Book Rotary's Holiday June Showing at Riviera

Those who didn't see the Rotary Club's Holiday show in its four performances at the high school now have an extra chance.

The show, which drew raves for its originality and standard of performance has been booked into the Norval Riviera on Thursday, June 4th.

Written by Anne Currie, Maureen Walker, Jim Dundie and Ralph Ursel, Holiday is a highly professional calibre. It uses a revue format of skits, music and jokes, is generally interspersed with local news and maintains a fast pace.

Director Ralph Ursel and choral director Bernard Shrubsole cannot be praised too highly for their work. The "Gander" number which opens the second act is alone enough to justify a return visit.

Ventured performers include Jean Hancock, Milres Armstrong, Sandra Greig, Joyce Van Leuwes, Ron Hunt, June Gosling, Ed Ursel, Ian Cass, Chris Fisher, Jim Carney, Bill Fisher, Jim Dundie, Edna Turnbull, Keith Duncan, Jim Meekison, Vera Macdonald.

Choral work in a folk song fantasy and the rousing English pub scene are two of the highlights.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Flabig, 45 Victoria Ave. have returned from a motor trip to Florida. They stayed a few days at Pompano Beach, visited Miami and St. Petersburg and many of the state's tourist attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bassett, 185 Main St. N. were accompanied by friends from Leamington, Mr. and Mrs. H. Powell on a motor trip south. They travelled to many parts of Florida.

Rev. and Mrs. John McMullin, 60 Guelph Street, left by plane Saturday for a three-week trip abroad. They were first visiting Paris, and will spend the balance of their time on a motor trip in Britain. Mr. McMullin's father, Archdeacon Charles Phillips serving the St. George's Anglican parish in their absence, while Mrs. Phillips is also visiting with her grandchildren.

hockey pool which was won by Tom Fendley of Toronto. Prizes in the euchre were won by Mrs. Walter Fendley, of Brampton, high score for ladies and Mrs. Tom Fendley, Toronto, ladies second high. Men's high score was Ernie Pearce of Georgetown and second high was Walter Fendley, Brampton. Ladies low was Mrs. Pat Clark of Toronto and Men's low was Tom Fendley, Toronto. Travelling prizes were won by Mrs. Jim Fendley, Brampton, and Walter Fendley, Brampton. Door prizes were won by Paul Fendley, Norval, and Mrs. Pat Clark, Toronto. The enjoyable evening ended with lunch and a social time.

On Sunday, May 3rd, the Fendley reunion committee met at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Fendley, Norval, to plan the activities for the reunion which will be held in June. Lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Ballinafad Church Has Anniversary - Its 86th

On Sunday, the Ballinafad congregation observed the 86th Anniversary of their church. Both morning and evening services were well attended. Mr. Fleming exchanged pulpits in the morning with Rev. W. G. Wilkinson of Carleton Place. A very appropriate sermon, "The Church in the World," relating some of the history of the churches in this community and also some of the many changes that have taken place through the years. The Junior Choir sang the anthem "Praise in Nature" and the selection from the Senior Choir was a trio by Mrs. F. J. Shortall, Mrs. E. McEnery and Mrs. N. Sinclair. At the evening service Mr. Fleming was assisted by Rev. T. R. Maxwell of Erin Presbyterian Church and the guest soloist was Mr. P. O'Sullivan, also of Erin. The Senior Choir sang the anthem "Come Unto Me" and Mrs. Black, the organist, was assisted by Ann Shortall at the piano before and after the evening service.
