ALL THE PEACHES WEREN'T IN THE PIES

House Tannenhof Reception Follows Wedding at Hornby

Pink and white chrysanthemums, carnations and peonies decorated St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby, on Sat., June 20, for the marriage of Lynda Dianne Learmont and David James Hoyce. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Learmont of R.R. 2, Hornby and the groom is the son of Mrs. Lydia Hoyce and the late Jack Hoyce of R.R. 1, Hornby. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James E. Maxwell and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Ernie Price.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a special length gown of white lace and tulle and three-quarter length sleeves. The skirt had folds of lace draped from the waist. The bodice had a scalloped neckline decorated with dusty seed pearls. Her shoulder-length scalloped veil was held by a headpiece of white artificial orchids and pearls. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom, covered with white carnations and centred by a pale mauve orchid.

Korrie Sue Learmont of Aurora, cousin of the bride, was maid of honour and Anita Learmont of Brampton, cousin of the bride and Valia Hoyce, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. The attendants were dressed in pink and white lace over crepe. Their headresses were pink wedding bands with scalloped veils of matching colour. They carried bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums and baby roses. The best man was Glenwright Hillock of Georgetown, and ushers were Craig Hoyce, a brother of the groom, and Tom Learmont, brother of the bride.

Mrs. George Learmont received for her daughter at the afternoon reception held at the House of Tannenhof, Huttenville. She chose a navy dress with three-quarter length coat with pink accessories and a corsage of deep red roses. HARLEY TO HALTON

WEEKLY OBSERVATIONS BY DR. HARRY HARLEY, M.P. FOR HALTON

THE THIRD ITEM on the priority list of legislation, the Local Arrangements with the provinces, has been debated for several days with little progress. The fourth item, the 12th Fishing Limit Bill, has passed the House of Commons.

THE FIFTH ITEM, the Student Loan Fund, is now before parliament. It is obvious that part from the Creditists, this measure will receive the full support of all parties. The Creditists object to it on the grounds that it invades Provincial rights in the field of education. I do not accept this criticism as it does not interfere with education but merely helps individual student to obtain financial help. A Province may "opt out" of the plan if it does not wish to participate.

THIS BILL SHOULD pass this week, and money be made available for this year's students. During the years of study students will have the interest paid by the Government and after the first six months after graduation, this interest does not have to be repaid. After this time he will begin to pay the further interest and the principal, over a period of five to ten years. The Government guarantees his loan from any bank of his choice and as well insures it so there will be no charge against his estate if the student should die after taking out the loan.

THE STUDENT MAY borrow up to $1,000 per year for a maximum of five years. To be eligible a student must have a satisfactory academic standard, the decision to be made by the educational authorities, not the Government. He must prove he actually needs the loan, as the Government is going to expend federal funds to pay his loan interest as he studies. He must be a Canadian citizen, or have resided in Canada for at least a year and intend to continue to reside here. The loans are for full-time students, as one of its main purposes is to encourage students who would otherwise take many years to finish their education on a part-time basis.

BOTH GRADUATE AND undergraduate studies are included. It can include any form of post-secondary school education such as university or technical institutions as may be designated by the Provinces. The student will receive approval from a provincially-designated educational body or its agent and at the present time I cannot say who this body will be for Ontario. The student will take a certificate of approval from this body to any bank from which he wishes to obtain his loan. The rate of interest on the loan is unknown at present but will be lower than the usual bank loan interest and in addition there will be no service charge added.

FOR THE FIRST year Parliament will provide $40 million for this purpose which would provide for a loan exceeding $500 to one out of every three students enrolled in university. The outstanding loans at the end of five years could be $200 million. There is no age limit in the plan. For those students who are minors under the age of 21 years neither endorsers nor parents are required to sign the loan. It will be the student's sole responsibility, guaranteed by the Federal Government. The cost of the programme in the Federal Government in actual cost, if all the quota is used, would be approximately $2 million the 1st year of operation.

I KNOW THAT post secondary school students and in fact all students and their parents in Halton will be interested in this legislation. It is designed to help those students who for financial reasons could not continue their studies. It is another step forward in legislation encouraging education and I hope it will be followed in the near future by a scholarship programme.
