

Choose Area Woman President At County Institute Annual

The 33rd annual of Halton District Women's Institute, was held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, on Wednesday, May 20th, 1964, at 8:30 a.m. with president Miss Charlotte Turner opening the meeting with a few remarks, after which all repeated the Mary Stewart collect in unison.

Mrs. W. McDonald of the Home Branch of Bannockburn, gave the address of welcome, and Rev. A. McKenna of Knox Church later expressed greetings and good wishes to the ladies.

Secretary-treasurer Mrs. C. Sinclair read the minutes of 1963 annual at Limehouse and presented a gratifying treasurer's report of a year well spent. Mrs. Bob Alexander gave the auditor's report, and the standing committee convenors presented theirs.

The installation of the directors for 1964-65 was conducted by Mrs. V. Norris, followed by a piano duet by Mrs. C. Coles and Mrs. M. McCullough.

A letter of thanks was read from Miss Ruth Coles of Acton, winner of the 1963 burary provided by Halton Women's Institute annually to a deserving student.

President Miss Turner reviewed the work accomplished during her two-year term of office, expressing her pleasure at the support given her and friendships made. She was later in the day presented with her District Past President's pin by Mrs. J. McEnery, president-elect.

Mrs. Kathleen Coason, Home Economist, read the Jr. Institute representatives' report, and told of the short courses to be provided this coming year by the department.

Mrs. John Bird read the music festival report. Mrs. Welma Norris, provincial board director from this area, presented a most encouraging outline of the many projects being undertaken by the county women.

A most impressive 'In Memoriam' was conducted by the Acton branch when representatives of four branches laid roses in a bouquet to the memory of deceased members. Soft music and a period of silence preceded a hymn.

Before adjournment for lunch, the winners of the baking contest were announced by the judges Mrs. George Young and Mrs. K. Coason. First prize, Mrs. Jack Irving, Scotch Block; 2nd prize, Mrs. Kennedy, Dublin; honorable mention, Mrs. O'Connor, Home by. Mumms—1st prize, Mrs. W. Britton, Dublin; 2nd prize, Mrs. Don Brown, Ballinlad; honorable mention, Mrs. C. Coles, Bannockburn.

A lunch was provided by the Ladies Aid at noon and the afternoon session opened with the singing of the hymns for All Nations. Roll call was answered by each branch presenting their 'Pennies for Friendship' collection to help support A.C.W.W.

Mrs. Austin Zoeller, Public Relations Officer of F.W.I., as special speaker, was introduced by Mrs. V. Norris and gave a most enlightening talk on many aspects of Institute work, particularly on the new office of public relations, and mentioning the Canada Centennial project to make Canada lovelier. The triennial conference will be held in Ireland in 1965.

Community singing, led by Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, provided a pleasant change before the election of officers. Mrs. John Hopkins of Scotch Block presented the report of the nominating committee which was accepted without further nominations as follows:—

Hon. President, Miss Charlotte Turner; president, Mrs. Jessa McEnery; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. McCarron; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. W. Webb; Federated Representative, Mrs. V. Norris; alternate, Mrs. Harry Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Campbell Sinclair.

Convenors—Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. Norman Langton; Citizenship and Education, Mrs. W. J. Cleave; Home Economics and Health, Mrs. Mansell Nellis; Public Relations Representative, Mrs. Frank Peck; Historical Research and Current Events, Mrs. Herb Reid; Resolutions, Mrs. Frank Smith; Burary, Mrs. Guy Bussell; Music Festival Rep., Mrs. James Carney; Federation of Agriculture Rep., Mrs. Roy Currie; Curator, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford.

Five branches reported sponsoring a child, 1 German, 2 Chinese, 1 Tunisian, 1 Korean, showing pictures and letters from these adopted children. Many felt it a most rewarding work. After much discussion, the resolution concerning water conservation was sent on to the area, and it was decided that the burary committee meet with the executive to decide on qualifications by students.

Mrs. J. McEnery and Mrs.

Teacher Entertains Pupils From Palermo, Day on Farm

C. Turner were appointed delegates to area convention in Guelph in the fall. An invitation to hold the annual next year in St. David's Presbyterian Church was accepted.

Mrs. George Ironside of Silver Wood extended the courtesies and the meeting adjourned with the singing of God Save the Queen.

Miss Margaret Ball, entertained the pupils of Grades 1 and 2 of Palermo Public School at her home on the eighth line on Victoria Day.

During the day they enjoyed a hike through the woods and in the evening they watched the cows being milked, which was quite an experience for some of the small children. Following their day of exploring, a delicious lunch was served in picnic style which ended a delightful day for all.

The North Trifalgar Echo Club held a euchre party on Saturday night, May 23, at the Centre with 12 tables in play. The euchre prizes were won by the following: Mrs. Ralph Featherstone, Mrs. Tebeycka, Mrs. Kerry Jopson, Mrs. Fran Miller (playing as a man), Clara Wilson and Buck Burton. Two lucky draws were held, with the lucky ladies being Mrs. Row Kinghott, a pair of bath towels and Mrs. Howard Copeland, a bottle of perfume. Hair cream, gum, life savers and recipe folders were also given out to all attending. Lunch was served by Mrs. Kerry Jopson and Mrs. Jim Hamilton. The next euchre will be on June 20.
