MEMORIALS

DICKENSON — In loving memory of a beloved son and brother, Private Stanley Dickenson, who was killed in action on August 28th, 1944. We were not there to see you die. To hold your hand or say goodbye. But we'll remember our whole life through. The last words we had with you. — Lovingly remembered by mother and father, brothers and sisters.

IRVY — In loving memory of Jack, who passed away August 28th, 1956. "Along the road to yesterday, That leads us straight to you, Are memories of the happy days. Together, we once knew. And with these treasured, memories We seem to have a way, Of wandering back to meet you On the road to yesterday." —Still sadly missed, Norm and Gladys.

IRVY — In loving memory of a dear husband, father, and grandfather, who passed away August 28th, 1956. "Beautiful memories are treasured ever Of happy days when we were together. There is a link death cannot sever. Love and remembrance last forever." —Ever remembered by family.

CARDS OF THANKS

FARROW — We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, beautiful floral offerings and donations to the Cancer Society received from our kind friends and neighbours during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved wife and mother. We especially thank the Rev. Ian Fleming for capably taking over in the absence of Rev. K. Johnston. Our thanks also to Drs. Martin and Panabaker, the Georgetown Hospital, Harrison Home and School, St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Churches Group, Georgetown Jueces, and Jim Jones and the staff at McClure's Funeral Home. In our sorrow we have much to be grateful for — all because of our thoughtful friends and neighbours — George, Wayne, Warren, George Jr., and Wendy Farrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Sarge.

GOWLAND — We wish to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy and condolences extended by our friends and neighbours during the recent illness and death of our beloved sister — The Wilson Family.

SHORTILL — We would like to express our appreciation to our friends and neighbours for the many acts of sympathy and condolences extended to us during the illness and death of a beloved wife and sister. Special thanks to Rev. I. M. Fleming, Dr. A. Thompson, C.V. Williams and B. J. Bebenek and the Hospital Nursing Staff of the Georgetown and District Hospital — E. B. Shortill and the Breen Family.

KLINGBELL — I would like to thank the ladies of Glen Williams for the lovely shower they held for me at the Glen School on Wednesday, August 19th. Thank you all very much. — Mrs. S. Klingbell, Glen Williams.
