Institute Members And Families Picnic At Kelso Dam

The Women's Institute held their family picnic at Kelso Conservation Area. It was a beautiful day and Dad and the children were along too, so around sixty-five sat down to a wonderful pot-luck dinner of all kinds of goodies. A few more members and their hands came after dinner was over. The picnic was followed by the time the races and contests started. Convener Mrs. Ford Wickson had put out a jar for everyone to guess with Bruce McClure guessing the right amount (803 kernels). Both men and women tried putting macaroni into a plate on top of their heads with a knife and our President John Bird won for the ladies and the man was Gareth Thomas. The winners in the races were: girls 4 to 8 — Susan Alexander and Karen Wickson, boys 7 to 9 — Ken Austin and David Alexander, girls 10 to 12 — Janet Nurse and Grace Bird, boys 19 to 12 — Donald McClure, girls 12 and up — Nancy Hunter, Halloon Race — Clifford Hunter and Mrs. J. H. Hunter. Shoe kick, Ladies — Mrs. Bruce McClure and the man — Gareth Thomas. Bean Race throw — Grace Bird. Nail driving contest — Mrs. James Carney.

Following the races some of the children went swimming while the elders enjoyed going to the museum and seeing the many interesting antiques displayed in the barn. All in all it was a wonderful afternoon.

On Friday, July 3rd Gail Marie daughter of Mr and Mrs Bill Wilson celebrated her third birthday and entertained some little friends and relatives and all had a happy time.

Last week end Mrs. Fred Nurse, Mrs. R. J. Graham and Adrienne Nurse motored to Kapuskasing to visit Mr and Mrs Maurice Dixon.

Mr and Mrs Gareth Thomas of Wainwright Alberta are visiting Mr and Mrs Bruce McClure and family.

Miss Doreen Carney is at the Ontario Athletics training camp at Longford Mills for two weeks.

Jeffrey Nurse and a chum Larry Gardhouse of Milton left for the Calgary Stampede and expect to be away two weeks.

LEGION NOTES

Sunday, Monday are Picnic, Days, But Kids Will Remind You

A lack of activity on Branch 120's part and a lack of energy on this writer's part have combined to leave the 'Legion Notes' conspicuously vacant this week. A summer lethargy has pervaded the whole operation to a point where even the typewriter keys are reluctant to be pushed. It is hoped that this condition will shortly be replaced by the normal hum of activity but at the present time yours truly looks on activity as a dirty word.

PICNIC'S
Sunday, July 12 and Monday, July 13 are picnic days in Georgetown. The annual Branch picnic will take place at the swimming pool and the normal hum of activity followed by the Ladies Auxiliary at Terra Cotta on Monday. Don't forget, the kids want.

Married in First Baptist On Parents Silver Wedding

Miss Landa Lou Irwin chose her parents silver wedding anniversary as the date for her marriage on June 27 to James Robert Barclay. The ceremony, performed by Rev. Lloyd Whitt, took place in First Baptist Church at 3 o'clock with standards of white and yellow gladioli decorating the church. Mrs. Walter Townsend was organist and Mrs. Donald Hancock sang Marriage Hymn and O Perfect Love.

The bride wore a floor length wedding gown with a scalloped, rose lace overskirt and tulle tulle undergirt accented with rhinestones. She wore a shoulder length tulle illusion veil and carried a cascade bouquet of white poms and yellow roses.

Sharon Herbert, Wallaceburg, was her cousin's maid of honour. She wore a pale green chiffon and green tulle undergirt, skirt, a white organza ring headpiece and rayon veil, and carried a semi-cascade of white and yellow poms. The bride's sister Vickie Irwin and Heather Allen were bridesmaids, wearing yellow silk organza and white flowered overblouses. They carried semi-cascade bouquets of white poms. Marybeth Gleadall, 5-year-old cousin of the groom from Toronto, was flower girl. She wore a dotted Swiss eyelet dress, with green sash matching the maid of honour's gown and carried a white straw basket of white and yellow pom petals which she scattered down the aisle before the bride.

Mr. Irwin gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Bruce Fendley was groomsman and ushers were the bride's brother John Irwin, Toronto and her brother-in-law Ray Johnson. The bride's 7-year-old brother, Danny Irwin was ring bearer, and he carried the bride's ring on a satin pillow.

At a reception in the church parlour, the bride's mother wore a canly pink nub linen suit, with matching pink tulle overblouse, white accessories, a pink organza hat accented with straw crown with tulle ribbon and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a three-toned blue embroidered dress, tulle blue hat, white accessories and a corsage of white poms and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Barclay will live at 2 Cross St. He is employed with the Delta Craft firm and his wife with Beaumont Knitting Co., Glen Williams.

The bride's parents were married in Wallaceburg on the same day in 1930. Their attendants, Mrs. Jean Scherle, who is Mrs. Irwin's sister and Ernie Irwin, Mr. Irwin's brother were wedding guests. Among other guests were the bride's grandfather, James Irwin of Dresden, and others from Chatham, Tilbury, Windsor, Port Credit, Toronto, Peterboro and Georgetown, and district.
