Science Teaching Explained in Speech

Silverwood Women's Institute met at Mrs. Fred Campbell's for their opening meeting of the fall season.

The president, Mrs. Burt provided and Mrs. Scott 'sub' secretary took over for Mrs. Ironside who is recuperating from a broken ankle.

The roll call was answered by a thumbnail sketch of 'our first school teacher.' The answers were amusing and interesting. The business session was short because Mr. Donald Lawson was invited to speak to the group. Many of the members already knew Donald because he came from Stewarttown. He is now a science teacher at Beaulieu School. His remarks were to the point. He explained the care of subjects the students must take, then add special courses necessary to fit them for the vocation of their choice. Interested parents and good teachers help students build confidence and modest pride in their ability.

Several questions concerning the new ideas in teaching were answered by Mr. Lawson. He brought along objects from his science room — a frog, snake and lobster, and explained several interesting points of each. Many of the group expressed the wish that they could be students again with such a dedicated teacher.

The meeting closed with a social half hour.

Saturday night's minimum was 34 degrees and tender plants were nipped.
