

Rugger Beavers Pull Upset . . .

FOOTLESS "KICKING" BACKFIRED ON SARACENS

THE BIG RIGHT ARM holding this Toronto Saracens from making more yards belongs to Georgetown Beaver Nick Carter. Beavers put the stop on the Senior League club too many trying to save face by disparaging referee Len Lewis. Saracens a quarter to go and Georgetown leading the exhibition game 10-6.

Seek to Raise $5000 for Glen Lights and Bleachers

A group of Glen Williams residents are seeking $5,000 in donations for an ambitious project which will give residents of that district a recreation centre. The project is a recreation centre planned particularly for baseball in summer and skating in winter.

A five acre tract of land on the Davison farm which adjoins the creek as you enter the village from Georgetown has been donated. A great deal of volunteer labour, material and equipment has already been donated by residents to put the area in shape.

Now lights and bleachers are the target.

A letter has been sent to people in the Glen area and to many in Georgetown soliciting aid in the fund drive.

The drive is headed by a committee composed of Blake Inglis, George Sargent, Fred Engleby, William Korzak, Harold Inglis and Mrs. Donna Armstrong.

"The village of Glen Williams has always been, in a sense, an integral part of Georgetown over the last forty or fifty years insofar as sports are concerned," the letter says. "Similarly Georgetown has been and is the shopping and working area for Glen Williams people."

Swam On Doggedly Won Water Derby

Zayne, a 3 year old German Shepherd dog owned by Mrs. Dorothy John, 28 Raylawn Crescent, won the grand champion swim at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Zayne completed the swim in 3 minutes and seventh seconds to take first prize. The dog placed first last year in the Grand Shapsherd class and second in the grand championship.

The swim was contested by 14 dogs most of them Labrador and shepherds.

FOOTBALL TRAINING HANDY FOR SANDY

CONVERTING FROM Canadian football to Old Country style rugger has been too much of a problem for former-Georgetown and Ryerson Tech fullback Sandy Mackenzie. He's one of several ex-high school head-knockers getting first hand experience in the U.K. game as a member of the Georgetown Beavers who start their 1964 season Sunday in Oakville. The first home game is in the park Sunday, Sept. 14.

KINSMEN GIRLS SOFTBALL LEAGUE

JUNIOR LEAGUE Series 'B' Playoffs

Dairy Queen 4 — Superior Foods 3 in the first game of a two game total run series, with the winner to meet Murray Motors for the championship.

This is a real do or die series at its best, that belongs to no one as yet. The girls played ball at their very peak. The fielding was good and the pitching excellent, turning the game into a duel between Dairy Queen pitcher Isabel Lieder and Superior Foods pitcher Linda Paul.

At bat these girls were quite evenly matched — 1 run for 3 at bats. They both went the full six innings on the mound and even proved to be equals in runs tallied against them — 12 for Linda and 11 for Isabel.

As for game details, Linda found her mark hard to hit in the first inning and gave up 4 walks, followed by a timely two base hit by Brenda Hulme. She quickly changed pace though, and allowed only 1 hit in the 2nd, 2 in the 3rd, 1 in the 4th, and made the 5th inning her best with 3 up and 3 down.

This young lady obviously believes in all coaches having had nerves, as coach Jack Handy watched her walk the 1st batter in the 5th inning, strike out the 2nd, walk the 3rd and 4th, and strike out the 5th.

There they were, bases loaded, two away and her mound opponent at bat, Isabel Lieder. Isabel is the leader in the Home Run competition. Linda then burned three fast strikes across the plate, striking the batter out.

Net result: 1 happy pitcher, 1 slightly unhappy batter, two wrecked coaches and a cheering crowd.

A word here for Lorraine Ledwidge also. She is the fielder for Dairy Queen who leaped into the position of star of the game with a half-in half-out of the glove catch. This fly ball was caught at the end of the ball game with 2 away and 2 on base had Lorraine not been on her toes Superior Foods might have the one run advantage instead of the Queens.

This is baseball on the aerial level, so you'll have to sit in Thursday, Sept. 10 at 7 o'clock for the dramatic climax. There will be no predictions from this writer.

Jackson's 22 — Krulzers 10 in the exhibition game between Jackson's Bargain Centre and the Knette Krulzers. Jackson's soundly trounced the Krulzers 22 to 10. Homers were hit only by the Bargain Centre girls, Jill Cunningham, and Diane Holotluk, who had one each.

Murray's 8 — Beavers 3 The second exhibition game of the night saw Murray Motors win over Beaver Lumber by the small score of 8 to 3. The Beavers pitcher Patty Stamp had the only home run of the game. Lorraine Seckington was picked as the star on the strength of her excellent pitching and two nice triple base hits she came up with.

With only one week left in the race, Isabel Lieder of the Dairy Queens leads the big hitters with 10 homers. Her closest competitor is Superior Foods Linda Paul with 7. Right behind Linda are Lorraine Seckington of Murray Motors and Diane Holotluk of Jackson's Bargain Centre with 6 homers each. Holding their own with 5 are Judy Draper, Beavers, Sherry Herbert of Murray's, Beth Richardson of Murray's and Gail Young of the Dairy Queens.

SENIOR LEAGUE Series 'B' Playoffs

At the conclusion of 6 and a half innings of play, the score stood at: Frank Bryant's State Farm 13 and Leone's Hair Styling 10. The 7th inning will be finished prior to the beginning of the second game on Sept. 8. Then the 2nd game of the series will be played off to determine the team that will come up against the Delrex Fashions girls for the championship.

Leone's were the first to hold the lead in the game, 3 to 0 in the first inning, but they quickly gave it up in the 2nd, with the score standing at 4 to 3 for State Farm. The State Farm pitched held Leone's scoreless in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th innings, and added to their lead for the 13 to 10 score by the time ump Dean Taylor was forced to call it for darkness.

Pitching for Leone's was Ose Poulsen and she is to be congratulated on the excellent job she did, since she was a just minute replacement.

Dr. Carpentier Administers Injection of Razzle Dazzle

Something new was added to the local wrestling scene Wednesday night — Dick the Bulldog Brower adhered to the rules, for the first fifteen minutes at least — and Edouard Carpentier his opponent, wrestled the whole bout with real scientific wrestling holds reviving memories of pre-T.V. wrestling.

After the first fifteen minutes off for good behavior, Bulldog reverted to his usual charming self and ended the bout being disqualified by referee Tiger Tasker for landing a wild swing on his eye — the referee's that is. Needless to say the ref did not see eye to eye with this kind of going out, in fact he could hardly see at all.

Up until Carpentier's win by disqualification, it was one fall each, with the man from Paris, France showing a class and skill which had the audience clapping.

Bulldog won the first fall with a series of chokes and bar-room slugging, while Carpentier won the second fall with four or five flips in the air, landing each time on the prone figure of Dick the Bulldog.

The first bout between Joe "The Destroyer" Christie and Ray Vilner ended in a draw. "The Destroyer" really destroyed Vilner's leg, then proceeded to rub something in his eyes. Something he kept hidden from the referee. Despite the shouts of the crowd, and even a well intentioned confidential talk in the referee by an old man in the audience, Tiger Tasker never seemed to catch on that Christie had a concealed weapon.

This skulduggery irked the spectators to such a degree several wanted Christie to come out of the ring and fight them. Strangely enough when he did just this, the opponents had melted away.

With the tag team match the master showmen appeared, the Scuffling Hillbillies teamed with Lil Abner overall and black felt hair, encountered "Mr. Irresistible" himself, Sweet Daddy Kiki, and Duke Noble. With his strawberry blonde hair, which may owe a little to Miss Clairol, and his randy strip shorts and high white kid boots Sweet Daddy did look sweet.

However the bare feet and fancy acrobatics of the Hillbillies Rip and Chuck, overpowered the glamour boys and won two out of three falls.

The Hillbillies treated the duo like "revenge men", then did the twist, and a double-de, when they were awarded the victory.

Wednesday, September 16th will see another card of gladiators in the Arena.

Electric water heating, double century claims provides plenty of hot water. The "Cascada 20" unit will supply hot water 6 times as fast as average low diamonds. Red Seal wiring systems on loan. Call YOUR HYDRO.

Popiel at Blackhawk Camp Started Working Out Tues.

Paul Popiel of Georgetown is one of 28 players who began workouts Tuesday at St. Catharines with the Chicago Black Hawks in competition for one of 18 jobs.

Popiel, a product of the Georgetown minor hockey organization, played Junior A hockey with St. Catharines, starred with St. Louis Braves of the Central-Pro League last year. He has also had a stint with the Buffalo Bisons of the American League.

The biggest chances could be on defense. The Hawks have added Doug Mohs and Matt Louis, Dennis Hull from St. Ravlich of Boston, John Mizuk of Detroit and Ed Van Impe from their Buffalo farm team. Back for another year on defense are Pierre Pilote, Al MacNeil, Wayne Hillman and Elmer Vasko.

Centerman Phil Esposito, Bill Hay and Stan Mikita will be returning and Fred Stanfield from the Junior St. Catharines Black Hawks and Ray Cullen of St. Louis will be trying for centre berths.

Bobby Hull will be there too, and trying for the other three left wing openings are John Breenneman, Fred Evans and Jack Stanfield from St. Louis, Dennis Hull from St. Catharines and Doug Robinson from Buffalo.

League, Play-Off Champs Record For Hornby Girls

Hornby girls captured the Halton Rural Ladies Softball League crown in the most decisive fashion last week when they completed a three game sweep of their best of five final with Omagh.

An 11.7 coop Thursday cinched the playoff.

Marie Murcar went the distance for the winners in picking up the win. Omagh's Marilyn Withnel and Wendy Hardy shared the throwing for the losers. Omagh at one time held a four run lead.

The champions are coached and managed by Earl McDowell.

The title was won last year by Glen Williams girls who were eliminated by Hornby this year in the semi-finals.

Hornby made it a double triumph this year coping both the shield as league champs, and the playoff title.

Only one homer was hit in the game. State Farm's Clary Hydevaate takes credit for it. This gives her a slight edge in the Home Run Queen competition.
