FIRES 73 IN CHARITY TOURNEY

AMATEUR PTASHNIK SHOWS THE PROS

BOB PYASHNIK relaxes in a golf cart with Georgatown Golf and Country Club pro Max Foster and relates how he shot his 73 that won the Delwillon Day charity golf tourney here Monday over 134 other contestants. Plashnik, an amateur, bested golf professionals taking part, with the exception of North Halton pro Doug Bruton who aqualled Plashnik's card on his former home course. The day was sponsored by the Delwilton Carpet and Tile, Brampton and green fees were waived by the Georgetown Golf directors so that total proceeds would go to a home for retarded children.
