LEGION NOTES . . . . . by Don Platt

Dart Gals are too Good Decide on Split Tournaments

It has finally happened - other branches of the Ladies Auxiliary will no longer play competitive darts with our Branch 120 gals. For some time now the prizes at dart tournaments have been more like gifts to the ladies of Branch 120. No other branch could win a thing. Last Saturday's zone tournament was organized on a sort of share-the-wealth basis, whereby the teams were made up of ladies from various branches in an attempt to spread Georgetown a bit thinner.

This split-up method of organizing tournaments will be used until, by association, the Georgetown champs have installed some of their dynamic abilities into the gals from other branches. When this happens dart tournaments will revert to the old style, but with it is hoped, more competition from the other branches. Our gals have become teachers.

The turn-out for Saturday's tournament was a bit light, being composed only of Georgetown and Brampton, but for a new venture it was an average beginning.

Top team prizes went to Dot Day, Kay Hue, Cecile Finkline and Phyllis Windley. Runners-up were Jan Zimmerman, Myrt Zill, Greta Stoddard and Marg Hedley. In the doubles department Wilma Hube and Dorothy Lundy took first place with second going to Rachel

MEN'S ZONE GOLF

Zone B's divot-diggers will get their yearly airing on Saturday, June 13 when they proceeded to give a face-lifting to Bud Vasey and Wee Brampton the North Halton Golf and Country Club fairways. As holders of the Zone Trophy, Branch 120 is expected to put forth a concerted effort to keep the silverware sitting where it is.

In the absence of motorized transport at the club this year Alf Sykes and Harold Schenk will be forced to walk between swipes at the ball unless they come up with something new. We would suggest a rickshaw with a strong cooling but, preparation poses a problem. They both have quite strong legs.

A hat has been placed on the bulletin board for the names of those wishing to play and it is already filling fast. As always it will be the first names that will play in the event that there are too many. Haste is advised.

SHUFFLEBOARD

The Shuffleboard League held their end-of-season presentation and all round thrash last Saturday. All the ladies were making the upstairs Legion hall mildly with visibility reduced to zero in flying darts. The "Do" was held at the Armory.

Champion team for the season was the Roy Smith team composed of Lorne Cross, H. Schenk, Doug Richardson, L. (Sharky) Gzozelle, Perc King, Bud Vasey and Wee Brampton (nom de plume).

GENERAL MEETING

The next general meeting will take place this evening at 8 p.m.

50-50 DRAW

Lucky winner - Calvin King. Ticket seller - Bob Williams.

BOWLING

Two Branch 120 teams qualified for the Ladies Auxiliary Regional Bowling Tournament which will take place in Toronto on Saturday, May 30th. Let's hope the teams don't have too much trouble struggling home with all the loot.

PLAQUE PRESENTATION

A joint social evening with the Ladies Auxiliary and the Men's Executive will be held on June 18. The primary purpose of the get-together will be the presentation of a plaque to Miss Carolyn Hallitt, to commemorate her winning of a Scholarship through the Ladies Auxiliary Bursary Fund.

PICNIC

Although it may seem a long way off it is merely six weeks to the ladies picnic. This early mention is to give all ladies a chance to advise the executive regarding the number and ages of children that will be coming. As gifts and prizes are provided for the young fry this information is essential. The date for the picnic is Monday, July 13.

Knudson Baffles Batters Bantams Bow In Winning

Big Steve Knudson, firebraked Georgetown Bantams to a brilliant 2 hit, 15 strikeout decision over Oakville No. 2 team in the opening game of the Halton County Baseball League, May 18. Steve was seldom in trouble, giving up three bases on balls and leaving only five runners on base.

Only on two occasions did Oakville batters hit the ball well. In both instances they were frustrated by alert outfield play. Most spectacular play was made in the seventh inning when Roger Little robbed Oakville's Robinson, of a home run when with the crack of the bat, Roger lifted the ball into deep center field, gloving the ball on the run.

The other good play was by Bob Bull, the left fielder, who trapped a hard line, preventing it from going for extra bases. Bob also contributed a two base hit to the attack.

The other offensive star was captain Bill Dwyer who stroked out two singles in three times at bat.

CHANGES IN SCHEDULE

Three of the Bantam home games have been switched from Sunday to Monday:

May 24th to May 25th: Waterdown vs. Georgetown

June 7th to June 8th: Milton vs. Georgetown

July 12th to July 13th: Brampton vs. Georgetown

Georgetown, May 25th, 1964: Georgetown edges Waterdown 2-1.

Line Score: 123456789
Georgetown 000000-143
Oakville 0001010x-263

Waterdown Batteries: Baynton, Walsh (7) and LeGish.

Georgetown Batteries: Collier and Peavoy. Extra base hits: Doubles - Roger Little (1) Georgetown. Offensive star: Captain Bill Dwyer, 2 hits in 3 turns at bat.

John Armour, Royal York Road, Toronto, scored a perfect ball-in-one at Georgetown Golf and Country Club Sunday - the ball went in on the fly.

Armour was playing in a foursome with Stuart Duncan, Terry Hay and Dwayne Hay when heaced the 137 yard par 3, 8th. It's the first ace recorded at the club this year and the fifth in the course's five year history.

It is also the first ace scored on that hole.

The instrument was a 7-iron. A hole-in-one is rare in itself but this one was particularly amazing in that it slammed directly into the cup. Most acers scored where the tee shot hits on the front of the green and rolls in.

Sun Scorcher, Scores Too Crichton-Chappel Winners

The golf scores were just as hot as the temperature at North Halton Golf and Country Club Saturday where a Scotch Two-ball produced some fantastic team totals.

Inez Crichton and Harv Chappel combined to card a 39, the lowest gross score registered on the day's play. The best net score was a 34 carded by Ruth Wallace and Jack Malcolm.

Second low gross winners were Dorothy Young and Bob Harris with a 40, and 2nd low net honours were earned by Verna Schenk and Don Curry.

Triple gross winners were Jean Chappel and Ted Worrell, and third net prizes went to Fran Baines and Syd Hardie.

Other categories and winners were: Closest to the hole on the 6th - Marjorie Gilmer; Most honest golfers - Yvette Chapman and Ernie Curry.

High score on the 7th - Irene Curry and Ray Owen; High score on the 2nd - Ann Timmins and Ernie Smith; Low score on the 8th - Liz Smith and Reg Broomhead.

The opening dance of the season was held Saturday evening with fifty couples attending. Music was by Ray Ryall's orchestra.

Build Good Road Record All-Stars at Home Sunday

Georgetown Midget All Stars stole their opening ball game of the season edging Waterdown 5-4 in Waterdown. Georgetown opened the scoring in the first inning on a single to Denmore, who scored on a triple to Phil Marzo. The All Stars added a run in the second inning on a triple by Gary Waller, scoring on the fielders' choice to Allstar Blair.

Waterdown came back in the second to score one run, and in the third inning added two more runs to take a 3-2 lead. Each team scored single runs in the fourth.

With darkness approaching Georgetown took their last bit. Wayne Denmore led off with a hit that looked like a sure double but was picked off on his slide into second. Phil Marzo singled and with the pitcher in possession of the ball stole second. This unnerved the pitcher enough that he threw the ball away into centre field on the following play trying to pick off the runner. Marzo streaked home to tie the ball game.

Ron Lane got a walk, Walter also drew a walk, Allstar Blair loaded the bases on an error to the second baseman. Jimmy Stamp laid down a perfect squeeze bunt and Lane slid in home with the winning run. That was the winning pitcher with Marzo and Denmore being big bats going two for three. Georgetown had 7 hits, 5 runs and Waterdown had 4 hits and four runs.

Georgetown came up with their second win Saturday night at Brampton when they knocked Brampton 7-3. Georgetown had a big first inning. Denmore opened with a talk, Brian Peavoy walked, Phil Marzo was hit by the pitcher to load the bases. Denmore and Peavoy scored on two successive passed balls. Blair walked, Paul Robinson singled to fill the bases again. Jan Riddall put the frosting on the cake by slamming a grand slam home run deep to left field.

The All Stars then coasted for seven innings adding a single run in the fifth on a single by Marzo and a double by Waller. Richard Lenz started on the mound and got credit for the win. Lenz and reliever Mike Tost struck out 12 Brampton batters and allowed only four scattered hits. Georgetown had 7 hits, 7 runs, 1 error, Brampton had 4 hits, 3 runs.

On Monday night the high flying Midgets travelled to Oakville and promptly fell flat on their faces. After two successive wins, they appeared to fight the ball. Oakville opened in the first inning scoring two runs on throwing error by the catcher Waller and three more in the second on two consecutive errors by short stop Marzo, and a single. Oakville got two more in the third and 4 in the 8th on seven errors by the All Stars. Georgetown bats collected only four hits. After Denmore's game opening triple, Georgetown managed only three scattered singles, two to Marzo and one to Robinson. The losing pitcher was Blair, relieved by Tost and Mike Dwyer, who altogether gave up five hits. Georgetown had 4 hits, 3 runs and 7 errors. Oakville had 5 hits, 11 runs and 3 errors.

BROKEN BATS: Coach Tracey Barrager will show off his team Sunday for the first time at home. Opposition is Burlington, team No. 1. Game time is 2 p.m. Tracey also trimmed his squad to fifteen men by sending two younger players back to the town league.

North Halton Men's Day Featured Points Contest

A par battle was on the agenda at men's day at the Leigh Bradbury, was also North Halton Golf and Country Club Thursday.

The day's big winner was Harry Little (1) Georgetown. Other winners were Harry Little (1) Georgetown, Eric Ross, Bob Waller, Frank Wallace, Ray extra points to golfers if a Dutchman, Ernie Smith, Ernie Birdie, par, or bogie was re-Shaw, Joe Louth and Ron Breen.
