

Lay Readers Substitute For Rector on Holidays

Bonnie, Paul and Tommy Fendley have returned from holidays spent with relatives near Sheraton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davidge and family, while there they visited Crystal Beach, Brock's Monument in Queenston Heights Park, Fort George and Niagara Falls.

Clarence Hunter of Chicago was in the village last week calling on relatives and friends. He spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunter and family at their cottage at Orr Lake, Muskoka.

Get well wishes are extended to Lt. Col. Gordon Brown, who is in hospital at Newmarket with extensive injuries as following a car accident.

Get well wishes are also extended to Mrs. Percy Leslie who is a patient in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital.

Lay readers have been taking the services at St. Paul's Anglican Church while Rev. Stubble is on his holidays. Mr. Tom Parry of Georgetown and Mr. J. L. Lambert, Principal of Georgetown High School, were the lay readers for the past two Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Carter held a family get-together on a Sunday afternoon recently. Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carter, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. M. Warwick and Leslie of Willowdale, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown and Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Casely.

Twenty-two of the neighbour children of Jacqueline and Stuart Gray held a lawn party at the home of Mrs. O. Carter and presented them with going away presents on Thursday afternoon July 30th.

and family have moved to Glen Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown have moved from the apartment at the home of Mrs. Wm. Townsend into the Barnhill cottage vacated by the Gray family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watson of Brampton on the arrival of a baby son, John, Charles. A grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Mae Watson of Brampton.

Private George Watson of Brampton is home on 3 weeks leave from the R.C.M. at Gagetown, New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Reed had an enjoyable holiday in July at Algonquin Park. They enjoyed a canoe trip into Opeongo Lake where they set up their camp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed, Christopher, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Willis, had a lovely car trip to Upper Canada Village and Ottawa over the holiday week-end.

Mrs. Marion Reed has returned from a trip through the province of Quebec with friends. She is now enjoying a trip with her friend Mrs. Smith to Prince Edward Island.

We are pleased to report that Norman Fendley is home from a stay in Western Hospital, Toronto, where he underwent tests. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. F. Woollett of the town line who is in the General Hospital, Toronto.

New Sports Organization Lays Plans For Glen

A giant step toward restoring sports in Glen Williams was taken Monday when the Glen Recreation Council was formed. The new group will promote a ball park in the community which has been without one for the past two seasons. During that period Glen Williams teams have been playing their ball out of the village.

The GRC's first job is finishing and maintaining the community diamond at the corner of the ninth line and the Glen Rd.

The executive is as follows: President, Bill Korzack, vice president Tom Haines, secretary Mrs. Donna Armstrong, treasurer, Fred Engleby; executive committee: Mrs. Vi Haines, Walter Hyde, George Sargent and one representative from each of the Glen Ball Clubs.

We are all sorry that Mrs. Percy Leslie is in a Toronto Hospital for treatments, but hope she can soon come home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bonner of Rockwood were guests at the McCarron-Sweeney wedding in Milton last Saturday.

The summer is slipping away, now we are into August and the harvest has begun and already we can notice the darkness creeping in earlier at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lawr and Jean are holidaying this week in the Huntsville district and will be visiting with the Flemings.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith and family spent the holiday week-end at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and family enjoyed a camping trip last week in the Parry Sound district.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Khuliff left recently for a three week holiday in Germany.
