Trip To Antigua Follows Seddon-Mitchell Wedding

St. John's United Church was decorated with standards of white gladiol and white bows on the guest pews on Saturday, September 12th, 1964, when Carole Elaine Seddon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seddon, Georgetown, became the bride of Paul Montgomery Mitchell, Brampton, son of Mrs. William Mitchell and the late William Mitchell of Owen Sound.

The double ring ceremony took place at three o'clock with Rev. Ian Fleming officiating. Mr. Kenneth Harrison was the organist, accompanying Mrs. Jean Hancock as she sang the Lord's Prayer and Wedding Prayer.

The bride wore a full length gown of white organza over taffeta with lace trim at waist and around the skirt, the bodice featured lily point sleeves and a scoop neckline. Her elbow length veil fell from a wedding ring headdress of white organza over taffeta and her full cascade bouquet was made of Tuisman Roses and white stephanotis. Mr. Seddon gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Carol Snyder, London, was maid of honour and Mrs. Barry D. Timleck Georgetown, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in turquoise del. sustered satin fashioned with bell skirts, cummerbunds and scoop necklines. They also wore the wedding ring headpiece of matching material with veils, turquoise shoes and white gloves and carried yellow Figi Mums and bronze pom mums.

Mr. Geoffrey Hallatt, London, was the groomsmen and ushers were Mr. Donald Seddon, brother of the bride, Milton and Mr. Earl Martin of Toronto.

The wedding reception was held at Terra Cotta Inn where Mrs. Seddon received in a beige linen sheath with beige lace coat with brown accessories, her corsage was of bronze mums. Mrs. Mitchell assisted in a sheath of gold brocade with gold, hat, black shoes and purse and a corsage of mauve pom mums.

For their wedding trip to Antigua the bride chose a kelly green and plum, tweed suit with black accessories and a corsage of tallman roses and white stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home in Cooksville. He is employed with Richardson, Bond and Wright, Toronto and Mrs. Mitchell, a graduate of the Guelph General Hospital School of Nursing in 1960, has been employed on the staff of the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.

Guests attended from London, Sarnia, Owen Sound, Brampton, Toronto, Kitchener, Milton, Inglewood, Georgetown, North Bay and Guelph.

Would Put Oldtimers Recollections on Tape

At their September meeting, last week Halton County Council endorsed a suggestion that the Museum Board establish a project of tape recordings of reminiscences of older residents to preserve otherwise lost history. The facilities of County Clerk's office for recording equipment will be used.

They also decided to hold the Warden's Dinner at the Brant Inn in Burlington on November 12. A dance will follow the dinner and speeches.

Council referred a suggestion from Waterloo Lutheran University that the County establish a scholarship for a needy student in the County, to the finance committee for study.

Consulting engineers Damas and Smith were hired to conduct a Roads Need Study in the County, with the cost not to exceed $9,500.

All-Canadian Reducing Club Wants Second Branch Here

Georgetown may have Canada's second Nu-Yu Club. Mrs. E. Burbridge of Brampton, who established the first club at Brampton was in Georgetown this week seeking organizers for a branch here.

Nu-Yu is a club for overweight women. Weekly meetings will be held and each member weighs in at each meeting. Records are kept of weight loss and awards are given for achieving reducing goals.

The organization was founded by Norman Naggy, Toronto, and an introduction of the plan took place at Yorkdale Plaza last week.

"Socializing of people with similar problems give each other encouragement," Mrs. Burbridge said. "Nu-Yu is more than a reducing club. A well-organized program of self-improvement is also provided."

Nu-Yu is an all-Canadian organization founded by Canada and backed by Canadians, she told The Herald.

"It is a proven fact that group therapy is very beneficial in helping people to attain and maintain their proper weight," she said.

Mrs. Burbridge said interested people can gain more information about the formation of a Georgetown branch by calling 451-4432. People outside the free-calling area can call collect.
