Trouten Returns to Sing For Hospital Auxiliary

Well known local talent will pool their efforts to help raise money for the Georgetown Hospital Auxiliary, when they appear in a variety show, Friday night at the High School.

Mrs. F. Buchanan, the organizing force behind the Musical, has enlisted help from many sources. Mike Peleschak, the high school teacher who revived the school Drama Club, is directing the production, while Ralph Ursel is the accompanist, and Chris Fisher will supervise the lighting and staging.

As in the past, The Georgetown clubs will operate a booth at the local Fall Fair for the purpose of selling refreshments, home-made baked goods and Guppies.

Steamer Emerson will MC the show, as he presents the Barbershoppers, and quartette, Sandra Greig, Tom Trouten, the Koppikats, and the High School Band.

Ed Peters' Brother Dies In Huntsville Hospital

Funeral service for Harold Herbert Peters, 62, took place in Toronto on September 12 at the Turner & Porter Funeral Home. He was the brother of Ed Peters, 31 Byron St.

A Toronto native, Mr. Peters lived most of his life in Toronto and Tullamore. He moved to Fern Glen near Huntsville a few years ago.

He leaves a daughter Aina, Mrs. Brian Heatherington, his brother Ed and a sister Mrs. Ethel Weeks of Toronto.

Rev. Robert Wilson of Dovecourt Baptist Church conducted the funeral service and interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery.

EXPANSIVE MESSAGE SERVICE - TO BRAMPTON

Maurice Mellor, R.M. who has operated a message clinic at his home, 9 Cleaveland Dr. for the past two years, is extending his service to Brampton.

Last week, Mr. Mellor opened an office at 74 Main St. N. in Brampton, above Silver's. He will, of course, be continuing to operate his Georgetown office also.
