are as follows: Where employees are on a piece-work basis, learners may be paid 20% less than the prescribed minimum rate for the first three months of employment, and 10% less for the second three months. In all other cases, learners may be paid 10% less than the prescribed minimum for first four months of employment. The Hotel and Restaurant Order establishes a special learner rate 10% lower than the prescribed minimum rate for the first month of employment.

Freestone - Davidson Wedding In St. George's Anglican

Two Smith and Stone employees were married on April 11 at a ceremony in St. George's Anglican Church performed by Rev. John McMullin.

Wedding principals were Doreen Isabelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson, 10 Academy Road and Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Freestone, R.R. 1, Georgetown. Bouquets of white snapdragons and carnations decorated the altar. George Dekker was organist.

The bridal gown of pseudo-sue had a high neckline, tapered sleeves and fitted bodice with piped detail at the waist with lace inserts and a very full skirt sweeping into a full train. Her bouffant veil was shoulder length attached to a crown of seed pearls. She wore the groom's gift, a matching set of pearls and earrings and carried a cascade of miniature white carnations and red roses.

Mrs. Ken Moore, the groom's sister, was matron of honour and Miss Susan Collier, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid. They wore powder blue silk organza dresses with beaded skirts and matching flower

She was predeceased by three sons in childhood, a sister Mrs. Annie Shepherd and brothers Robert and John, the latter just one month ago.

Rev. Kelvin Johnston conducted the funeral service on Saturday at the David A. McClure Funeral Home, Brampton and interment was in the Glen Williams Cemetery. Six nephews were pallbearers, Rev. Moody of Glen Williams, Gerald Moody, Hagersville, Glen Moody, Halesbury, Stewart Graham and William Moody, Brampton. Ladies of the W.A. of Eden Church were flower bearers with grandsons Grant and Bob Casley, and Clarence Shepherd.

Explain Furnishings to Young Church People

The Messengers and Explorers held their meeting on Sunday afternoon in the basement with ten Messengers and eight Explorers present and one mother, Mrs. Rentenaar, along with leaders Mrs. John Bird and Mrs. John McNabb.

The Messengers continued their study of India. Mrs. George Wilson told the story. Scripture read by Ann McClure. Prayer by Barbara Brownridge, offering received by Karen Wickson, then all played a game with coloured marbles in a bowl called rescue the Rajah (who is an Indian prince). Closing prayer by Joanne Wilson. For the Explorers the new Study for Worship was "Worship in My Church." The usual order of service was examined and divided into four categories of worship, praise, prayer, Scripture messages and presentation of offering.

"All creatures of our God and King" was the praise selection practiced. This is the oldest hymn written by St. Francis of Assisi in the year 1182. The Lord's treasury was divided into the various items covered by simple envelope of worship.
