Land Of The Future Says Minister-To-Be

white view of the scene. What we were doing was really living history as we took part in the development of the area of the province. There are many people alive there who came from Ontario in wagon trains at the turn of the century as young children and have watched Alberta develop.

We had five Vacation Schools during the summer which provided an opportunity for me to get to know the children very well as we spent an intensive week of study and fun together. Some of these children do not have the opportunity to attend Church School during winter months and thus Vacation School is a very meaningful experience for them. It's just another activity at the school but an opportunity to do something new. It's a rewarding experience for them too.

is only one fact for the summer. I charge to Mr. Pigeon Lake, is located a Camp. Camp after the of the five Edmonton been the area. 64 ly

Back now in Ontario I have a feeling of nostalgia which almost approaches homesickness for these wonderful people and their exciting land. The greatest opportunities in the world are in Alberta, I was told by a professor from the University of Alberta at the start of the summer. Although I laughed at him then, I now know in everyone that I met was an intrinsic "joie de vivre" which makes the very best of life a very exciting affair. It makes the best of life a very exciting affair. I want to go

Best Wishes from P.M. For Clarridge 'Golden'

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Clarridge of 29 Elliott St. Brampton, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, September 23rd. They held open house for their many friends in St. Paul's United Church auditorium with the Miriam Unit of the UCV catering from 2:30 to 5 in the afternoon.

About 80 called to congratulate them and to wish them well. Guests were from Ingersoll, Niagara Falls, Wellington, Toronto, Georgetown, Norval, Terris Cotts, Meadowdale, Rockwood and Brampton.

Their only daughter Ruth (Mrs. Dean Kee) assisted her parents in receiving the guests and had them sign the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Kee have two daughters one just started to school and one at home.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Donald Clark, Norval, Mrs. Norman Cameron, Brampton, Mrs. Frank Petch, Georgetown and Mrs. J. H. Wilson, Meadowdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarridge were married at her father's home in Ingersoll. Guests attending their 50th anniversary who also attended their wedding were Mrs. R. Mayberry, Ingersoll, Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Ingersoll, Mrs. J.L. Clark, Hugh, Donald and Jim Clark, Norval.

Following their marriage they farmed on lot 14, 4th line West Chinguacousy, until 1927 when they moved into the village of Norval for five years. They lived in the house now owned by Mrs. Wm. Townsend. They returned to the farm until they retired to Brampton 21 years ago. A year after returning to the farm they lost the house by fire and rebuilt. The farm is now owned by Clarence Dolson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarridge received a card of congratulations from Prime Minister Pearson and Mr. Bruce Bees, M.P. for Peel called on them personally on the Sunday previous to their anniversary.

Farewell Party, Presentation Before Moving to Vancouver

Members of the Hornby United Church choir, held a farewell party for their pianist and choir leader, Miss Marilyn Wrigglesworth. The evening was spent playing various games in the Sunday School room. A pretty corsage was pinned on the guest of honor and Linda Wilson presented her with a gift of bath powder and soap from the choir members. Marilyn, extended a vote of thanks to all. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Harold Hobson and Mrs. Orville Greston. Following lunch everyone made themselves acquainted with the new minister and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. Linstead.

A quilting bee was held on Tuesday, September 29, at the home of Mrs. Law Sampson, with 18 ladies attending. A pot luck dinner was enjoyed at noon and final plans were discussed for the turkey supper on Wednesday night, Oct. 7.

Miss Ingrid Wagner, who resides at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marchment, returned home on Thursday evening from West Berlin, Germany where she enjoyed a vacation with her family.

Betty June Laidlaw was the winner of a clock radio at the Streetsville Trade Fair on Saturday.

Get well wishes are extended to Mr. Thomas Shea, who is ill at his home.

Hornby United Church held their Anniversary Service on Sunday with a good attendance. Rev. E. Linstead was the speaker.
