

Mrs. T. Haines took a car with girls of the Georgetown Pipe Band to Galt on Saturday where they played in the United Appeal parade. Joy is a member of the band.

Mrs. Maggie Crawford entertained the Ladies' Guild of St. Alban's at her home Monday evening.

Carolyn Emerson, who spent a week in Georgetown & District Hospital, is now able to be home and will soon be back to school we hope.

Fred Weaver, a first World War veteran, spent the weekend in Ottawa where he attended the 50th reunion of the Princess Patricia's Regiment to which he belongs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooper have just returned from a three-week trip to Victoria, B.C. where they visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Pys. They flew by and from Malton where the temperature was 74 degrees and arrived in Calgary where it was 34 degrees and snowing. They then boarded a train and took the scenic route through the Rockies. At Banff they had 10 inches of snow and everyone dressed in warm winter clothing. From Vancouver they took the ferry to Vancouver Island where they visited all places of interest. On the coast the weather was delightful and the most beautiful bays and lovely parks interested them. The Hoopers have cottages at Waags Beach and Mrs. Hooper had spent the summer there, so found this a very welcome holiday.

and Mrs. Lloyd Schultz and Sherry of Galt. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Schultz and Marlin of Pessloch. Mr. and Mrs. David Wynn of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Schultz of Galt.

Scouts Forsake Cahvas Sleep on Bruce Trail

Norval Scouts enjoyed their first overnight hike of the fall season on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 26 and 27. Five Scouts with Scoutmaster Ken Kilder and assistant Scoutmaster Doug Fishburn hiked down the Bruce Trail north of Kelso dam to Speyside, where they camped for the night. This was a light weight camping trip with no tents. The boys slept under the stars in their sleeping bags. Fortunately the rain on Sunday morning didn't start until they had broken camp and were hiking home. The participating Scouts passed a series of tests during this camping week-end.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooley who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on September 30th.

Visitors Saturday evening with the C. Barths were Mr.

"THE LIGHTS ARE LOW" — CHECK LANE THEME SONG

Apple Products Predict Bustling Fall Business

The Apple Products plant expects to be starting into production on Monday for the season. They say the apple crop is good, so that should mean plenty of work for all hands making the apple pie filling.

We extend sympathy to Hardy Barnhill in the death of his mother, Mrs. E. Barnhill of Norval last week. Hardly is well known here to everyone, being in the post office and Wheeler's store.

The U.C.W. (United Church Women) held a very successful rummage sale Saturday morning. It was held in the Fellowship Room at school is being held in the main basement of the church. Much good used winter clothing was sold very reasonably. The surplus items were packed in a bale for the needy.

A large congregation attended St. Alban's Sunday morning for the Harvest Home festival. The church was decorated with fruit, flowers, vegetables and the products of the local factories—such as paper, plastics and woolen socks, etc. Rev. R. Stubley celebrated holy communion and the speaker for the special service was principal of Georgetown High school, Mr. J. L. Lambert. The junior choir sang "Father, We Thank Thee" and organist was Mrs. Reg. Williams. The subject of Mr. Lambert's sermon was "Harvest of the Mind".
