Cars, Truck in Two Accidents on Highway
Sarah T. Layton, 18 Galley Dr., suffered a sore neck and back when her 1961 Volkswagen was hit from behind while she was about to make left turn off Guelph St. Thursday.
Police said the Layton car was westbound on Guelph St. when struck from behind by a 1964 Chev Belair driven by William Grant McMurdo, 7 Young St. A police report said Mrs. Layton stopped in the westbound lane opposite Delrex Blvd. because a delivery truck was about to pull onto the highway.
The Volkswagen received an estimate $400 damage, and the McMurdo car an estimated $50 damage.
Constable Harry Liberty investigated the accident which happened at 4.45 p.m.
There were no injuries when vehicles driven by Reginald H. Bracken and Wladyslaw Popiel collided at the John-Guelph intersection Tuesday morning.
According to the investigating officer, Cat. Harry Liberty, Bracken, of Inglewood, had allowed a line of traffic to pass before starting onto Guelph St. from the John St. side. He apparently didn't see the oncoming truck driven by Popiel who lives at 194 Maple Ave. E. Damage was placed at $150 to the Bracken car, a 1964 Chev, and just $10 to the truck owned by United Gas.

This one happened shortly after 10 a.m.
