Union Church Ceremony for Carberry-Anderson Vows

Rev. R. D. Duncan officiated at the double ring ceremony on Saturday, August 1st at 3:00 o'clock, in Union Presbyterian Church, when Betty Jean Anderson, Terra Colla, became the bride of Clarence Edward Carberry, R R 1, Malton. Standards and baskets of wild rose gladioli and white baby wrens decorated the church. Kenneth R. Harrison was the organist and accompanied Mrs. Harry Greig when she sang O Perfect Love, Wedding Prayer and the Wedding Hymn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson. The bride chose a gown of French taffeta fashioned with a scoop neckline, embellished with seed pearls, three quarter length sleeves and a tightly fitted bodice with French lace applique at the waistline, the skirt was full length and bell-shaped with a short train. She carried a cascade of briar-like pink roses and white stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Robert Howes, R R 3, Arthur, cousin of the bride was the matron of honour and the bridesmaids were Miss Edith McDonald, Terra Colla, cousin of the bride and Miss Donna Dolson, R R 4, Georgetown. All the attendants were gowned alike in pink organza with scoop necklines, short sleeves and tiered skirts with plain overskirts of the same material. They carried bouquets of feathered miniature two tone pink carnations. The triple tier elbow length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Roy Wright, R R 2, Mono Road, was the groomsmen, brother of the bride with Alvin Carberry, R R 2, Mono Road, were ushers. The wedding reception was held at Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, where Mrs. Anderson received in a silver-blue silk brocade gown with matching hat, bone accessories and a corsage of pink lily of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Carberry will live on his farm at R R 1, Malton. She will be on the teaching staff of Bramalea School. Guests were present from Georgetown, Brampton, Toronto, London, Kitchener, Orangeville, Malton and Terra Colla.

McCandless-Wilson Wedding In Hornby United Church

White chrysanthemums and pink gladi decorated the Hornby United Church for the July 25th ceremony that united Patricia (Patsy) Carolyn Wilson and Douglas Hetherington McCandless in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Wilson, R R 4, Milton, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Donald Ward, 22 Wesleyan Street, Georgetown, and the late Joseph McCandless. Rev. John C. Hill officiated at the double ring ceremony and organist Miss Marilyn Wrightworth accompanied Mrs. Harold G. Wilson who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Promise Me". The bride wore a full length white dress with long sleeved fitted lace bodice adorned with rhinestones, the full skirt of organza over taffeta is interspersed with lace and rhinestone appliques. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a corsage of white gardenias and stephanotis on a green leaf background. Mr. and Mrs. Carberry will live on his farm at R R 1, Malton. She will be on the teaching staff of Bramalea School. Guests were present from Georgetown, Brampton, Toronto, London, Kitchener, Orangeville, Malton and Terra Colla.

sin of the bride and Bill McCandless, brother of the groom were ushers.

Mrs. Roy J. Wilson received for her daughter at the reception held at Hornby United Church Hall, wearing a blue sheath dress with lace bodice and nylon over taffeta skirt and white accessories. Her carriage was of white rump. The Hall was decorated with white bells and streamers. The tables had white mums and pink carnation bouquets.

The bride chose a two piece pink linen dress and white accessories and a corsage of a mauve orchid for travelling.

The bride and groom are living at 31 Mill St., Georgetown. Mr. and Mrs. J. McCandless of Brampton, grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wellington Wilson of Georgetown, grandparents of the bride and Mr. J. E. Wilson Milton, grandfather of the bride were special guests. Other guests came from Stratford, Palnawick, Toronto, Brampton, Alton, Hamilton, Georgetown, Hornby and Milton. The bride works at the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce at Dufferin Plaza, Georgetown. The groom works at Orveda Engines.

The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Charles Austin.

On July 2nd Mrs. Y. Ledwidge had a miscellaneous shower at her home in Georgetown in honour of Patsy Wilson. On July 14th Hornby U.C.W. held a miscellaneous shower in honour of the bride and groom to be at the church hall. On July 28th Open House was held by the bride's mother Mrs. G. W. Wilson, grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Add Summers, great aunt of the bride poured tea. Misses Lynn, Karen and Gayle Webb and Joyce Wilson served the guests lunch.
