REBS DRAW THEIR ARMOUR, WORKOUTS STARTED

THE GEORGETOWN high school senior football team, the Rebels, drew their equipment this week and started working out right away. They're first exhibition game is just a week away. A surprise starter with the Rebs will be Jim Atkinson here being fitted with shoulder harness by head coach, Lyn McLaren and rangy Rebend Jeff Nurse (right) Atkinson and Jack Heppas were two pleasant surprises for Coach McLaren at the first workout. Neither was expected to return this season.

Expects Eight from '63 To Form Junior "C" Core

Scotty Patterson, president said, "This group produced the hockey out of town Jim Blair of the Junior C Beavers hockey Ontario champs for the past and Terry Lane are at Oakville club, told The Herald Monday three years in a row. Hesper Al Blair is at Niagara Falls, he expects eight of last year's er. Preston and Elms. And Mike Cummins has shifted to Junior B club will return to now Orangeville's got Lou Burlington Wayne Davison is from the nucleus of this year's Fontaine coaching them. I'll back with St. Catharines, Jan entry, but even with so much to be happy if we win half of our Junior B experience in the games."

Georgetown Beavers will be grouped with Orangeville, New Hamburg, Preston, Hespeler, and Milton.

The OHA is pondering interlocking games between this division and Western Ontario clubs including Simcoe, Paris, Bramford, Dundas, Walkerton, and possibly Hapover. This is one of the points that will be mullied over at the league meeting in a couple of weeks.

One of the 1963 Beavers who will be among the missing this term is Jack Gudgeon, an all star last season and the Beaver's scoring leader. Gudgeon worked out in front of the St. Thomas brass a couple of weeks ago and impressed them enough to earn a berth with that Junior B club.

Telegram Award To Janet Finnie

Halton's 1964 Dairy Princess, Janette Finnie of Hornby, competed for the Ontario Dairy Princess title at the C.N.E.

In the preliminary round Janet lost a very close decision to last year's runner-up in the Ontario Dairy Princess Competition and the girl who this year went on to win the Ontario title.

Miss Finnie, however, did win the Telegram Award, which is given to the girl with the highest score in the competition from the ten Western Ontario counties.

His signing here brings to eight the number of George Armstrong and William Kortown youths playing Junior zack.

Drivers Escape Injury When Race Karts Collide

"This is the worst I've seen any racing go-karts smashed up," North Halton Kart Club official Al Ingles told The Herald last week after two racing karts collided in a spectacular accident during one of the semi-final events at the club's Limehouse track Wednesday night.

The collision, the third accident in the past four weeks of kart races there, happened during a Class 3 race, and involved drivers Don Nixon and Norm Shea. Shea was making his return to the track after flipping his kart the week before.

The crash developed when Nixon's machine went into a spin while coming out of a turn. It was sitting sideways on the track when Shea ploughed into it. Neither driver was injured.

Nixon had won the Class 3 heat Keith Hunter captured the semi-final, and Wayne Rapal Rob Stephenson pushed his kart to a win in the

BEAVERS TOPPLE OAKS FIGHTING IRISH NEXT

Georgetown Rugger Beavers was he who put a great rush fought hard to come up with a 16-9 victory over the Oakville squad in the Central League opener. After a very successful first season in the Northern League, Beavers moved up to the Central League this year and if the first game is any kind of criterion the competition is going to be much tighter and the local boys are going to have to put out their strongest team and top effort in every game.

In perfect playing conditions, Beavers kicked off to Oakville and immediately had to go on the defensive as Oakville mounted several strong attacks. With the play moving into Oakville territory after some good pitches by the forwards, notably Nick Carter and Keith Reay Roger Newman took a quick pass from Gord Lee and after breaking two tackles gave Beavers first blood. Captain Trevor Sampson made sure of the extra points and Beavers led 5-0.

Oakville recovered from this setback and soon had the Beavers deep in their own end of the field. On a fast back field movement and some poor tackling by Beavers the Oakville winger went over to give them their first points of the game. The convert attempt went wide as the score remained 5-3 for Beavers. When play settled down again Beavers continued to press and with the ball moving right out the hunter from a distance will line from scrimmage. Jerry use part of the county as a trial area.

The Department is proposing to issue a numbered patch with each hunting license issued. The patch would bear a number which would be made to correspond with the hunter's name. The figures would be large enough to read easily at a short distance, so anyone wishing to do so would be able to learn the hunter's name on furnishing the authorities with his number.

As the Department issues nearly half a million hunting licenses, and the introduction of the patches would be rather complicated, the plan will not be put into effect this year.

Attendance up 1000 Swim Pool Ends Season

The Georgetown Community Swimming Pool gates clicked shut Saturday and won't open to the public until June of next year.

Pool manager Don Gosling announced the end of swimming at the pool Monday. It has been the pool's most successful season.

This summer 18,467 admissions were recorded at the pool, about a thousand more than last season. Of that total, 3,231 were adults.

The swimming courses were taken advantage of by some 600 children.

Ball Club Raises $600 For Lights

Glen William softball club is on the way to its $5,000 objective in a fund drive to put floodlights and bleachers in a new park being created in the village.

Over $600 was raised in the first week. Letters have been sent to district residents enlisting their aid and personal calls are being made by a canvass committee.

The new park is on a five-acre tract of land on the Davlann farm.

The committee comprises Walter Hyde, Mrs. Tom Haines, Blake Inglis, George Sargent, Fred Engleby, Mrs. Donna right the number of George Armstrong and William Kortown youths playing Junior zack.
